M. C. W. Shelton and son George, of Chicago, who had been visiting at the Buchanan residence left this morning for Oxford, Neb. They were accompanied by Mrs. O. H. P. Buchanan, who will also visit her son in Omaha.

Wm. Siebold shipped to Grand Island yesterday samples of the sugar beets which he raised this year in order that the percentage of saccharine matter may be determined. Mr. Siebold says the beets were a fair crop this year.

High grade guns at less than factory prices.
McCullough & Carter.

The 1900 tax-list for Lincoln county has been completed, and will be turned over to the treasurer on October 1st. The list is finished two weeks ahead of the time prescribed by law, which speaks well for Clerk Holtry and deputy Evans. The grand total of all the taxes for 1900 is $121,219.75.

A. H. Davis goes to Wellfleet tomorrow on legal business.

Dr. Dennis moved into his new residence in the west end yesterday.

Miss Arta Kecken left this morning for Lincoln to attend the state university.

Fred R. Ginn was called to Perry, Iowa, Sunday by the serious illness of his mother.

John Worthly will tomorrow begin the erection of a new house on his ranch northeast of town.

Mrs. Cummings, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister Mrs. M. Doolittle, having arrived last evening.

Railroad Notes.

Engines 1637 and 1638, two of the new compounds, went through to the Wyoming division yesterday.

The family of George DeRolf, an employe of the boiler shop, arrived Saturday from Terre Haute, Ind.

There is a rush of work in the shops at present, the traffic on the road demanding quick repairs on engines.

T. F. Whalen, who has been working as night boilermaker, has quit and will leave for the west tomorrow.

Owing to a wreck on the Wyoming division Sunday night, trains from the west were twelve hours late yesterday.

The unloading of material for the U. P. double tracks at Kearney began yesterday and the track laying will commence Thursday.

A dozen cars of California fruit have been on the side track at this station for a week or two waiting for diversion. The cars are iced every other day.

John Oswald, one of the night switchmen, had his right hip badly lacerated Sunday night by being caught between two cars. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Statistics which have been compiled show that the railroad companies in the United States are now giving employment to 97,000 more men than they did four years ago.

Cattle are being shipped very rapidly over the Union Pacific. The receipts at South Omaha yesterday were about seven thousand head, the Union Pacific handling sixty-one of the 278 carloads.

General Manager Dickinson and Supt. Buckingham have been up on the Wyoming division assisting Supt. Park in getting trains through. At one time there were 1500 cars on the division which could not be moved on account of lack of motive power.

W. H. Stewart, who has been working in Ottman's gang, goes to Archer, Wyo., to take charge of a section. During the past two years fifteen or twenty of Ottman's men have been given foremanships, which is evidence that Joe is a good instructor in the art of track making.

The checks for the employes of the shops were received yesterday and as a rule the checks were for larger amounts than for any month in the past ten years. One employe who receives twenty-seven cents an hour drew a check for one hundred and fifteen dollars. This means that he put in much overtime.

Three weeks ago Conductor Will Cahill and brakemen left Omaha with Manager Dickinson's special and were arrayed in new uniforms. On reaching the Wyoming division Manager Dickinson turned Cahill and his brakemen lose on a work train and they have since been doing service on that train. Cahill don't take kindly to exchanging a passenger run for a work train—and just think of that new uniform being ruined.

DOWN in Lincoln, which is Bryan's home town, the paving contractors were forced to suspend work on account of inability to secure workmen. The pay for unskilled labor on the job is $1.50 per day. Four years ago there were four men for every job in Lincoln and there was no grumbling about wages. It would be hard for Bryan to convince the Lincoln paving contractors that there is no prosperity for the laboring man.
