Harrington & Tobin.

Business being a trifle dull in the local land office just at present. Uncle Sam's faithful servants, who are always seeking for more labor, have been devoting their energies to an extraordinary housecleaning. Register French has proven that he is a past master with a scrub brush and Receiver Bacon has developed into an artist of no mean ability as is amply proven by the appearance of the floor.

J. G. Beeler is transacting business in Lexington today.

Rev. C. C. Wilson will preach the annual sermon of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at the Methodist church Sunday evening, November 26th.

Their efforts were successful and the horses are now held by Sheriff Patrick who will keep them until Mike can have them driven down.

The strike situation at Cheyenne shows scarcely any change. A number of the striking machinists and boiler-makers have drawn their time and gone to hunt work in other places. Another conference between the men and the officials was to have been held yesterday, and it was hoped that it might result in some settlement of the difficulty, although all previous ones have failed.

The annual bazaar and supper of the ladies' guild was held last evening in the Harrington & Tobin building on Sixth street. It was exceedingly well patronized, the receipts of the evening reaching two hundred and sixty-seven dollars. The display of fancy work was even finer than that of previous years and found a ready sale. The program which was given, though it was brief, was a very enjoyable one. The supper was fully up to the high standard of excellence and was enjoyed by nearly four hundred people.

Railroad Notes.

Fred Hartman resumed his run with Conductor Adams Wednesday afternoon.

H. T. Rice resumed his work as switchman in the yards Wednesday morning after enjoying a short layoff.

W. C. Twoling and Wm. G. Lotze, recently of Terre Haute have entered the employ of the Union Pacific at this point as machinists.

Nick Kirsch, who has been working in the yards here for several months, left this morning for his home in Missouri.

Engine No. 1716, in which the arch pipe burst at Chappell, was towed into Sidney and new pipes were sent up from here Wednesday afternoon to be put in it.

The lake at Pawnee Springs which is being constructed by the Union Pacific has been so far completed that the contractors expected to turn in the water yesterday to see what effect it would have.

The additional paper needed for the roof of the round-house was received yesterday and work on it was resumed at once. The high wind made it rather difficult to lay the paper and made the work very hard for the men.

The reporter was misinformed as to the docking of the men on election day. Master Mechanic Barnum having instructed the timekeeper to give the men the full time. The same generous policy was also pursued at Grand Island and Omaha.

The members of the various grievance committees are still awaiting their summons to Omaha to confer with the officials. The conference was originally set for the first of November but was necessarily postponed on account of the trouble at Cheyenne.

The plumbers are at work fitting in the necessary pipe for the extension of the steam into the new addition and to the superintendent's office. The windows for the addition have not yet been received and this may delay the moving and settling of the various offices. A force of linemen is at work stringing the wires on the new poles to have everything in readiness for moving the telegraph office and battery into new quarters. The frame work of the new ice house is partly up and the house will probably be entirely completed by the time the company is ready to store ice. Work on the improvements at the machine shops has been stopped temporarily on account of lack of cement.

We also carry a large line of optical goods and are prepared to properly adjust lenses to the most difficult cases. Each pair guaranteed.

Mr. Louis D. Thoelecke, Union Pacific watch inspector and well known watch maker is assisting us and will be pleased to meet his old friends and patrons. Would be pleased to have you call.

Harry Dixon, Jeweler and Optician.

All of the 1700 class of engines are being taken off the Second district and sent to the Wyoming division. Their places will be taken by standards which are being brought up from Omaha where they have been stored. Some are also being brought from the First district where they have been in service. The use of the 1700s will be continued on the Third district for the present. The engineers and firemen are expressing no great amount regret over losing the 1700s.

During the evening the following musical program will be rendered: Selection, cornet and two violins; Bass solo, C. F. Scharmann; Piano duet, Mrs. Vic Anderson and Mrs. E. A. Cary; Soprano solo, Mrs. Edward Gillis; Selection cornet and two violins; Bass solo, Rev. H. A. Wolf; Vocal duet, Mrs. Edward Gillis and Mrs. W. H. McDonald; Piano duet, Miss Elizabeth Burke and Mrs. E. A. Cary.

The ladies will also have for sale a large number of both fancy and useful articles, a very choice line of dressed dolls, hand painted china and a great many dainty novelties suitable for holiday remembrances. Fred Thompson is on the sick list.

C. L. Patterson will leave tomorrow for Denver, where he will transact business for several days.

Mrs. Wm. Neville will go to Ogallala this afternoon to spend several days as the guest of Mrs. C. F. Searle.

Restaurants may come and go, but the old reliable Vienna holds its trade by serving the best meals in town. The Vienna's meals are always good.

Col. H. C. Bentley came down from Denver today and will spend several days visiting friends and hunting. It has been several years since the Colonel visited North Platte and he is receiving a hearty welcome from his friends.

A test of the milk received at the local creamery separator station shows that it contains more than the average amount of butter fat. The lowest per cent obtained from any of the milk is three and eight tenths, which is considered a very good average at most stations, and the highest is four and eight tenths, an unusually high per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keen expect to leave in a short time for Joliet where they will probably make their home.

F. Hoover, who had been working for the past two weeks as a printer on the Herald at Fremont, was struck by the engine on train No. 2 Wednesday morning and probably fatally injured. Mr. Hoover who is very deaf was walking close to the railroad track when the train was pulling into the Fremont yards. The engineer whistled several times but of course the warning went unheeded as Mr. Hoover did not hear it. He was struck in the back and thrown several feet and it is feared that he cannot recover. Mr. Hoover spent the entire summer here and at Hershey, having left here only a short time ago. He has a brother here, W. Hoover, in the employ of the Union Pacific.
