After a Good Dinner,

A smoke is in order. Only fine cigars form a proper sequel to a feast, as otherwise the aftermath would mar the pleasure of its forerunner. There's nothing more praised by good liver than our cigars, which are fit to follow a royal meal. These goods are manufactured exclusively from choice grades of tobacco.

C. F. Scharmann Married.

When C. F. Scharmann left town ten days ago in a rather surreptitious manner, there were those who thought that the young man had matrimonial intent, though none, except his parent's were certain of this. These surmises, however, have proven true, for today (Tuesday) Mr. Scharmann will be united in marriage at Boston to Miss Nannie Andrews of Steele City, Neb., a young lady he has known for a number of years.

Miss Andrews is a graduate of the Boston conservatory of music, and during the last year had been teaching music at a seminary at Westerville, Ohio, from which place she went to Boston and visited at the home of a friend, where the wedding occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Scharmann expect, so he writes us, to embark today for Liverpool. They will visit the Paris exposition and make a tour of Germany, arriving home the latter part of August.

The young lady of Mr. Scharmann's choice is known by several North Platte people, who speak of her in very complimentary terms, and she will prove a very valuable acquisition to North Platte's coteries of musicians and to social circles.

We reserve our warm congratulations until Mr. and Mrs. Scharmann return home.

The Park Banquet.

The banquet tendered W. L. Park Friday evening as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by the citizens of North Platte, and as an expression of the appreciation of his services as a promoter of the business interests of the city, proved a very pleasant and successful affair. It was the intention to tender the banquet at the time Mr. Park received his promotion as superintendent of the Wyoming division, but at that time it was not possible for him to be present in the city, and it was postponed until last Friday.

A reception and smoker was held at the club rooms from 8:30 to 9:30, where claret punch was served from a huge cake of ice from Pawnee Springs lake and the hour spent at the rooms was a pleasant one, giving each guest an opportunity to meet and talk with Mr. Park.

The banquet was served by Caterer Federhooft at the Knights of Pythias hall, covers being laid for fifty and the menu served in six courses. Wm. Neville presided as toastmaster and proposed the toasts in a happy vein. Those who responded to toasts were Messrs. Harrington, Bullard, Wilcox, Patterson, McDonald, Warner, Seeburger, Grimes and McCabe, and the subjects treated covered a wide range. In closing each speaker referred to the guest of honor in most complimentary terms, and the banqueters felt that each good word said of him was fully deserved. At the close of the toasts, Mr. Park made a neat speech, in which he feelingly expressed his appreciation of the mark of esteem of which the banquet gave evidence. He had spent nearly all his life in North Platte, had a kindly feeling for all citizens, and his removal from our midst, though brought about by a promotion, was not unmixed with regret. Mr. Park said he expected to retain his property interests in the city and valley and when he retired from railroad activity hoped to spend his remaining years under his own vine and fig tree. His pleasant recollections of North Platte could not be forgotten nor his friendship for its people be erased. He said that the kind words spoken of him by local railroad men had preceded him to his new jurisdiction and that they had been of benefit to him. At the close of his remarks three cheers for Mr. Park were proposed and were given with heartiness.

The banqueters then accompanied Mr. Park to the train where the final adieus were made and as the train pulled out additional cheers were given.

Messrs. Iddings, Fields, Harrington, McKen and McDonald, who had charge of the banquet deserve credit for the excellent manner in which the affair was managed and for their judgment in furnishing only the best brand of wines, champagne and cigars.

During the entire evening Brandon's string quartette rendered music in keeping with the smoothness of the banquet.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

The most of the small grain is in the shock.

Barley will go to harvest in the valley this week.

The Nichols cream separator will not run on July 4th.

The Nichols cream separator is still running at full speed daily.

The recent hot winds about cooked the corn where it could not be watered.

E. W. Justice of Grand Island, has been talking life insurance to the boys in the valley lately.

Dallas Wills has quit the Hershey section and returned to the home of his parents at Belvidere.

Owing to another attack of rheumatism, E. C. Thompson has had to quit work on the Nichols section.

Jim Goodwin has quit working on the dredge boat in the old canal and returned to his former home at Belvidere, Neb.

Mrs. F. J. Cook has returned from Denver where she spent a short time visiting relatives and old time friends.

The Tift hay outfit is still loading new baled hay from the south side at Nichols for Harrington & Tobin of North Platte.

Prof. Ebricht and crew of North Platte, who are cutting and baling hay on the Manion land, are loading it on the cars at Nichols.

Archie Anderson and H. W. Brown of the county capital were both up to Nichols recently on business pertaining to their farms at that place.

Fred Blaise, who has been looking after the sugar beet crop in the valley since early in the spring, has returned to his home at Grand Island.

Mr. Leach is at this time kalsomining the walls and also repainting the woodwork in the Hershey hall which adds much to its appearance.

Bert Hallier of Missouri, who has been working on the Paxton ranch for some time, has been seriously ill at that place lately but is reported on the mend at this time by Dr. McCabe, the attending physician.

Miss Bessie Eshelman, who is attending the summer school at North Platte, and sister Mabel who is taking music lessons there, and also her brother Will, who is working for the U. P. in that city, spent last Sunday with their parents in the valley.

At the fusion primary for Nichols precinct held in the school house at Hershey last Saturday evening, the following precinct officers were nominated: Assessor, J. K. Eshelman; road overseer, Henry Fulk; justices, J. G. Feeken and Henry Coats; constable, Chas. Ware. The following delegates to the county convention at North Platte, July 7th, were elected: A. F. Beeler, Everett Ware and J. M. Dwyer.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

N. N. Bacon of Dawson county is harvesting three hundred acres of winter wheat which good judges say will average thirty bushels to the acre.

A tramp who was stealing a ride on train No. 101 had his foot badly mashed Thursday night at Kimball by getting it between the drawheads.

Owing to the reported prevalence of smallpox in the vicinity of Elm Creek the people of that town have decided not to celebrate there on the 4th. And for the same reason there will be no celebration at Overton.

The Western Nebraska M. E. Conference will meet in Lexington on September 26, with Bishop Merrill of Chicago, presiding. A large attendance is anticipated. Representatives will be present from New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and other points. This will be the third time that Rev. Crane has been called upon to entertain an M. E. conference—once at Ogalalla and twice in Lexington.

The town of Lexington has been in a furore of excitement for several days over the arrest of parties for violating the Slocumb law. For about ten days two detectives, one named H. D. Pierson of Omaha, and John A. Benjamin of Grafton, had been operating there for the anti-saloon league. On Thursday morning Sheriff Hays, with a corps of assistants, made simultaneous raids on three resorts, finding liquor in each one. This find was followed by the arrest of seven parties, charged with selling intoxicating liquors without a license.
