Mrs. Ezra Keen is out from North Platte visiting relatives.

The work of the Sunshine Society was very heavy in December, more than 200 articles having been contributed. These had to be looked over and tagged for the Christmas tree. A box, from H. M. Mould, of Keesville, N. Y., brought joy to the little Sunshine girls, as it contained thirteen nice dolls. A box of 100 pounds was sent from central office. The money in the treasury, $8.79, was spent in buying treats for the tree. Ed Wright, J. E. Fuller, Miss Gussie Botton of Gandy and Mrs. R. Hogeboom of Dorp were enrolled as new members. An extra copy of "In His Steps" has been received and any one wishing it can have it by addressing Mrs. A. E. Moore, Myrtle, Neb.

Over one hundred people crowded into Pleasant Valley school house to hear the Christmas exercises and see tree given by the Myrtle Sunshiners. Every one went home well pleased, especially the children with the gifts Santa Claus left.

Miss Simpson is spending her vacation in North Platte. John McNicol came out from North Platte to spend his vacation at home. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. Lamb at Nesbit one evening last week in the interest of the Sunshine Society. The Nesbitt people gave Brother Marks an overcoat on the Christmas tree, which pleased him very much. Mr. and Mrs. D. Schrambling very pleasantly entertained the young people of this vicinity last Thursday evening. Peter McNicol of Lincoln is visiting under the parental roof during the holidays. Mrs. A. G. ### Commissioners' Proceedings.

December 27, 1899. Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present full board and county clerk.

The following bills were allowed: M McNanara, general fund 6.00; John Bateman, hauling tiling from North Platte, 6.00; A Beach, work on bridge District 30, 1.50.

The following official bonds were approved: W W Hunter, M McKellips and W H Sedge, assessors; John Terpenning and Lewis Hublitz, road overseers; A E Huntington and M McNamara, constables; F A Robie, C L Watkins and Wm. McMichael justices of the peace. Adjourned until tomorrow.

A wreck occurred in the Union Pacific yards at Columbus Saturday morning. Train No. 28 ran into the rear of an extra freight standing on the main line. The engine and four cars were badly wrecked. The fireman saved his life by jumping but the engineer was pinned in the cab but found to be uninjured when extricated. C. J. Gross, a horseman from Pine Bluff, Wyo., who was riding in the caboose of the extra, was instantly killed. Nine horses out of a carload were also killed. It is said that the accident was due to a dense cloud of escaping steam from the round house which obscured the tail lights of the extra.

Postmaster Hill and Express Agent McGovern are both feeling extremely thankful that the holidays have ended because their labors in behalf of Santa Claus have been much more arduous than in any previous year. The number of packages handled by the two offices has been astounding to the layman.
