Wreck at Bushnell.
A wreck which narrowly escaped being very disastrous, occurred at Bushnell, a siding west of Sidney and close to the state line, Saturday night about ten o'clock. Train No. 1 stopped at Bushnell for water and was run into by train No. 101 which through some error had not been flagged. Train No. 101 was coming along at a pretty lively rate as both trains were late and it struck train No. 1 about four minutes after it had stopped to take water. The engine crashed into the diner which was the rear car of train No. 1 and pretty thoroughly demolished it. Fortunately most of the occupants were in the forward end of the car or some of them would probably have been killed. As it was they were all pretty badly shaken up and some of them were quite seriously bruised.

Engine No. 1434, which was pulling train No. 101, was badly damaged and the head car on that train was badly stove up. The loss to the company will be in the neighborhood of $12,000. H. Dixon, who was firing one of the engines which was pulling train No. 1, was on the tender when the trains came together and he was thrown to the ground with considerable force. His injuries are the most serious. Five trainmen were hurt but with the exception of Dixon their injuries are only slight. The wrecking crews from Cheyenne and Sidney picked up the wreck. Most of the wreckage was brought down yesterday and Engine No. 1434 has gone into the shops for an overhauling. Conductor Stone and brakeman Hammond were the crew on train No. 1 and conductor Hine and brakeman States on train No. 101.

Death of Mrs. E. E. Chamberlain.

Mrs. Emily E. Chamberlain died early Saturday morning at the home of her son Ralph. Mrs. Chamberlain has been suffering with tuberculosis, the result of an attack of pneumonia, for some time and about ten days ago it took an acute form which resulted in her death. Funeral services were held at the house in the afternoon and the remains were taken Saturday night to her old home in Wakefield, N. H., for burial. Her sons Ralph and Bert accompanied the remains.

Mrs. Emily E. Chamberlain was born in Wakefield, N. H., July 28, 1829 and spent a large part of her life there. Since the death of her husband in 1894 she has made her home with her children and for the last two years has made her home here with her son Ralph. Four children, Ralph, Bert and Henry Chamberlain and Mrs. Lucy Larkin, and a sister, Mrs. Alonzo Roberts, survive her. Although, on account of her ill health, Mrs. Chamberlain's circle of acquaintances here was not very large, she was greatly beloved by all who knew her and her death casts a shadow over her relatives and friends.

Several Hastings' business men are promoting a scheme to build a railroad from the South Dakota wheat fields, south through the wheat country to the Gulf. They do not expect the right-of-way to cost them a cent as they are of the opinion that the farmers will donate the land in order to get a better market for their grain.

The Burlington road is still experiencing difficulty getting laborers to work on its Alliance extension. The wages paid are $1.75 per day.

BRAVE EXPLORERS

Like Stanley and Livingstone, found it harder to overcome malaria, fever and ague and typhoid disease germs than savage cannibals; but thousands have found that Electric Bitters is a wonderful cure for all malarial diseases. If you have chills with fever, aches in back of neck and head, and tired, worn out feeling, a trial will convince you of their merit. W. A. Nuff of Webb, Ill., writes: "My children suffered for more than a year with chills and fever, then two bottles of Electric Bitters cured them." Only 50 cents. Try them. Guaranteed. Sold by A. F. Streitz, Druggist.
