SIXTEENTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1900.

NO. 75.

A Few Facts.

As the time of the year is at hand for house cleaning and the buying of new Furniture, we wish to call your attention to our line of Bed Room Suits, Chiffoniers, Couches, Sofas, Side Boards, Buffets, Book Cases, Combination Cases, Dressers, Tables, Iron Beds, Mantle Beds, Wash Stands, Carpets, etc.

Since we have started in business you can buy your furniture of us at least twenty per cent cheaper than elsewhere. Why? Because we pay cash for all goods bought, and give you the benefit. We don't buy on long time and at long time prices and make our customers pay for it. That is not good business. This can be proven by pricing our goods and comparing them with others. Our expenses throughout are very light and this is another thing we give our customers the benefit of.

We make a specialty of Picture Framing and Upholstering. Our line of Pictures is the best ever shown in North Platte and we sell them 100 per cent less than anyone else. Agents for the Great Majestic Ranges.

JUDGE M. P. KINKAID,
Republican Nominee for Congress.

Hon. M. P. Kinkaid, re-nominated for congress by the republicans of the Sixth congressional district, is a man whose life long training and experience have eminently fitted him for the important position for which he is now a candidate. Born on a farm, his boyhood years were mostly spent in the cultivation of the fields, the harvesting of crops and other duties of the rugged out door kind which fit a man for a life of energy and usefulness. His boyhood years were spent in the hills and valleys of West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and upon the prairies of the state of Illinois; he received an academic education and took select studies in the literary department in college; and graduated in the law school of the University of Michigan and was president of his class in its senior year.

In 1882 he was elected to the Nebraska state senate where he at once took a foremost position among his colleagues. He was made chairman of the judiciary committee of that body by the members of the senate and it has been said that it was his service in this legislature that first gained for him prestige in the state.

For thirteen years he was judge of his judicial district winning the respect and confidence of all by his able and impartial discharge of the duties of that office—and it is said to his credit that during all these years there was a very small percentage of reversal of modification of his decisions.

Judge Kinkaid is in every sense of the term, a man of the people, and he realizes the fact that he owes his public advancement to the masses rather than to the leaders. It is universally acknowledged that he knows his acquaintances at all times and on all occasions as well after election as before. He is just as cordial when not running for office as when a candidate with his interests in the hands of the voter and is the style of a man that makes and holds friends. He is known to be one of the most benevolent and public spirited of the residents of north Nebraska. He has never turned a deaf ear to a person in need and always grants a favor when within his power, and aids to the extent of his ability, every legitimate public enterprise.

His twenty years residence in this congressional district together with his identity with its rapid development, his experience in our home state senate, his able career on the district bench together with his familiar acquaintance with the resources and wants of this section of the state, all tend to make of him a valuable and efficient member in the lower house of congress if he would not even be classed among its leaders. The Sixth district should profit by the example set in other districts and send this kind of a man to congress.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

There will be a social dance in the Hershey hall on Friday night, October 28th. Everybody invited. W. O. Thomson has recently returned from a business trip to Colorado.

Politics are exceedingly quiet up this way at the present time.

Geo. Refoir, who resided on the Newberry farm the past season, has rented the W. O. Thomson farm for the coming year and will take possession the 1st of the coming month. Richard Spurrier has purchased several head of hogs and also all of the coarse feed on the place and will bring a number of cattle from the Spurrier ranch on the south side to the Thomson farm this fall and winter them there. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson will depart soon for their new home near Greeley, Col. Their many friends regret their departure.

John Calhoun came down from McPherson county a few days ago and is now domiciled with his brother R. W. at Nichols.

James Crawford and family from the vicinity of Chappell moved by teams down to an old canal farm last week.

Steve Albro has finished hauling his wheat to the North Platte market at fifty-two cents a bushel.

R. W. Calhoun left Nichols Wednesday with a herd of young cattle and two or three dry cows for their ranch in McPherson county. We understand he will bring several fresh cows back with him.

L. A. Rengler and E. C. Von-Ohlen, of Overton, are fixing to bale the second crop of alfalfa that they purchased of Chas. McAllister some time ago. When baled they will ship it to their home at Overton where it will be used for feed.

D. M. Leypoldt's mother has returned to her home at Omaha after a month's visit with Dorsey and his wife at Hershey.

A. F. Beeler delivered a load of the finest fall apples to M. Mickelsen at Hershey the other day that we have seen west of the Missouri river.

They began pulling sugar beets on Wednesday of this week. The crop is some better than was first anticipated.

O. W. Rich, who has charge of the Nichols school, spent last Saturday and Sunday at his home.

The Wills family has returned to their home in Belvidere this state, after a pleasant visit of a few weeks with relatives in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, of Hershey, pleasantly entertained several friends at their home last Friday evening. All present report a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Brown and baby are visiting in the valley.

Jake Myers of the south side has sold his quarter section of land over in the hills and now wants to rent a farm in the valley where he can patronize the Nichols creamery.

Rev. Evans, of Hershey, is attending the Baptist conference over at Broken Bow.

C. E. Spear agent at Hershey has been transferred to Lodge Pole. He enters upon his new duties this week.

H. E. Lindstrom is doing business at Chappell and vicinity this week.

DICKENS DOINGS.

The farmers are harvesting their watermelons this week.

Mrs. L. Polzel left a few days ago for the eastern part of Illinois where she will visit for about a month.

Mrs. Conner and Mrs. Staley were visiting at Madrid Thursday and Friday of last week.

E. R. Segaser is still hauling watermelons to North Platte. He says the melon trade is not as brisk as it was a month ago.

Quite a number of Hayes county farmers delivered hogs in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fristo returned Saturday night from about a month's visit in Plymouth, Ill. They report everything in a flourishing condition around Plymouth and also that people were well pleased with McKinley prosperity. Mr. Fristo said that nearly everybody he talked with thought McKinley would be our next president.

The potato crop is rather short in this vicinity this fall. Mr. Baldwin, who lives south of town, had over five hundred bushels to sell and had no trouble in disposing of them as fast as he could dig them. He is about the only man in this part of the county that had any potatoes to sell.
