We are well aware that this kind of proposition always wakes a shrill yelp of protest in certain quarters. To deny the right of "art" to do anything it pleases is, we are told, to write one self down not only a Philistine, but a gibbering idiot. Nevertheless, the great shining fact remains that a man like D'Annunzio never got anything like a permanent foothold upon Parnassus, and all this talk about his "art" might just as well cease. It will never make him a classic. Those talkers who think it will, and hence go on talking, must be curious individuals. Like Charles Lamb, we would like to see their bumps.
