NEW YORK, Sept. 30 .- No Roman ordurer returned from his triumphot orbaric spiendor, no victorious king coming home from a successful war ever received such a magnificent ovacion as overwhelmed Admiral Dewey pesterday as he stood on the bridge of the Olympia at the head of a magsollowed by a thousand vessels of peace, each tiered and coated black with people, and sailed over the bright rs of the upper bay and up the pathway of the sun-lit river banks were gay with millions of flags and streamers dancing in the

LOOKS VERY WARLIKE.

Situation in the Transvani Appears to Be More Critical Than Ever. LONDON, Sept. 38,-(New York World Cablegram.)-I obtained last night from a high ministerial source the following authentic facts concern ing yesterday's fateful meeting of the British cabinet. When the ministers assembled they were already in possession of a draft of Chamberlain's proposed ultimatum to the Boer repub lic. The terms of the settlement laid down were: 1. The substitution of the articles of the Pretoria convention of 1881, for those of the London convention of 1884. respecting the Boer republic's relations with foreign powers. This substitution means the abolition of all rights on the part of the public to deal with foreign powers and would amply recall Dr. Leyds as Boer commissioner in

2. The abolition of all degislation respecting aliens adopted by the republic since 1881. This would remove all disabilities placed by successive Boer ordinances on the outlanders.

2. The granting of municipal autonomy to the Rand. This would give control of all local affairs such police, sanitation, and so forth, to the district mainly inhabited by the outlander population. It is the revival of a scheme of home rule for the Rand, suggested by Chamberlain to Kruger after the Jamieson raid and contemptuously refused by Kruger.

4. the removal of all religious disahilities. At present Catholics and Jews are disabled from holding many offices, even the most important kind.

5. The disarmament of the two great forts which command Johannesburg. The report that Hr. ain demands a population indemnity for military outlays already incurred is not accurate, though it is the intention of the government to raise that question in due course. Finally, I may add, the republic is called upon to denounce its treaty of 1872 with Portugal under which it is empowered to import arms and ammunition from Delagon bay through Portuguese territory.

These may be accepted as entirely accurate, precise British proposals. They were adopted by the cabinet, but no dispatch was forwarded to Pretoria last night and a further cabinet meeting has been called for Tuesday. The ministers were much surprised that Kruger had not sent any reply to their dispatch of last Friday, but he seems to have delayed it deliberately to embarrass his enemies, as it is expected today.

Both columns struck the town at 9 o'clock and opened a brisk fire, which was replied to by the enemy for half an hour. Then the insurgents fled and the Americans marched over their trenches and took possession of the place. ## "WELCOME HOME" IN FIRE.

Fireworks and Illuminations in New York Harbor a Great Feature.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The appearance of New York harbor last night could be compared to a circle of intense light with the war ships off Tompkinsville as the hub from which the brilliancy radiated. bay has never before had as brilliant or picturesque a display of continuous illumination as that seen last night, nor has the interest manifested by the shore dwellers been more manifest.

Beginning at the Brooklyn bridge with its string of white electric lights punctuated at intervals with red and green-colored are signal lamps, the immensely brilliant motto, "Welcome Dewey," was suspended as it were in midair. #### ADMIRAL DEWEY KONORID.

Olympia Steams Up the Bay Amid Plaudits of the People.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.-Through rollcking whitecaps the Olympia moved majestically up the lower bay today and passed through the picturesque strait guarded by Forts Wadsworth and Hamilton, amid the booming of great guns, and there inside the city gates Admiral Dewey and bis gallant tars received the giorious, thunderous welcome of the steel-walled men-of-war, as the ship glided up to its position at the head of the column, there to remain until the great naval pageant starts on Friday. Never before perhaps, did a triumphant warrior returning from a victorious campaign receive a more thunderous welcome. Though thousands upon thousands witnessed it from shore, and the anchorage at Tomkins-ville, where the fleet lay, fairly swarmed with tugs, yachts and steamers and every sort of harbor craft, Wheaton, commanding the Twelfth all jet black with wild cheering, exulting people and the towering white walls of the city beyond were brave with a million of welcoming flags, today's greeting to Dewey was the greeting of his comrades of the navy, and It was eminently fitting that his comrades in arms should have the first chance at him whom the millions are waiting to honor.

Very early in the morning, before Dewey left his anchorage inside Sandy Hook, Rear Admiral Howison, commander of the South Atlantic squadron, aboard the Chicago, which arrived outside last night; travel-stained and weather-beaten, after its journey of 21,000 miles around South Africa foamed in past the Hook anxious to join the North Atlantic squadron in receiving Admiral Dewey.

Dewey's flagship was no sooner recognized than preparations were made to give the loudest welcome the ship could give. The guns were manned, the marine guards were paraded and seventeen guns were loosened in honor of Dewey.

E. Brown, N. S. Harwood and John H. Ames. Mrs. Fitzgerald was released from lialfilty in the trial court and her name is not included. Similar executions are to be served in each county where the bondsmen live or where property of bondsmen is situated. Attorney General Smyth recently said in an interview that he favored a compromise between the legislature and the bonds men in case the judgment is sustained This has given rise to the belief that no property of the bondsmen will be taken until the supreme court passes on the case filed yesterday by the bondsmen. Several of the bondsmen are reported to be execution proof.

The first trial in the district court resulted in a verdict for the defendants. The supreme court reversed the judgment and remanded the case for a new trial, and on the second trial judgment for the amount named was given.
