Webster and E. Rosewater.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

One of the most noticeable things in all the republican state platforms this year is the hearty demand for the passage of the shipping bill, which has been favorably reported to each branch of congress.

From the way the democrats seem to be worrying over the constitution, it would appear that they have forgotten that there is a supreme court, whose chief duty it is to safeguard that sacred document.

The "trust" question has been taken up by the subcommittee of the house judiciary committee, and it recommends either a new antitrust law or a constitutional amendment that will give congress full power to deal with trusts.

Imports of foreign goods, admitted into this country free of duty were 50 per cent greater in value in March, 1900 than in March. 1898. This increase, however, is chiefly in material for manufacturers which we do not now produce at home. Hence, this increased importation means increased activity on the part of our manufacturers and their employees.
