CHAS. HENDY, Pres.

The street commissioner has had the scraps of paper and other refuse removed from the business streets and an effort will be made to induce the business men to have their clerks desist from the practice of sweeping all of the scraps from the stores into the street.

Dr. Hannah, Osteopath, Office opposite Hotel Neville, North Platte.

Cromwell Kirby, a student of the Baptist Theological Seminary at Rochester will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning, the members of that congregation having very kindly offered their Baptist brethren the use of the church on that occasion.

The ladies' aid society of Cottonwood will have a stand at Ft. McPherson on Memorial Day at which they will serve coffee, and sandwiches, ice cream and cake and other good things. Those who visit the fort are urged to patronize the ladies as the proceeds will be used for a good cause.

We desire to call your attention to our "Pink Dorothy" pattern of English Sami-porcelain, the finest pattern that comes from England's potteries, made by W. H. Grindley & Co. If you want something nice and can't afford china, buy this and you will be more than pleased.

HARRINGTON & TOBIN.

If the weather is favorable the Gordon cornet band will give a concert in the band stand tomorrow evening. If the citizens will do their share by contributing towards the actual current expenses of these concerts they will be continued during the summer, otherwise the one tomorrow night will be the first, last and only one this season.

We make all kinds of real estate trades. Tell us what you have for exchange. We may have just what you want. John Bratt & Co.

The annual sale and supper given by the ladies of the St. Patrick's church at Lloyd's opera house last night was well patronized and it will net the ladies about $140. Several very attractive booths had been arranged in the north end of the opera house and they were surrounded by buyers most of the evening. There also seemed to be a large number of people who were anxious to know what the future had in store for them so the fortune teller found plenty of customers. The supper was excellent. Later in the evening a dance was given by the young men and this feature furnished enjoyment to a great many.

Mrs. Austin Lock went to Hershey last night to spend a few days visiting friends.

T. M. Hainline is spending a few days in York looking after his business interests.

Don't fail to examine our list of building lots and houses we have for sale, before buying. John Bratt & Co.

An attempt was made to burglarize the Newton residence on west Fourth street Wednesday evening but something evidently frightened the would-be burglar just after he had effected an entrance and he fled without taking anything with him. The family was unaware of any attempt having been made to carry off their possessions until the following morning when Mrs. Newton discovered muddy foot prints on the carpet in the parlor. She then began to investigate and found the window through which they had entered and to reach which they had to pass over a muddy spot where the sprinkler had been running. There is no clue to the burglar's identity.

Railroad Notes.

Engine No. 1477 went into the shops this morning for light repairs.

It is said that the capacity of the coal shuttles at this point will be increased to a considerable extent in the near future.

Fred Letts went out on passenger Wednesday because Conductor Rincker was laying off on account of the accident to his little son.

Switch engine No. 1170 has gone into the shops for a general overhauling before the worst part of the rush season commences.

Supt. Park went west in his car No. 08 on the general manager's special Wednesday afternoon and then paid east from there.

Another crew was recently put on the Fourth district. This makes nine crews in service there. The temporary lull in business seems to be over and it is on the increase again which makes the prospect very good for the addition of another crew on the Third.

General Manager Dickinson, Chief Engineer Berry, Superintendent of Motive Power McConnell and Superintendent Baxter came up from Omaha in the special car 04 on train No. 101 Wednesday afternoon. They went west from here on a special made up of an engine and cars No. 04 and No. 08. They were making an inspection of the road bed work which is being done west of here.

A rumor has been current on the streets since Tuesday that Mike McLaughlin was dead. The rumor seems to have been started by the fact that Mike was sent to a hospital in Denver to recover from some injuries received in a fight at Cheyenne. Soon after he assumed charge of the chutes there he had difficulty with a former foreman which resulted in his being landed in jail and it is supposed that this last difficulty was caused by some of the men who took the ex-foreman's part. Mike's many North Platte friends are pleased to know that the rumor of his death was false.

Mrs. John Sorenson has been on the sick list for the past week.

Walter Kocken has returned from La Junta, Col., where he spent a week visiting his sister, Mrs. H. B. Fetz.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. J. F. Schmalzried Saturday afternoon, May 19th, to prepare for Memorial Day.

We have several choice tracts of hay land for sale. They are cheap and sure to advance in price. John Bratt & Co.

The Buffalo County refunding bonds amounting to $45,000, which were issued by the board of supervisors several months ago, were recently sold to the state treasurer. They were purchased at par, the money coming from the educational fund.

The members of the vestry of the Church of Our Saviour and their wives took possession of the home of Mrs. M. H. Douglas during her absence last evening and then sent a messenger after her to tell her that friends were awaiting her return. The affair was a complete surprise but Mrs. Douglas soon recovered her usual equanimity and proved herself to be a delightful hostess. The invaders had brought with them the materials for a dainty lunch which was served about eleven o'clock. During its progress, on behalf of the vestry, the senior warden, F. E. Bullard, presented Mrs. Douglas with a church spoon as a token of their appreciation of the services she has rendered as secretary.
