

A. E. CADY.

There is a treat in store for those of our citizens who turn out this evening to hear A. E. Cady at the court house. Mr. Cady is one of the most forceful and logical speakers in Nebraska. Come out and hear him.

Mrs. Mary E. Sayre arrived from Omaha this morning and will spend the winter here.

A carload of good Winter Apples now on sale at Wilcox Dept. Store.

Miss Allie Lewis, of Maxwell, has been spending a few days in town visiting friends.

Long time since Mackie appeared here. Give him a hearty welcome Nov. 7th., at opera house.

Loveland and Beer have succeeded in disposing of most of their cattle but still have a few head of choice stock on hand which they are disposing of at very reasonable prices.

Company E will give a ball on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday November 22nd. The members are planning to make it one of the most enjoyable social events of the season.

All the latest styles of wraps at Bank's.

The receipts of milk at the creamery separator station show a slight increase but the quantity is still only a small per cent of what the station can take care of.

The Monday Night Club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cary. The principal topic of the evening will be the situation in the Transvaal.

Pillsbury's Best flour is the best Minnesota flour sold in the west. $1.15.

Harrington & Tobin.

Conductor Mooney is using a cane now-a-days—the after effect of piloting the Bryan special along the Nebraska division. He tells a very pleasing little tale about spraining his ankle by stepping into a hole at Sidney but his friends are positive that his lameness is due to the waves of wind which he encountered on the special.

Miss Myrtle Frey left yesterday for Chicago to purchase the balance of the furniture and instruments needed to completely equip the hospital. The new Bonner residence in the Third ward which has been leased for the hospital is being put in readiness for the furniture and the promoters of the project are hopeful that they will be ready to open for business by the 15th. Miss Frey expects to obtain additional nurses while she is in Chicago.

Received our fall supply of the celebrated Club House brand of canned goods. Harrington & Tobin.

Turpie-Hinman Wedding.

Mr. Wm. H. Turpie and Miss Maude Hinman were united in marriage last evening at the Church of Our Saviour by the rector, Rev. Geo. A. Beecher. The ceremony occurred at eight o'clock and shortly before that time, the first notes of the wedding march, which was played by Mr. Doolittle, were heard, and the bridal procession formed at the church door. The ushers, Mr. Percy Thornton and Mr. Joe Perritt, preceded the bride, who came with her father. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Thella Langford. The groom and the best man, Mr. Asa Searle, joined the bridal party at the chancel steps and marched to the altar rail where the simple but beautiful marriage service was performed; after which the party proceeded to the church door where carriages awaited them.

The bride was gowned in a very handsome white satin costume en train and carried white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was also dressed in white. The groom and the best man were attired in conventional black. The invited guests were only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Turpie went at once to the Turpie ranch south of town where they will be at home to their friends after November 3d.

The bride has spent nearly her entire life in North Platte and is a beautiful young lady with many charming qualities. The groom has only spent a short time here but during that time has won many friends by his attractive characteristics. Since his father's death, which occurred a few months ago, he has had charge of the extensive Turpie interests in Lincoln county. THE TRIBUNE extends the usual congratulations.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Seymour, Omaha's leading optician, will visit North Platte Nov. 14, for one day only. At the Hotel Neville.

Will pay the highest market price prevailing for alfalfa seed. Send samples and ask prices. Harrington & Tobin.

Rev. W. W. Hess, pastor of the Lutheran church, of Beatrice, Neb., the guest of Rev. H. A. Wolfe, will preach in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Hess is a graduate of a school of elocution and is an interesting speaker. Rev. Wolfe will sing.

Recalling Happy days of Yore, when you and I slid down the Cedar Door. Try it again at the opera house Nov. 7th.

A water color picture of the proposed new high school building is on exhibition in the window of Hartman's confectionery store. A very fair idea of what the new building will be like can be obtained by viewing the picture.

Dr. Seymour will be pleased to meet all those suffering from defective sight at the Neville Nov. 14th.

A little incident which occurred at Sutherland Tuesday proves that Bryan is in politics for the money there is in it and not for the honor. There were quite a number of people in Sutherland who were anxious to see and hear Bryan so a telegram was sent to him asking him to stop at Sutherland and make a brief address. A reply was received saying that if ten dollars was guaranteed the request would be complied with; but, as the Sutherland Free Lance expresses it, "The people failed to put up the necessary retaining fee and the great man with the little train of his own passed through." The same paper also says that a few people gathered at the station as the train went through but not a shout was heard nor a hat raised.

Railroad Notes.

G. H. Hood is acting as the manager of the telegraph office while P. J. Gilman is laying off.

W. H. Finney is rapidly recovering from the injuries which he received a few weeks ago and is able to be on the street.

It is said that the 800 class of engines, which have been used lately as extra passenger engines, will again be put into regular service.

Conductor Woodmansee brought his family down from Cheyenne Wednesday night. They will probably remain here for the winter at least.

Mrs. C. M. Highsmith, of Omaha, is spending a few days here while Mr. Highsmith is looking after some of the engines in service on the Third district.

Work on the addition to the superintendent's office has been pushed so rapidly that it will soon be completed. A large force of carpenters is at work there.

Train No. 6 has been arriving in several sections the greater portion of the time owing to the fact that the train is late on the Wyoming division. This has given passenger work to a number of the freight crews.

Several freight cars jumped the track in the west end of the yard early yesterday morning, doing considerable damage to the roadbed and badly twisting the rails. The wrecking crew was called out and soon had the cars back on the track but it took some time to repair the damage to the track.

Wednesday morning H. J. Roth who has been in charge of the temporary dispatchers office at Sidney was installed as chief dispatcher of the western division with his headquarters here. J. F. Clabaugh has been given the first trick permanently, H. E. Cox, the second and Wm. Jeffers, the third. Mr. Roth's large coterie of friends are much pleased over his good fortune.

A shifting took place among the operators at this station Wednesday. Vic Anderson returned from Sidney where he has been dispatching for several months and resumed his position as day operator in the dispatchers' office and C. P. Cox who has been acting as day operator, took his old position as night operator in the telegraph office. J. S. Fockler who has been working nights will work as day operator during the time Manager Gilman is laying off and afterwards will take the split trick.

Coats and jackets of all descriptions at Bank's.

Engine No. 1808 which has been in the shops for the past two weeks will be out this afternoon and Alex Fenwick will break it in for passenger service. The engine has been given an extension front and a straight stack.

Engine No. 1434 is again being used in the passenger service. Its first trial was not altogether satisfactory but the trouble was largely due to the fact that the engine was just out of the shops and had not had very much breaking in.

A Lie Nailed.

To whom it may concern: I hereby certify that Miss Bertha Thoelecke has not misused in language or act, in our presence, any teacher of the public schools, WM. HUBARTT, MARY A. HUBARTT. Dated Oct. 22, 1899.

H. V. Hilliker left last night for Evanston to join the corps of dispatchers there. Mrs. Hilliker and the children will follow in a short time. Mr. Hilliker and his family are the sort of citizens that North Platte can ill afford to lose as they have always been prominently identified with the best life of the town. They have a large circle of warm friends here to whom their going away causes deep regret but who hope that their new location will be a pleasant one.

Our people can afford to buy the celebrated Pillsbury's Best Minnesota flour at only $1.15 a sack. Harrington & Tobin.

General manager Dickinson is expected in from the west on a special train today. The general manager and his party have been making an inspection on the Wyoming Division and the western part of the Nebraska Division. Supt. Park is with the party.

Mrs. J. H. Wilson, of Rock Island, is spending the day in town as the guest of her niece, Miss Abbie Day. Mrs. Wilson has been visiting relatives in Greeley and Denver for several weeks and is now enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ozier and family arrived from Chicago this morning. They are enroute to Denver but expected to spend a number of days but as they were unable to secure rooms they will go on to Denver to-night.

Miss Emily McNeal, who has been in Lincoln attending the state university, returned Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chas. Hendy went to Maxwell this morning to spend a few days at the Hendy ranch.

Miss Lucy Holmes, who had been visiting relatives here, returned to Brady this morning.

Mrs. Etta L. Bunch died at her home in the Third ward last night. Mrs. Bunch has been an invalid for several years but only within the past few weeks has her illness been considered dangerous. A husband and five children survive her. The remains will be taken to Grand Island, the former home of the family, for burial.

Dr. E. B. Warner, James Rannie, James Frazier and John Sorenson will go to Lincoln next week to attend the state convention of the I. O. R. M.
