Hirsch-Muck Wedding.

Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John H. Day, Mr. Chas. Hirsch and Miss Sarah Muck were united in marriage by Rev. Wolfe. The ceremony occurred shortly after eight o'clock and was witnessed by about eighty of the relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride's gown was a very dainty creation of grey and white. The maid of honor was Miss Kate Yost, who was charmingly gowned in a white organdie. The groom was attended by Mr. J. Johnson. Shortly after the ceremony a very delicious wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch were the recipients of a great many very handsome presents. They left on train No. 4 for a visit at the bride's home at Arapahoe.

The bride has made her home with her sister for a number of years and is a young lady who has hosts of friends won by her many admirable qualities. The groom is a fireman in the employ of the Union Pacific and is a young man of sterling worth. THE TRIBUNE extends hearty congratulations and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch long a life replete with happiness and prosperity.

A Card.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Seeing that the Telegraph people have started a scheme to increase their circulation by means of a voting contest, I take this means of asking my friends and those of my daughter to abstain from casting any of said votes for her, as I don't approve of that sort of thing.

Yours Truly,

F. E. BULLARD.

Engineer Joe Clinton is fast developing into an expert agriculturist. The other day he was preparing a place in which to plant potatoes. Evidently he remembered that this was a windy country and wished to have his potatoes well anchored, for a brother engineer vouches for the fact that the holes were three feet deep.

Dr. F. W. Miller, Dentist, over Streitz' drug store.

"An Unequal Match."

The New York Ideals, an organization of metropolitan players will present Tom Taylor's famous comedy "An Unequal Match" at Lloyd's opera house tonight and a positive treat is certain. No company on the road enjoy a finer reputation than do the Ideals. Among the more prominent members are such noteworthy artists as the charming young actress, Miss Lena Linstead, a lady who has done much excellent work with some of the very best New York companies, Mr. Edward M. Bell a finished actor, who will always be pleasantly remembered, La Petite Dorris an exceedingly clever little versatile girl and eight others who are familiar to the amusement world. "An Unequal Match" is a bright vivacious comedy, replete with jollity and containing a story of real human interest. Songs, dances and other features calculated to enliven the entertainment will be generously infused. All in all the Ideals promise a wonderfully good performance.

Contractor Walker will commence the work of tearing down the old high school building one week from Monday. There are numerous people in North Platte who will regret the passing of the old building because of the many pleasant memories connected with it.

District foreman McKeen has received a number of circulars from headquarters describing the workings and parts of the new consolidated engines, with which the foremen may not be familiar, to be studied by them so that they can make any necessary repairs.

Frank Buchanan returned Wednesday afternoon from Omaha where he had been spending a few days while enroute home from Mt. Pleasant.

Senator Warren was a passenger on train No. 1 Tuesday afternoon. He was enroute to Cheyenne from where he will head the Wyoming delegation.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Owing to high water quarterly meeting services have been changed from Mylander to Hershey next Sunday and Monday. Presiding Elder Moore will be present. Preaching Sunday at the usual hour.

County Clerk Holtry and family of North Platte passed up the line Wednesday enroute for Sutherland by team to attend the funeral of Mrs. Thurber of that place on that day.

Rev. Randolph and W. J. Crusen of the county seat went west by team to Sutherland Wednesday where they officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Thurber.

The machinery for the Nichols separator station has arrived from Omaha and will be put in the first of the coming week if all goes well.

Merchant Brown, of Hershey, was down to the county seat the first of the week after flour.

Miss Jennie Ware will close a successful term of school at the Platte Valley school house on Thursday of next week.

Tyler Hollingsworth and I. V. Zook have been assisting J. G. Feecken at Nichols for the past few days.

Miss Christina Erickson, of Maxwell, will close a very satisfactory term of school of nine months duration at Nichols on Wednesday of next week.

It is reported by very good authority that M. Mickelsen and Joe Rebut of Hershey, have applied for a patent on the barn that they recently erected in that hamlet.

DICKENS DOINGS.

J. F. Brittain of Somerset is remodeling George Turner's property east of town this week.

The Dickens Sunday school is going again full blast. Mrs. J. H. Jolliff was elected superintendent. It is a union Sunday school so let every body attend.

Votaw Bros. shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market the first of the week. Fat hogs are rather scarce in this community.

E. R. Segaser has just finished building an addition to his house on the south side this week.

Miss Maggie Smith and Mrs. Erwin Farabee of Wallace were on our streets Friday.

Several farmers from around Hayes Center delivered hogs in town last week. Among them were C. J. Rice, Tom Detty and Mr. Detty, Sr.

Merrill Fristo was a Wellfleet caller Saturday and Sunday.

Fred Griffith of Somerset was in town Monday on business affairs.
