In 1896 the assessed valuation of Bryan's personal property in Lincoln was $260, in 1900 it is $4,500. Four years more of McKinley prosperity and Bryan will, at the same rate of increase, be one of the wealthiest men in Nebraska. Stand up for McKinley prosperity.

A prominent democrat at Washington makes the statement that New York democrats concede the election of McKinley and Roosevelt. Half of the eastern democrats are not believers in Bryanism, and few of the real leaders are for him. For these reasons his defeat is predicted by the New Yorkers.

THE Bryanites who four years ago were positively certain that no farm products could advance in price without the free and unlimited coinage of silver, are invited to compare the price of hogs at South Omaha in July 1896, with the price in July, 1900; and likewise the price of cattle in the same years. Such comparisons will show how utterly absurd were the claims of the Bryanites.

THE latest authentic news from China is to the effect that every foreigner in the disturbed districts has been killed, the hope for the safety of the ambassadors and others at Peking having entirely disappeared. In addition to this comes the news of a battle in which the United States troops were badly cut up, twenty-five per cent of the Ninth Infantry being killed or wounded, among the killed being Major Regan and Captains Bookmiller, Wilcox, Noyes and Colonel Liscom mortally wounded. The losses of other nations engaged in the battle were equally heavy. It certainly looks as though the Chinese trouble will be of long duration and costly in men and money.

"FEWEST Failures for Eighteen Years" is the headline on Bradstreet's record for the first half of this year. That non-partisan business journal says: "The number of failures reported for the first six months of the calendar year 1900 is the smallest noted for eighteen years past. Compared with a year ago, the falling off in number is 3.3 per cent, while compared with 1898 the decrease is 25 per cent, and even larger decreases are noted when comparisons are made with the first half of the years 1897 and 1896. This year, in fact, for the first time in eighteen years, the six months' failures have fallen below 5,000 in number."

SENATOR HILL says that a majority of the committee on resolutions were opposed to 16 to 1, until the order came from the Lincoln boss, demanding that it be incorporated in the platform. Even then, according to the senator, the states of Ohio, Illinois and New York, where there are a few electoral votes that will be counted in the next presidential election, remained firm and a 16 to 1 plank would not have been recommended had it not been that the territories of Oklahoma and Alaska yielded to the dictation of Czar Bryan. Thus insignificant territories that do not even vote in the electoral college virtually determined the policy of the democratic party and wielded an influence greater than states like New York and Ohio. The latter are pivotal states in this campaign. It was political suicide for the democrats to decline to respect their wishes in regard to the financial plank.—J. Sterling Morton's Conservative.

POPULISTS who were republicans, and who left that party because they believed good would come from an independent movement, did not leave the republican party for love of the democratic party, or with expectation of being drawn into and swallowed up by the democrats. Such persons should very carefully consider the present situation, and consider whether or not the democratic party is not now absorbing the populist party. Nationally the fight is between the republicans and the democrats. Either the Philadelphia ticket or the Kansas City ticket will be elected. Where does the populist who left the republican party, but not to join the democratic party, now wish to stand? Did the democratic party while in power do anything to advance the material interests of the country and its people? What did that party do to endear a former republican to it? Is it not better for all men who have been republicans to stand with the party to which they formerly belonged—the party of progress and development; the party that has raised this nation to commercial supremacy; that has turned the balance of trade in our favor, instead of against us; that has put all the industries into successful operation, given labor remunerative employment, and that has opened up new markets and extended old ones. Think over these things, and cast your lot with the republicans and against the democrats. You will not find perfection in any party, but you will find more of it to the square inch in the republican party, than to the square foot in the democratic party.—Lexington Pioneer.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

The republican platform doesn't equivocate or dodge. Every issue is fairly met and frankly treated.

The Goebelites are now in possession of all the Kentucky State offices. The delivery of the stolen goods has been accomplished.

There are now at the Paris Exposition five Kansas farmers from one township. This is merely a sample prosperity fact.

The republican majority in Oregon was over 11,000, and it was piled up against complete fusion. What will it be in other states?

Mr. Altgeld has announced his intention of retiring from politics since the Kansas City convention. He will not wait for the November election.

Receipts of the national treasury for the fiscal year just ended were $568,988,848, and the expenditures, $487,759,171, making a surplus for the year of $81,229,777.

Exports of provisions from American farms last year were worth $180,000,000, or $47,000,000 more than in 1896. This sort of expansion is what the democrats call "imperialism."

"Do not care to hold office unless it enables me to do something to aid the people in their fight against organized wealth"—W. J. Bryan. Then why drop the income tax?

Boss Bryan's silver plank demands "an American financial system." We have it by order of the 7,104,779 people who voted for McKinley in 1896.

Eighty-one per cent of the delegates to the democratic convention recognized that 16 to 1 was no longer a live issue. But Boss Bryan wanted it, and Prince David voted for it, so that settled it.

The New York World (Dem.) asks if we are to have a more distinctively American financial system, why not also an American yardstick, an American gallon, or an American pound weight—especially when selling the Tammany trust ice?

HISTORY repeats itself. The democratic platform of 1865 declared the war a failure; the 1900 platform does the same thing.

The trouble in China is all due to desperate agitators. They have their Pettigrews in China.

The rain Sunday night covered a greater part of the state, the fall here being the lightest at any point reported. At some points the fall reached over five inches, notably at Superior and Wilber.
