Ir Goebel succeeds in stealing the governorship of Kentucky, will Colonel Bryan wire congratulations?

THE corrupt methods employed in the election of Senator Clark, of Montana, as shown by the evidence before the committee at Washington, furnishes additional argument in favor of the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

JAY BURROWS, one of the organizers of the farmers' alliance in Nebraska and for a number of years a populist leader, died at his home in Lincoln Tuesday of rheumatism of the heart. Burrows was opposed to fusion and by reason of this he was politically "shelved" two or three years ago.

THE school board scandal down at Omaha would do credit to Greater New York. It looks very much as though the members of the board who were crooked enough to accept bribes have had sufficient opportunities to make them richer than bank presidents. Omaha's greatest needs are clean politics and honest public officials.

UNDER the administration of state oil inspector Gaffin the revenues accruing to the state are about one hundred per cent greater than the administration of that holy fusionist J. Harley Edmisten. The question is, are the people using double the oil they did a year ago, or did Edmisten pocket half the revenue? Here's a chance for the "reformers" to do a little investigating.

THE mask has again been torn from the pretended "reformers" of Nebraska, and their true position towards the railroads placed on record. At the recent meeting of the populist state central committee a majority of the members voted against a resolution urging the state board of transportation to take formal action looking to relief from excessive freight charges by prosperity of the country and dethe railroads of the state. Now, clares it to be unreal or based upon how does this action suit our good populist friends in Lincoln county?

THE Omaha World-Herald says: "It is strange that since the World-Herald asked the board of railway commissioners to act, the only expressions from men in the state house have been in the form of condemnation of this newspaper. This remark is made in discussing the action of the populist state central committee in voting down the resolution asking the board to take action on railroad rates, and what it says is quite true, that it has been condemned by the populist and confidence of the intelligent officials at Lincoln, who ought to be en ramport with that demand. WHAT has been expected for a long time is about to occur. The trades union in Chicago have decided to turn out of the union shops about two hundred women, in order There does not seeem to be any complaints that the women are not performing their work just as well as men, but the union, realizing that women are becoming strong competitors of men in many of the industries, have concluded that it is best to call a halt before the competition grows stronger. Of course the women will be up in arms against the movement, and considerable fur is likely to fly.

JOHN BARRETT, ex-United States minister to Siam, attributes the insurrection in Luzon to the Tagal speech delivered by Senator Hoar in the senate. According to Barrett the flaming speech made by breaking out of hostilities and Aguinaldites. The object of this $68,000,000 over 1898. ...

was to make the Tagals believe that Hoar represented the true sentiments of the people of the United States and that this country would "lay down" at the slightest pressure of insurrection. Barrett, who was at Hong Kong at the time, seems quite confident that this speech of Hoar's started the war.

A PARTY WITHOUT A POLICY.

[Omaha Bee.]

Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania. formerly one of the most carnest of the advocates of free silver, has not only renounced that financial heresy, but has turned his back completely upon the democratic party as now constituted. Mr. Sibley was a tower of strength to the 16 to 1 cause in the last national campaign, but events have shown the fallacy of the free silver contention he frankly acknowledges that he was mistaken and declines to continue in a false position. As the Bryanite party has nothing else to offer, Mr. Sibley drops out

He said in the house of representatives on Wednesday: "If the democratic party is to live it must have a policy. It must do something besides carp and faultfind. finished in the near future as the If it will adopt a policy I will keep territory which it will water will be step with it, but if it invites me to tapped by the new branch of the B. a bangget of carping and faultfind- & M. and capitalists now regard it ing it will have to excuse me.' There are a great many other democrats who feel this way. They realize that with the exception of Oh, the Pain of the free silver issue, which a large majority of the people have re pudiated and which is very much weaker than in 1896, their party has no well defined policy upon which it can unite. They see the hopelessness of another campaign ever. with silver as an issue and they know that with Bryan again the reach such deep-seated diseases. candidate this question will of necessity have a leading place. Some of these democrars are still hoping that another leader will be found -one that will represent the true principles of democracy. There is said to be an effort making on the part of some democratic leaders of the south to induce Bryan to withdraw as a candidate. It is needless to say that any such attempt will be fruitless. Mr. Bryan will remain a candidate, he will dominate the national convention and his renomination is a foregone conclu-

Meanwhile the democratic party will continue to carp and to find fault. That has become its predominant characteristic. It refuses to be satisfied even with the superficial conditions. Every act of the republican administration, however clearly shown to be in the public interest, is criticized and denounced. Its policy is obstruction and reaction. The party will continue in this course so long as it is under its present leadership and this will be until it has again experienced an overwhelming defeat. Men like Sibley, with the candor to acknowledge past mistakes and to admit the defeats of their party. will drop away from it, hoping that defeat will bring about a reorganization which will again give the democracy a claim to respect voters of the country. The Pennsylvania representative has set an example that will have many fol-

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS

January 18, 1900. Board met pursuant to adjournment; present full board and county clerk.

Thos, Bateman is hereby appointed a member of the Soldiers' Relief Commission to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of P. H. Sullivan.

For performing the duties of clerk to the county commissioners and attending to the business of the county, the county clerk is allowed the sum of four hundred dollars, as provided by Section 3103 statutes of Nebraska.

Bill of G. W. Edmisten allowed on bridge fund for $1.50.

The board continued checking warrants and other evidence of indebted ness of the county with the county treasurer's books in settlement with late Treasurer Holcombe.

At the meeting of the state board of agriculture which was held this week at Lincoln, it was decided to hold the state fair the first week in September. The old state fair grounds will be used. The management of the affair is to be vested entirely in the board of managers.

The Farmers' canal in Scotts Bluffs county, which came to a standstill sometime ago on account of lack of funds, will probably be in the light of a good investment.
