Stole a Shotgun.

Alexander McDaniels was up before Judge Baldwin yesterday charged with breaking into Jacob Koch's house and stealing a shotgun. He plead guilty and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $500. McDaniels came to town after he had stolen the gun but Koch followed him up and swore out a complaint against him. The officers found him at the fire Sunday evening. He produced the gun and admitted that he had broken in the house and stolen it.

L. O. T. M. Officers.

Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister, of Detroit, supreme commander of the L. O. T. M. and Louie M. Boch, state commander, are here today. A school of instruction is being held this morning for the L. O. T. M. and this afternoon a reception will be tendered to the officers. This hive is the largest in the state and the supreme commander was very anxious to visit it. The members of the lodge are very proficient in their work and the supreme commander spoke very highly of their renditions of their ritual.

Morant-Richards Wedding.

Mr. Sam Morant and Miss Jessie Richards were married Sunday morning at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents by the bride's father, J. C. Richards, who is an elder in the Church of the Latter Day Saints. The bride was gowned in a very handsome white satin costume. She was attended by her sister Myrtle whose dress was of light blue satin. The groom was attended by Mr. Ray C. Langford. The bridal party marched to their places in the parlor to the strains of a very pretty wedding march played by Miss Elizabeth Burke.

After the ceremony, which was a very brief one, an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Morant left on the morning train for Omaha where they will spend a few days.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Richards and is a very charming young lady. The groom is a popular cattleman who has made his home in Lincoln county for a number of years. THE TRIBUNE extends the usual congratulations.

It is worth the price of a ticket to hear Alba Heywood render James Whitcom Riley's "Kingry's Mill." At Lloyd's Sept. 23d.

Geo. H. Likert has joined the ranks of the extra firemen and will spend several months on the road getting practical experience in rail-roading.

Engine No. 681 jumped the track at Vroman siding Sunday afternoon. The wrecking train was sent down from here and in a few hours had the engine back on the track.

Conductor Woodmanson has taken a short vacation which he is spending in Colorado. Andy Walsh is on Woodmanson's run during his absence.

At a meeting of the National Association of Traveling Railway Engineers held in Cincinnati last week P. H. Stack, of Omaha, was elected president of the association. Mr. Stack has been in the employ of the Union Pacific for a number of years and has a great many friends here who are delighted over the honor accorded to him.

General passenger agent Lomax, General Agent Kuhn of the C. & N. W., Jas. Anderson, of the N. Y., Ont. & Western, and Mackey an eastern capitalist, who had been spending several days shooting in the vicinity of North Platte, returned east Saturday night in the special car 01. The party all had great sport and succeeded in bagging a fair amount of chickens.

A sheep train came to grief Friday night at Markel, a siding four miles from Lexington. Two cars left the track and 280 sheep were converted into mutton almost instantly. The wrecking crew from here went down and picked up the wreckage. The accident was evidently due to a defect in the track in the siding. The wreck whistle was blown for this wreck at midnight and as it sounded decidedly uncanny and was just about train No. 3's time, North Platte citizens were very much startled and the waiting room and station were soon crowded with anxious people who were very much relieved to find that it was sheep instead of human beings which had been injured.

L. J. Dean, Elmer Koons, B. J. Minshall, E. E. Lierly and Jas. Soltow have passed their examinations successfully and have been added to the list of extra firemen.

Since the icing season began at this station in April 6783 tons of ice have been used. It has been found necessary to store more ice here to meet the demand and a new ice house will probably be built this fall. If the officials should decide not to build a new house the capacities of the present ones will be increased by raising the roofs.

Train No. 22 had a hard time getting down from Sidney Sunday. When it was near Julesburg the couplings on a car broke and when the train came together the end of stock car filled with cattle and a car of merchandise were broken. The shock of the two parts of the train coming together was so great that conductor Hastings, who was hurrying to the caboose door, was thrown down on the floor. He received a very severe shaking up and was unable to bring in the train but was brought down here. His injuries were none of them serious and he is very much better. A little farther along the road a steer jumped out of the stock car which had been temporarily repaired, and fell on the track in such a manner that a car was derailed.
