Yost-Langford.
Miss Thella Langford and Charles Yost were united in marriage at the bride's home Wednesday evening. Rev. Beecher officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. In the parlor was suspended a large floral bell, and under this the couple stood while the words which bind were said. Following the ceremony a collation was served.

The bride and groom are well known in North Platte, having resided here since early childhood. Mrs. Yost is a very bright and attractive young lady and very popular among acquaintances. She possesses a strong and admirable character, and withal a wife of whom the husband may always feel proud. Mr. Yost is employed as a trainman on the Union Pacific and is a young man of exemplary habits and highly spoken of by all acquaintances.

The young couple will shortly go to housekeeping in the W. L. Park house in the southeast part of town, occupying the same in company with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dill.

To Mr. and Mrs. Yost we extend our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Secures Railroad Concessions.
John Bratt returned Wednesday night from Omaha, where he went for the purpose of conferring with Gen'l Passenger Agent Lomax in regard to rates for the street fair. Mr. Bratt, accompanied by J. E. Evans, who happened to be in Omaha, went to see Mr. Lomax and as a result gained greater concessions than the company first gave. Mr. Lomax made the committee the following proposition:

"We will extend the territory to include all points between and including Cheyenne and Kearney, rate to be fare and third for round trip. In addition will run a special train from Grand Island to North Platte on the basis of $2.50 per passenger for round trip provided you will give us a guarantee of $350.00."

This is considerably more favorable than the first proposition made by the company, which was a fare of one and a third rate from points within a radius of seventy-five miles of North Platte. As above seen the territory to which the rate applies is now from Kearney to Cheyenne. Messrs. Bratt and Evans are to be congratulated for the good work performed.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.
J. E. Morrison, who had the temerity last fall to make the race against Judge Grimes, has returned to Gandy from a pilgrimage to Oklahoma.

The people of Logan county will hold a meeting at Gandy tomorrow for the purpose of devising ways and means of stopping the slaughter of prairie chickens in that county by professional hunters.

Bert Harris, a market hunter living north of the Dismal river, was arrested the other day for violating the game laws. He had 800 prairie chickens in his possession when arrested and was fined in the neighborhood of four thousand dollars. As he had not money to pay the fine he has a long jail life before him.

DICKENS DOINGS.

Mrs. Lakin who had been in Maywood being treated for about five weeks, returned Sunday morning to her home northwest of town.

Bert Votaw of Wellfleet was in these parts Friday looking after his interests here. Mr. Votaw says he believes that crops look better here than they do around Wellfleet.

J. M. Friso shipped a car of hogs to St. Joe, Mo., Sunday morning. He says there are not as many hogs in this part of the country this season as usual.

Miss Etta Gardner was very sick a few days last week but is somewhat better at this writing.

The most of the farmers here are putting up hay now, while they are waiting for the watermelons to get ripe. It will be two weeks before there are very many melons ripe. We have had several nice showers here the last week which have been just what we needed to insure a good crop.

Mrs. Sayers of McCook who has been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Staley returned Saturday morning to her home.

Corn is getting pretty scarce in these parts at present. One man says he refused 50c. a bushel for corn. There are not very many that have any for sale.

D. A. Brown wife and little daughter of North Platte, spent a couple of days with relatives and friends in the valley this week.

The sugar beet crop in the valley has improved somewhat since the recent rains and they are being cultivated again at this time.

V. M. Loker of Hershey who has been working on the section east of the North Platte bridge has lately been promoted to foreman of the Elm Creek section.

The recent tumble in the western hay market has shut off the shipments from this section to a considerable extent.

STEBBINS WRITES A LETTER.

The Omaha Daily Bee of Wednesday contained the following:

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., July 30.

—Editor of the Bee: The Sunday World-Herald represents an interview between its reporter and myself that is all a lie; that in North Platte I offered to take republicans and democrats to the Grand Island convention and pay all expenses; that Mark Hanna was behind the movement, and that I would give all my old friends an entertainment. And I now say to the World-Herald that if at any time they want money they are at liberty to draw a check on Mark Hanna and sign my name to it.

As to the conventions. The Sioux Falls convention went down a democrat's gullet. How would the World-Herald like to swallow the Grand Island convention? Edmisten, the re-deemed democrat, rode a distance equal to one and one-half times around the world on railroad passes to inspect coal oil and work for the democratic party. He charged the mileage up to the state and the democrats at the state house allowed the bills and paid Edmisten the money. The democrats of the state house rode to Grand Island on passes to try and swallow the convention. That molasses swiper, Sheldon, rode to Grand Island on a pass to report for a democratic paper. Sheldon says he is going to write a letter to Deaver's paper against passes.

If these democrats don't want any more parties organized let them divide up the molasses and give us all a sup. These Bryan Redemption Bureau democrats, are an anti-trust people; they are for all the railroad passes for themselves—the grangers can go afoot.

The conscienceless traitor, Allen, threw populists out of the committee meeting at Lincoln and then buried the rattlesnake element at Sioux Falls. He now asks populists to vote for the straight democratic ticket. The democrats have Boer-ized the people's party. The democrats are an anti-trust party. Let us see about it.
