SHOES THAT FIT.

Shoes must be right in hot weather as well as other apparel. A shoe that's too heavy, or that pinches or hurts, causes more discomfort on a warm day than any other—any way people notice it more.

J. G. Feeken has purchased a new Deering self rake reaper of W. H. Hill with which to harvest his alfalfa for seed.

Miss Christina Erickson, from the vicinity of Fort McPherson, will teach "the young ideas how to shoot" at Nichols the coming year.

Dr. Eves was called to Paxton on professional business Friday evening.

The quarterly meeting services at Hershey Saturday and Sunday were well attended. Presiding Elder Leonard preached Saturday evening and then went to North Platte to attend the dedicatory services. Rev. Randolph preached in the morning and in the evening on the following day.

Unless there is something done in the demo-pop county convention for a certain crew of that faith in this locality there will be war in the camp. It is brewing at this time. Patience ceases to be a virtue at times.

The republicans of this part of the county are all heartily in favor of the re-nomination and re-election of Judge Grimes and also want to see Judge Kinkade nominated for congress.

Neighborhood News.

During the past thirty days the shipment of hogs from Wood River to the Pacific coast has amounted to $10,000.

Father Muenich, of Sidney, will be transferred to Atkinson next week, and will be succeeded by Father Flood, who has been stationed at Dale.

It only took a committee in Gothenburg a few minutes to raise $110 for the ball team of that town. They are base ball enthusiasts down there.

The people of Sidney have taken the preliminary steps toward securing a separator station, the same to be operated by the Fremont creamery. The cost of the plant will be $2,000.

A. A. Collom, of Gothenburg, invested seventeen dollars in pigs last fall. He fed them a little corn, one load of alfalfa and some will, and sold them the other day for $175.00.

Thieves broke into Tobin's saloon at Sidney one night last week and secured four dollars. They overlooked forty-six dollars which was in the back part of the money drawer.

A fine game of ball was played at Ogallala last week between the team of that town and the nine from Grant. At the beginning of the ninth inning the score stood one to one, but in that inning the Grantites made four runs and won the game.

The Logan county teachers' association closed Friday after a two weeks session. The average attendance was nineteen. The learned instructor in charge gave exhibitions of vivisection, and has been roundly scored by Editor Smith.

Down in Lexington the other day a wager was made that a horse could not move 500 pounds of sand with a half inch rope 500 feet long. The wager, which was forty dollars, was won by Jerry O'Connor, his old gray horse moving the sand, which was in two bags, with the utmost ease.

The Lexington Pioneer says that Geo. F. Anderson, of Gothenburg, has brought suit against three lumber dealers of that place for damages in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and also proposes to bring action for criminal libel. The cause of the suit is the issuance by the dealers of a circular setting forth certain statements which prevented Anderson from purchasing lumber to stock a yard in North Platte.
