Sanitarium.

I can assure you the company who proposes to build the institution are ready to organize as soon as I can get time to appear in Chicago. I wish to send a picture of bathing lake and resort in advance and I hope the people who are interested in building up our portion of the country will appear at the resort Sunday afternoon July 15th, and assist me in sending a good picture to Chicago.

Yours truly,

I. LAMPLUGH.

Next Tuesday a large number of farmers living along the line of the Burlington road in Nebraska will go to Lincoln and spend the day at the state experimental farm. The Burlington gives the farmers a half fare rate.

"Embalmed" Ties.

The Burlington road is building a plant at Edgemont, S. D., for the purpose of embalming railroad ties. The plant will cost $65,000. The ties are to be immersed in a solution which contains zinc and other materials. The life of an "embalmed" tie is considerably longer than that of an ordinary tie. The system has been in use on the Santa Fe road for some time with very profitable results.
