Boys' Suits For Spring-time Romping

It's nice to be able to put a suit on the boy that you won't have to worry about; that the boy can romp in, and need no watching for fear of the wear and tear.

Dress-up Suits for Boys

The coat is elegantly lined with satin; you'll notice the hand-worked collars, the way the edges are finished, the shape of the lapels. It shows character at every point. Buttons are well shanked. There are extra buttons and patches with the suits. Trousers just as carefully made.

Middy Suits, age 3 to 7, vestee suits, $1.50 and upwards
Double-breasted Suits, age 8 to 16, plain make, $1.50 and up
Long Pants suits, age 12 to 20, round and square, 3.00 and up

Twenty cars of California cattle, belonging to C. M. Lee, were received at this station yesterday morning. The cattle will be taken north of here to graze.

D. Hieman, of Stratton, Ill., and H. Bluhaz, of Chicago, were in town Wednesday. The gentlemen were buying cattle. They went from here to Ogallala to look at W. A. Paxton's herd.

School district No. 11 will receive $1109.55 as its share of the state apportionment. The district which receives the next largest amount is the Brady district, which receives $119.04. The apportionment is divided among ninety-seven and a half districts.

Hereafter the band, on Saturday nights, will play on the court house lawn. This is a decided improvement to the street corners and will be much appreciated by every one. The band concerts are one of the most enjoyable features of summer time in North Platte.

No one should let this wet spring pass by without putting in a few acres of alfalfa. You cannot help but get a good stand. Harrington & Tobin

Judge Neville informed the Hamilton Cadets, on his return from Omaha Wednesday, that their presence was desired at the exposition on June 14. That is the day that the Nebraska building will be dedicated and the cadets will participate in the dedication ceremonies.

Steel for Go-Devils at the Wilcox Department Store.

Five tramps were crouched on the roof of one of the coaches on No. 1 just as she was ready to leave the yard Wednesday night. There were also several attempting to travel on the "blind baggage." They were all discovered before the train pulled out and were promptly routed. They were all young fellows, the oldest one not being more than twenty.

About twenty-five members of the heavy artillery company met in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Wednesday night at the call of James B. McDonald. They decided to commence active drill work at once under Mr. McDonald. They will drill for the present, in Keith's hall. If the regiment of heavy artillery is accepted under the president's last call, they will of course remain a company of that regiment, but if that regiment isn't accepted, they will endeavor to join the regiment of infantry.

Fred D. Wright, of the Telegraph, and Miss Elizabeth Sawyer were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday evening at eight o'clock by Rev. C. S. Snavely. The bride was becomingly gowned in white and carried a bunch of white roses. The groom was clad in conventional black. The bride was attended by Miss Day, who was also gowned in white. Miss Day carried a bunch of pink carnations. H. E. Worrell was the groomsman. In addition to the bridal party only the relatives of the contracting parties and Dr. and Mrs. Warner were present. After the ceremony was performed the entire party repaired to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass, where a very delightful wedding supper was served. The mandolin club furnished music during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wright were the recipients of a number of handsome wedding presents. They will begin housekeeping at once in the Jeffrey residence on west Front street. The bride and groom are both very estimable young people and the TRIBUNE wishes them lots of joy and happiness.

Prof. Gentry's Dogs and Ponies.

Prof. Gentry and his famous company of educated dogs and ponies, some one hundred in number, which, it is said, surpasses anything ever seen in this line before, are soon to visit this city. They will exhibit under their own waterproof tent on Friday, June 3rd, at 3 P. M. and 8 P. M. The news of the coming of this exhibition will no doubt be hailed with delight by every one who has either heard of or has had the privilege of witnessing this wonderful exhibition of animal intelligence. The show this year is exactly twice its former size, many features having been added which include an entire troupe of monkey

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. J. Halligan spent last evening in Ogallala.

Miss Abbie Shuman is clerking in Brazelton's.

J. S. Hincley transacted business in Sutherland Wednesday.

Henry Coker and children are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peale.

C. E. Helm went to Cheyenne yesterday afternoon to brake on the Fourth district.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Watts returned to Corning, Iowa, this morning.

Miss Kate Gilman will return this afternoon from Peru, where she has been attending the state normal school.

Major C. F. Scharmann returned from Lincoln yesterday afternoon. He is one of the healthiest looking invalids that it's possible to find.

Mrs. Jacobson and Mrs. Salverson, who had been visiting the family of David Minshall, returned to their home in Ft. Atkinson, Wis., this morning.

Lieut. Baker passed through town on No. 2 Wednesday morning. The lieutenant was on his way to Montana to pick up horses for the use of the regiment of rough riders. About eighteen years ago Lieut. Baker spent some time in town as the guest of J. H. Hershey.

Johh Reed returned with his bride from Keith county, Wednesday morning. They have commenced housekeeping in the Crockett house. Mr. Reed has been in the employ of John Bratt for the past twelve years, but has decided to try and obtain work in town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hershey and children left for the east on No. 2 this morning. Mr. Hershey will remain about a month and Mrs. Hershey will spend the summer. Philadelphia will be their headquarters most of the time, but they contemplate making trips to Washington, Old Point Comfort and various places in Pennsylvania.

Gen'l. Wesley Merritt, military governor general of the Philippines, passed through this city Tuesday afternoon in the special car 010 attached to No. 1. Gen'l. Merritt was accompanied by three of his staff officers, Maj. Strothers, Maj. Hale, and Capt. Mott. As soon as No. 1 came to a standstill Maj. Walker boarded the car. He was met on the steps by Gen'l. Merritt who hailed him with "Hello, Walker." He had recognized Maj. Walker at once although it is nearly twenty-five years since he last saw him. Gen'l. Merritt stepped off the car and held an impromptu reception during the time No. 1 remained in the yards. He said that it was impossible for him to tell just how soon he would leave for the Philippines but it would be as soon as every thing was in readiness. He spoke of having the First Nebraska in his command, and spoke highly of the Pennsylvania and Minnesota regiments. Gen'l. Merritt remembers M. C. Harrington who was at West Point, when he was commandant there in the eighties. The general is a fine looking man and bears his sixty-two years very lightly. Judging from the look of determination about his face affairs at the Philippines will be firmly and ably administered during the time he has hold of the Senator and Mrs. DuBois were on No. 1 Wednesday afternoon en route from Washington to their home in Idaho.

Frederick W. Orth, who was hospital steward at Ft. McPherson in the '60s, was a passenger on No. 1 Wednesday. Mr. Orth was returning to his home in Portland from Harrisburg, where he had spent the winter for his health. He was one of the charter members of Platte Valley lodge of Masons.

J. T. Gray while working on his engine at Grand Island Tuesday had the misfortune to have his hand pretty severely crushed. It was at once dressed by the doctor who removed several splinters of bone. Mr. Gray will be compelled to carry his hand in a sling for some time.

W. H. O'Connell met with quite a painful accident Tuesday night, about two miles from Big Springs. In attempting to go from a stock car to a coal car he missed his hold on the cars and fell between. The train was in motion and the journal of the stock car hit his hip with such force that it threw him off the track. He rolled down the embankment which at that point is quite steep. Mr. O'Connell was brought back to town on No. 4. Dr. McCabe reports that he is very much bruised and received a severe shaking but that his injuries are not serious.
