The Los Angeles Times of July 5th in speaking of the various Fourth of July celebrations which took place in the different parks of that city says that one of the orators at the celebration at Westlake park was Miss Opal Le B. McGaughy. Miss McGaughy is a graduate of the North Platte High School. Since leaving school here she has devoted herself to the study of elocution and oratory with the result that she is achieving quite a reputation as an orator.

Meeting of School Board.

The school board held another adjourned meeting at the superintendent's office Saturday night. The secretary was ordered to procure the poll books, ballots, etc., necessary for the special bond election.

Some readjustment of the arrangement of teachers was made. Miss Clayton, who had been assigned to the Primary in the Third ward, was assigned to the Fifth and Sixth grades in the same ward which will be in the new wing. Miss Adda Kocken, who had been assigned to the Fourth and Fifth grades in the Second ward, was assigned to the Primary in the Third ward, and Miss Elizabeth Burke was assigned to the room to which Miss Kocken had formerly been assigned.

The committee on repairs made a report of needed repairs on the various school buildings and recommended a new building for the Murphy school. There being enough money in the building fund to cover the cost of the construction and furnishing of a new school house it will probably be built. The new building will be 24x36 and will accommodate fifty pupils. The board will hold another meeting Saturday night to consider the question of a new building for that part of the district and to finish up some other necessary business.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainments.

The entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. A. held a meeting at the rooms Friday night. They decided to have two entertainment courses during the coming fall and winter. The first course to commence in October and the last one to end early in the spring. The lecturers which they have chosen are Bob Burdette, Wm. Hawley Smith and Chaplain Jones, of the Battleship Texas who was with the ship during all of the Spanish-American war. The rest of the entertainments will be given by the Smith Sisters, Thalian Club, Ariel Ladies Quartette, London Glee Club, Wesleyan Male Quartette, Fred Emerson Brooks and some good colored quartette or minstrels. The committee may be compelled to pay more for the entertainments than they did for last years course and on that account may be compelled to charge more for the course tickets but they will be made as cheap as it is possible to have them. Each course will consist of five entertainments, two lecturers and three musical performances.

Company E.

The following sergeants have been appointed for company E: Jas. A. Raunie, Howard McMichael, C. E. Brown and Bert Brown. They have not been assigned yet and will not be until the 23d. Summer School Student's Reception.

A reception for the students of the summer school was held at the Odd Fellows Hall Saturday night. Quite an enjoyable program of musical selections and recitations was given. J. S. Hinkley, a volunteer of the Third Nebraska regiment, told of some of his experiences while he was with the regiment. Unlike most speeches the only fault to be found with Mr. Hinkley's was that it was not long enough. His experiences were very interesting and they were well told. He conveyed to the students a truer idea of what Cuba really is than they could obtain of themselves from books.

Three lectures will be given during the Lincoln county institute. The lecturers are Prof. J. W. Dinsmore, Prof. A. E. Davison, and Mrs. A. K. Goudy. The subjects of the lectures have not yet been announced. Prof Dinsmore was one of the lecturers at the N. E. A. meeting which was recently held in Los Angeles.
