Another Populist Rebels.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The Era, which is a populist organ for revenue only, would have the people believe that communications signed "Populist" and published in republican papers are written by republicans. In this particular instance, at least, Mr. Copper is wrong. I am a popu-list, believe firmly in populist prin-ciples and stand ever ready to work for those principles, but when a gang of so-called reformers, whose only object in being populists is to seek and gain office, attempt to control the populist party in order to further their own personal into us because the people of the city and vicinity have learned that our printed promises are as good as our bond. We would not enjoy our present standing in the community were this not so. The prices we quote below on reliable general merchandise should interest every perterests only, then I am ready to rebel and take such action as I think best for the real interests of the populist party.

The communication in your paper of ten days ago voices my sentiments precisely. The present gang of so-called reformers in Lincoln county is the finest sample of antireformers known of men. This gang has lived and fattened on official spoils for nearly ten years, and they will continue to do so for another ten years if they are per-mitted. When the first large populist convention was held in Lincoln county and Butler Buchanan sought the office of county. clerk, and was defeated for the nomination the gang, headed by Garrison and ed the entire populist ticket. They asserted that they would either rule or ruin the populist party, and they have since so far controlled the organization that all members of the original gang have held office. So

They have so far failed to accomplish any good except for themselves;

Lucien Stebbins, the founder and orignator of the populist party in Nebraska, who quickly discovered and exposed the sham and fraud-ulent intentions of these alleged Holcomb that you can distinguish be-reformers, is abused and denounced tween a political charlatan and an hon-because he has had the courage to est man. We cannot conceive of any declare himselt against them. Today Stebbins, so far as political purity is concerned, is as high above the members of the gang as heaven is above hell. As a populist I believe that the rotten combination of reformers and office seekers should be defeated this fall, and the way to do this is to vote the republican ticket. This is the only way to overthrow the gang, and when they are once overthrown, the populist party of the county can then be reorganized in accordance with populist principles, and become a power for good, and not a party whose known as the Atlantic Express now sole object is to perpetuate the office trust. When the populist party was first organized it had as leaders in the state such men as John Powers, but Powers and his co-workers have been relegated to the rear; they were too honest and conscientious to suit the state gang. The original populist principles have been laid aside, and office, office, office. is the only object the party as at present conducted has in view. Let us crush the men and the candidates who have brought our party into such a disreputable condition: then honest populists will have a chance to reorganize and carry out the reforms which are needed. A POPULIST. Holcomb and the Labor Unions In the early part of the summer of 1897 the Central Labor Union of Omaha unanimously endorsed and supported T. F. Sturgess for ap-pointment as one of the state commissioners of the Transmississippi exposition. In addition to the endorsement of the Central Labor Union, Mr. Sturgess was endorsed made in two hours and forty minby a dozen or more of the leading citizens of Omaha, and A. H. Donecken, who was also an applicant for the position, withdrew in Sturgess' favor. Mr. Sturgess filed his application and endorsements with Governor Holcomb, and later had an interview with the governor, the latter assuring him that his application would be carefully considered. Mr. Sturgess did not personally seek the appointment for any pe-cuniary reason, but because of organized labor's desire to be represented on the commission. But when the time came for the appointment of the commissioners. Sturgess was turned down and by doing so Governor Holcomb gave organized labor a direct slap in the face. In making his report to the labor union Mr. Sturgess referring to the action of the governor says: "I cannot attribute his action in the matter to any feeling against me, but rather that he was unwilling to give any official recognition to the interest (organized labor) which I represented."

Holcomb is now seeking the support of organized labor in the state but he is likely to find the attitude of union labor reflected in the following comment made by the Western Laborer on the incident:

Workingmen of Douglas county and the state of Nebraska: T. F. Sturgess needs no introduction to you; you elect ed him to represent you in the last leg islature, which he did faithfully and well; you know he made his mark there Buchanan, fought down and deleat- for superior intelligence and ability, and you know when you presented him to Governor Holcomb as your candidate and representative on the Transmississippi commission you meant him to be appointed. Since that time Holcomb has proved himself the enemy of organ original gang have held office. So exclusive have they become that only members of their charming circle are adjudged capable of hold-ing county offices. They have so far failed to accompthis man who has imposed upon you? Can you by your votes place this man and not having made a record on Holcomb upon the supreme bench of which they can stand before the the state among honorable men? Will people, they seek to use the trusts, you, like whipped curs, again fawningly Boer war as capital for their county campaign. Anything to fool the people; anything to catch votes. Lucien Stephing, the four dest states to be again "fooled all the selves asses to be again "fooled all the time" by an obscure lawyer that accldent and his own base trickery brought into a position where he betrayed the reform cause, or will you act with your workingman, skilled or unskilled, in Omaha or South Omaha voting for the election of this mar, (who has been a notorious railroad baruacle) to any offic in the gift of the people, and least of all electing him to a position where he would be more dangerous to labor and commercial interests than over before.
