Upon reassembling at 1:30 the report of the committee on credentials was received, and the temporary organization made permanent. The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

1. First we do most heartily endorse the administration of William McKinley.

2. The evidences of prosperity and progress abounding on every hand, the result of three years of republican policies, speak more eloquently of the wisdom of the American people, in the election of William McKinley, than mere words can express.

3. We are heartily in favor of unity and harmony in the republican ranks throughout the state, to the end that Nebraska may be redeemed from fusion rule, and that she may resume her place in the republican column, where she of right belongs.

4. We congratulate the people of Lincoln county upon the redemption of the county from populist rule.

See and Decide.

Buyers are the jury who have found unanimously for our harness. They have tried it, and therefore know all the facts in the case. A good set of harness is strong—well made and durable, and gives the horse an appearance of style. This idea is realized handsomely in our goods. Our figures are inside, both for harness and strap work.
