At intervals during the past ten years or more efforts have been made to organize a commercial club in North Platte, but in every instance the effort has proved futile.

Believing that the apathy and jealousies have to a great extent disappeared, an effort will be made next Monday afternoon to form a commercial club, and to this end Mayor Bratt has issued a call, and a committee has called upon the business men urging them to attend the meeting.

Just at this time there are matters which should receive the attention of an organization such as it is proposed to form, and which if properly pushed will result beneficially, to the city, and they will be presented at the meeting.

Let us be up and doing, let us use concerted action in increasing the trade and prosperity of North Platte, and this can best be accomplished through the medium of a live commercial club.

fering with such corporations under any circumstances. It is very easy to make an assertion of this kind, but the intelligent voter will want to know if there is any ground for it and will be very likely to inquire whether the republican party has ever done anything to interfere with the trusts.

Twelve years ago the republican party, in its national platform, put itself on record in opposition to all combinations of capital, organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens.

The republican party is still opposed to combinations organized in trusts to control arbitrarily the condition of trade. Evidence of this appears in the latest state platforms of the party and in the utterances of its leaders.

Mr. Bryan descants upon the evils of trusts, which every intelligent person who has given attention to the subject is familiar with, but he has yet to propose a practical plan for the solution of the problem of dealing with the combinations.
