Republican Ticket.

- For Supreme Judge—M. B. REESE.
For Regents of the University—E. G. MGLTON, WM. B. ELY.
For Member Congress—Sixth district M. P. KINKAID
For Judge, 13th Judicial District, H. M. GRIMES.
For County Clerk, WM. M. HOLTRY.
For County Treasurer, C. F. SCHARMANN.
For Sheriff, ENOCH CUMMINGS.
For County Supt., BERTHA THOLECKE.
For Clerk of District Court, W. C. ELDER.
For County Judge, A. S. BALDWIN.
For County Surveyor, CHAS. F. ROSS.
For Coroner, D. W. BAKER.
For County Commissioner, 3d Dist., LINCOLN CARPENTER.

CON SCHARMANN is of German parentage and he is not ashamed of the fact. His parents are honorable and highly respected people, and the Era's effort to belittle them or Con will be rebuked by the German voters of the county.

ONLY one year more of fusion, say the democrats, and then there will be but two parties—the democratic Jonah will have swallowed the populist whale. What a comforting thought to the democrats who have been out in the rain so long.

BRYAN now receives as much as five hundred dollars for one political speech. In the democratic free soup house days Bryan was glad to make a political speech for one-tenth that amount. These prosperous republican times are rapidly swelling Bryan's bank account.

THE campaign fund of the fusionists will probably be swelled a little before election. A populist in the north part of the county who was given three dollars with which to buy votes, threatens to return it unless the remaining seven dollars which was promised is promptly paid.

OHIO and Nebraska will go republican this fall and the result will go far toward settling the presidential election next year. Republican success in Ohio will be an endorsement of McKinley's administration and the election of the republican ticket in Nebraska sounds the death knell for false prophet Bryan.

JOHN BONESTEEL, ex-commander of the G. A. R. Post at Wallace sends us word that W. H. Smith, the fusion nominee for county commissioner, is wearing a Grand Army badge without having the right to wear the same. Smith was stricken from the roster of the Wallace post for the non-payment of dues and this disqualifies him from wearing a badge.

THE records of the county clerk's office show that it requires nearly $10,000 a year more to run the county under populist administration than it did under republican administration. Do the voters of the county favor the high-handed extravagance that has been employed by the populist commissioners, or do they favor the economical management rendered prior to 1892 by republican commissioners?

VOTERS should remember that in 1897 County Surveyor Paul Meyer "farmed" the county for twelve hundred dollars, while the expenses of the office under Chas. P. Ross last year were only about three hundred dollars. Why pay twelve hundred dollars for the county surveying when it can be done for one-fourth that amount? Elect C. P. Ross and thus continue the honest administration of the county surveyor's office.

Vote for Kinkade.

For seven long years this district has been represented in congress by populist statesmen of mediocre ability and reputation; men who were utterly incapable of commanding the respect and confidence of their colleagues. The result has been that the district has become a by-word in the halls of congress. Citizens of the district regardless of party, when in Washington, have been ashamed to admit that they belonged in the big Sixth.

So far as anything that has been accomplished and the good name of the district is concerned, it would have been better that the district had no representation during those years. Badly as the reputation of the district has suffered by such a representation in the past, the election of William Neville would be a step backward. What a contrast there is between the character and reputation of the two candidates for congress. Kinkade loved and respected wherever known for his upright character and integrity; held up by the parents of young men in the community where he is known as a model from which to pattern their lives. Is there any parent in this community that would say to his boy: I want you to pattern your life after the life of William Neville? Not one would do it intentionally. But my Christian brother if you cast your vote for Neville you in effect do hold him up as a pattern, and if your boy follows in his footsteps you can only blame yourself.

This community should give M. P. Kinkade an overwhelming vote regardless of party. By so doing it will maintain its self respect and will be giving notice to the party managers that in the selection of candidates for the people's suffrages it is necessary to nominate men who will command the respect and confidence of their neighbors; men whose reputation is based on something ennobling and not on something that is demoralizing to the young men of the land.

THE coming of Chaplain Mailley has thrown the local Aguinaldo aid society into a spasm of fear, and in order to counteract the effect of the Chaplain's patriotic campaign they threaten to place in the hands of every voter a printed copy of a private letter written by the Chaplain from Manila January 30, 1899, in which he expressed himself as opposed to the forcible annexation of the Philippines. When the date of the letter (Jan. 30, 1899,) is taken into consideration, there is nothing in it inconsistent with the stand the Chaplain now takes: that it is the duty of every good citizen to stand by his government when it is engaged in war. That letter was written before the American senate adopted the treaty with Spain making the Philippine islands American territory; before Aguinaldo had issued his infamous proclamation calling upon his followers to arise and assassinate every foreign resident of the islands; before the followers of Aguinaldo had opened fire upon our gallant volunteers and the American flag. On January 30th, 1899, before the happening of these events, there was room for an honest difference as to what our policy should be in the Philippines, and thousands of loyal American citizens, who agreed with the Chaplain in January, 1899, when he wrote the letter, agree with him now in the sentiment that while our country is at war with an aggressive enemy who struck the first blow, it is the duty of every loyal American to uphold his government in sustaining American sovereignty and the honor of our flag. The dear Aguinaldoans also take exception to the strictures of the Chaplain against Colonel Stotsenberg contained in the same letter. It is only necessary to call attention to the fact that these strictures were made before the gallant Stotsenberg had by his heroic fighting won his spurs and endeared himself to the boys of the First Nebraska. There is no doubt but that the letter, at the time it was written, voiced the sentiment of the regiment. No officer in the First Nebraska stood higher in the estimation of the men on the firing line than Chaplain Mailley. Come out and hear him.

A Sample of Republican Economy.

W. M. Holtry Turns into the County Treasury in Excess Fees Eight Hundred Dollars.

Last Friday W. M. Holtry, county clerk, turned over to County Treasurer Holcomb EIGHT HUNDRED DOLLARS in excess fees. This means that by economical management of the county clerk's office, and by doing away with extra clerk hire, the expenses of the office have been $800 less than the receipts, and the taxpayers receive the benefit of the $800. Newell Burritt was county clerk for four years and during that time he only turned in as excess fees the sum of $240.88; less than one-third the amount turned in by Mr. Holtry in less than two years.

This is but one sample of Republican economy; the application of business ability in the management of county affairs. Vote for the republican nominees and this same economy will prevail in all the county offices.

THE political contest in Kentucky this fall, where a governor is to be elected, is over the Goebel election law. Goebel, the regular democratic nominee for governor, is the author of the Goebel election law, the most radical and partisan election law that was ever passed. The law provides for a state election board of three members, elected by the last legislature, which was democratic. This board is to have absolute control of the elections for four years. This state board appoints a county election board of three members in each county who have the appointment of all election officers, and who have the canvassing of the votes in each county, thus giving over to one party the absolute control of the elections without any check. No provision is made for the representation on election boards of the minority party. The law is denounced by the Courier Journal, the leading democratic paper in the state, by the populist party in its state convention and by the best element of the democratic party, who have nominated Browne in opposition to Goebel. The issue is clearly drawn for and against the infamous Goebel law. W. J. Bryan who has always pretended to favor the common people and a free ballot and a fair count, has just finished a speaking tour of the state in which he threw the weight of his prestige and eloquence in favor of this infamous act that was intended to deprive the people of the state of Kentucky of the right of self-government, and to make popular elections a farce.

IT cost $221,046 to run the county eight years under republican management, and $296,818 to run it eight years under populist control. This difference of $75,818 represents the sum the populist commissioners have wasted and squandered during the past eight years. Is it not time to turn down and out the incompetents?

IN their frantic but futile efforts to defeat Judge Grimes the fusionists are resorting to methods upon which the voters of their party will set the foot of disapproval. Judge Grimes is so well known in the district as an honorable man and a fair and impartial judge that the attacks made upon him will only tend to increase the large majority which he will receive. There is no doubt of Judge Grimes' election; hundreds of populists in the district will vote him and the entire republican vote will be solidly for him.

THE long drawn faces of the fusion candidates is an index of the condition of affairs they find in the country precinct. When everything is going dead against a man it is difficult for him to look pleasant.

DISGUISED DANGER.

Hunters sometimes hide themselves in the disguise of a cow, and thus make their way into the very midst of the most cautious game. The mode of operation is shown in the picture.

In a similar manner consumption hides itself in the disguise of a throat or bronchial affection, making its way finally to the lungs, where the insidious germs eat away the victim's life. A stubborn cough, bronchitis and other throat troubles are the first steps toward this deadly malady. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will prevent consumption, curing every contributing cause. Time and time again, it puts the germs of what local physicians have pronounced well-developed consumption. It makes the stomach healthy, the liver healthy, the blood healthy. It is a rejuvenating tonic, which makes the weak strong; puts ambition into tired people, puts life into thin bodies, and vigor into sluggish veins. It is a peculiar medicine in that its properties are preserved in any climate without syrup, sugar or alcohol entering into its composition. It does not create craving for injurious stimulants. It is the personal prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose widespread experience and success are at the service of the public without cost. Anybody, anywhere can consult him free by mail. I will write you free. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Becher, Esq., of Dorton, Pike Co., Ky. "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lung. I have had a bad cough almost ever since with shortness of breath, and it was very easy to take cold; the slightest change of weather would cause the cough to be so bad I would have to sit up in bed all night. Could not eat or sleep at times; was all run-down, could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Have not used more than two bottles and now can eat, sleep, and work and I feel like a new man. I cannot find words to sufficiently recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or tell the good it has done me." "The no-grit remedy for costiveness is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."
