A Card Party.

Twelve couples of society young people were entertained at a card party Friday evening by Judge and Mrs. H. M. Grimes. As soon as the guests arrived they were each supplied with some exquisite flowers and soon afterwards card playing was commenced. Walker Hainline succeeded in winning the largest number of games and was rewarded for his skill with a very handsome bunch of daffodils, hyacinths and carnations. Miss Nellie Hartman was the winner of the next largest number of games and her prowess was rewarded with a lovely bunch of daffodils. At the close of the series of card games a very dainty lunch was served in a charming manner. The guests who had the pleasure of enjoying the hospitality of Judge and Mrs. Grimes were the Misses Gertie Grady, Mabel Goozee, Nellie Hartman, Adda Kocken, Josie Goodman, Irene Hartman, Mae Walker, Minnie Federhof, Ruth Patterson and Jessie Bratt; Messrs Hainline, White, Goodman, Dillon, Luse, McColl, Lucas, Hartman, Likert, and Will and Charles Hendy; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Langford.

"Have You Seen Smith?"

A new acquaintance and what seems to be a universal favorite wherever it has been seen is "Have You Seen Smith." It is a merry melange of satire and nonsense of the day, a comedy of the times—"tuned" every day—brisk, colorful, tuneful and refined. While no claim is made to the possession of a pretentious story or intricate plot, it provides a very satisfactory vehicle for the exhibition of the diverse talents of a wondrously versatile company. Fun pure and simple is the sole object of the farce, and all of it is of that sparkling, effervescent sort that catches the popular fancy. It is one of the very few farces that deals with humorous incidents of the present day and introduces characters with which one constantly comes in contact. Incidental to the amusing comedy situations and tableaux is introduced a perfect avalanche of songs, dances, marches and graceful and grotesque cavortings of every description. All the recent novelties in the line of music and mirth are seen in "Have You Seen Smith" and to predict a rousing engagement here seems superfluous. At Lloyd's opera house Saturday evening, Feb'y 24th.

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS

February 14, 1900.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present full board and county clerk. Record of previous day read and approved. In pursuance of law the board selected sixty men having the qualifications of jurors from the body of the county from which to draw a jury for the March 1900 term of the district court. Bill of W. M. Gerkin allowed on the bridge fund for $4. Upon examination of the statement submitted by County Treasurer Scharmann the following order is hereby made:

North Platte, Neb., Feb. 14, 1900.

In the rear of the store we have a counter containing some goods that were slightly damaged by smoke in our recent fire which we are selling considerably below cost. Ask for the fire sale counter and get a great benefit on goods that are strictly first-class except that labels on cans and packages are slightly blackened by smoke.

Harrington & Tobin.

season, has returned to his former home in Wisconsin.

A. A. Leister, of Hershey, has returned safe and sound from his western trip.

W. A. Paxton recently had over 900 head of cattle driven from the Keystone ranch to his ranch at Hershey where he has plenty of coarse feed for them.

We understand that Will Funkhouser and family will in the near future depart for Sacramento, Cal., where they expect to make their future home.

Remember the dance in the Hershey hall on Friday evening of this week.

J. B. Toillion, jr., is fast convalescing from his recent illness.

John Walters and Grant Dowhower were made acquainted with the mysteries of the Woodman Camp at Hershey last Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. L. Mudd accompanied her sister-in-law, Mrs. Verser, recently to her home in Wisconsin, where she expects to remain until after her sister Miss Alma Show's wedding, which will take place at the home of her parents the first week in March.

Wm Ware recently purchased a fine three seated light spring wagon of W. H. Hill at Hershey.

C. S. Trovillo purchased a new feed grinder the other day.

W. H. Hill received a car load of farm implements, wagons and buggies at Hershey Saturday.

The recent cold spell matured the ice crop and it is now being harvested.

If the farmers of Nichols and vicinity want a skimming station now is the time to strike while the iron is hot. Delays are dangerous.

H. H. Cook who formerly resided in the valley but thought he could do better in the south hills, tried it the past year and will shortly forsake that barren country and move some distance east in the valley on the south side, where he can irrigate his crops.

Mr. McGinnis, who owns a large herd of Galloway cattle over south about seven miles, was a Hershey visitor on business the other day. Mr. McGinnis' family reside at York and he is keeping bachelor's hall and looking after his fine herd of cattle at his present location.

H. B. Hungerford and family will soon move from Hershey to one of W. A. Paxton's farms in the valley.

The present indications are that there will be a large acreage of sugar beets cultivated in the valley the coming season.

Parties from abroad have been circulating among the farmers in this country lately taking orders for groceries, which it is stated they are selling cheaper by far, for the same goods, than the dealers at North Platte or at any of the country towns. The goods are shipped subject to inspection before they are paid for. Several of the farmers have ordered from $10 to $50 worth. What the outcome will be remains to be seen.

A number of S. L. Funkhouser's friends, over 60 years of age, by invitation are assisting him today (Tuesday) in celebrating his 70th birthday anniversary at his home just north of the village of Hershey.

A certain man claims that he picked up a garter snake frozen on the cold bare ground the other day and put it in his coat pocket where it thawed out and began to crawl. We will not vouch for the veracity of the story.

MYRTLE NEWS.

Mr. L. P. Derby visited several days at Garfield last week.

Mrs. Blanch Wright has been visiting friends in North Platte several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Diehl entertained a number of friends Wednesday evening.

Bert Hoover, of the valley, is staying at D. Brunk's.

The junior members of the F. S. S. were entertained by Mrs. H. E.

Moore Valent n day, Mrs. J. E. Fuller and Miss Mina Mills assisted Miss Moore in entertaining the children.

Mrs. H. Phillips is reported on the sick list.

Chas. Gambrel was caught down town in Tuesday's storm.

Mr. McNicol and son Alex, purchased four head of cattle from Sam Diehl.

The old iron bridge over the Elk-horn near West Point was recently replaced by a new steel structure and the board of supervisors let the contract for renovating the old structure to Peter Jensen. He loosened one end of the bridge and let it down upon the ice which broke and the end of the bridge sank into the water. The entire structure soon became loosened and sank into the river. Quicksand abounds at that point and the bridge has now almost disappeared from sight.

Albion is to have a new public library, the citizens having subscribed enough funds for that purpose.
