Head-Elder Correspondence.

Below we publish the correspondence which has passed between Orrin Reed, fusion nominee for representative, and W. C. Elder, chairman of the republican representative district committee, relative to a joint debate between Mr. Reed and Mr. Evans.

To the Voters of the Fifty-fourth Representative District Consisting of the Counties of Banner, Cheyenne, Deuel, Kimball, Keith, Lincoln, McPherson, Perkins, and Scotts Bluffs.

Gentlemen of the District: You have a right to know how your representative stands on every political, as well as every other question, in which your interests are affected, and I therefore made the following challenge to Hon. J. E. Evans of North Platte, the candidate of the republican party for representative of said Fifty-fourth district.

Ogallala, Neb., Sept. 21, 1900. Hon. J. E. Evans, North Platte, Neb.—Dear Sir: It is conceded by everyone that the present campaign is the most momentous of any in this state since the close of the civil war. Not only is there a national ticket to be chosen, but there is also a full state ticket to be elected, with two United States senators dependent upon the result of that election.

The national politics dependent upon this election, comprising as they do the questions of imperialism, militarism, trusts, foreign alliances, the currency, the national banks, the supremacy of the constitution and the purity of the flag, are all of vital importance to the republic and concern its very foundation stones, and are well worthy the consideration of the whole people.

To the end therefore that the people of the Fifty-fourth representative district have an intelligent understanding of where you and I stand on the questions to be decided by their votes, I would respectfully request you to meet me in a joint debate in the cities and villages of this district upon dates to be agreed upon between us. The details of the meetings can be arranged by our respective committees. I am, sir, yours most respectfully, ORIN REED.

North Platte, Neb., Sept. 26, 1900. Hon. Orin Reed, Ogallala, Neb.—Dear Sir: Replying to your favor of September 21, 1900, addressed to Hon. John E. Evans and handed to me as chairman of the republican committee of the Fifty-fourth representative district of Nebraska, would say that republicans do not consider the questions you mention, viz: "imperialism, militarism, trusts, foreign alliances, the currency, the national banks, the supremacy of the constitution and the purity of the flag" to be of "vital importance." The above questions as proposed by you being equivocal and bombastic, originating in diseased, unsettled and boyish minds, being the stock in trade of visionary politicians whose continued agitation of chimerical questions tend to bring about dissatisfaction, sorrow, poverty and misery to our people.

Prior to receiving your letter I had mapped out Mr. Evans' itinerary of this district (which I will not at this time change.)

If your letter had been received one week sooner and you had presented questions for debate in which there was merit, pertaining to the acts and doings of the legislature, the apportioning of the state into proper representative and senatorial districts, the upbuilding of the many charitable institutions of the state, the care and education of the unfortunate wards of the state, the governing of the inmates of the state institutions in a humane and civilized manner, the enactment of laws in the interests of the people, and providing some means for the relief of the congested condition of the supreme court, Mr. Evans would have been glad to have met you in debate. Yours truly, W. C. ELDER.

Ogallala, Neb., Sept. 27, 1900.—Hon. John E. Evans, North Platte, Neb.—My Dear Sir: I have just received an answer through W. C. Elder under date of September 26 to my letter to you dated September 21.

I regret very much that my request to you for a joint canvass of this district in which I offered to meet you in joint debate on the questions now at issue between the parties which you and I respectively represent was not "received one-week sooner."

I am still more than willing to discuss with you before the voters of this district the "questions pertaining to the acts and doings of the legislature, the apportioning of the state into proper representative and senatorial districts, the upbuilding of the many charitable institutions of the state, the care and education of the unfortunate wards of the state, the governing of inmates of the state institutions in a humane and civilized manner, the enactment of laws in the interest of the people and especially "of laws in the interest of the people of western Nebraska," and providing means for the relief of the congested condition of the supreme court.

On all these questions I am ready to meet you before the voters of the Fifty-fourth district, and hoping you will yet find it convenient to accept my proposition for a series of joint meetings for the discussion of these questions I refer you to the Hon. Butler Buchanan, my chairman, for the arrangement of all the preliminaries. I am, sir, yours most respectfully, ORIN REED.

The voters of this district are to pass judgment as to who is willing to fully and fairly state his position on all these matters, that the voters may know the attitude of each candidate. Mr. Evans refuses to do so. I am anxious to discuss all these questions with him before the voters of each of the above named counties, and I take advantage of this opportunity to state that one of the most important questions that can come before the next legislature, to this section of the state, will be the redistricting of the state into senatorial and representative districts and I am pleased to state I will use all my influence, in every honorable way to secure for this district the increased representation in the senate and house of representatives, of which it is so badly in need. It will likewise be a pleasure to me to be in close touch with each voter in the district, after I have been elected (as I believe I will be) and consider all matters pertaining to the district and its welfare.

I shall highly appreciate all efforts in my behalf on the part of friends throughout the district. With a sincere desire that all these matters will be carefully considered, I am, with very great respect, yours, ORIN REED.

Ogallala, Neb., October 8, 1900. Hon. Orin Reed, Ogallala, Neb.—Dear Sir: My attention has been called to the fact that you, in your insane desire to obtain a state reputation, have rushed into print and published Blood Troubles: Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Chronic Ulcers.

As the blood contains all the elements necessary to sustain life, it is important that it be kept free of all impurities, or it becomes a source of disease, poisoning instead of nourishing the body, and loss of health is sure to follow. Some poisons enter the blood from without, through the skin by absorption, or inoculation; others from within, as when waste products accumulate in the system and ferment, allowing disease germs to develop and be taken into the circulation. While all blood troubles have one common origin, each has some peculiarity to distinguish it from the other. Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema and other blood diseases can be distinguished by a certain sore, ulcer, eruption or inflammation appearing on the skin. Every blood disease shows sooner or later on the outside and on the weakest part of the body, or where it finds the least resistance. Many mistake the sore or outward sign for the real disease, and attempt a cure by the use of salves, liniments and other external applications. Valuable time is lost and no permanent benefit derived from such treatment.

BLOOD TROUBLES REQUIRE BLOOD REMEDIES; the poison must be completely and permanently eradicated—the blood reinforced, purified and cleansed, and the disease goes deeper and saps the very life. Mercury, potash and arsenic, the treatment usually prescribed in this class of diseases, are violent poisons, even when taken in small doses—never cure, but do much harm by adding another poison to the already overburdened, diseased blood.

S. S. S., Nature's own remedy, made of roots and herbs, attacks the disease in the blood, and forces out all impurities, makes weak, thin blood rich, strong and healthy, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only one that can reach deep-seated blood troubles. A record of 50 years of successful cures proves it to be a reliable, unfailing specific for all blood and skin troubles.

lished to the world in papers, outside the 54th Representative District, the unfinished correspondence going on between us, relative to debates in this district between yourself and John E. Evans. You were advertised to speak at different points in the district up to the middle of October and (in my ignorance) supposed that you would not wish to disappoint the large and enthusiastic audiences who were demanding seats at every meeting that you held, and who flocked to all the cross roads to greet you as you passed by with your mouth full of the now stale issues, Militarism, Imperialism and all the other isms that have been used since the formation of our government by people like yourself, who imagine, in their own conceit, that they are wise beyond others and the ones fitted to properly assist in the management of the affairs of this government. Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and even Lincoln, whom you pretend is your patron saint, were accused of the same abuses in former years which you now charge to McKinley. You say Mr. Evans refused "to do so," I demand that you give the date, time and place where such refusal was made by Mr. Evans or stand convicted of falsehood in your statements in the public press. I shall publish in the papers of this district, the whole of the correspondence. Had you contained yourself, your anxiousness to discuss questions pertaining to the duties of a legislator would have been satisfied, and your desires (except that of Representative of this District) been fully satisfied. Mr. Evans is an honorable man and his campaign of this district is satisfactory to me, his chairman. He shall not after you have seen fit to publish in such haste (five days) our unfinished correspondence, meet you and furnish you audiences to talk to. As you seem to disregard your chairman and be heading out of town I address this to you. Yours truly, W. C. ELDER.

To the Voters of the Fifty-fourth Representative District, Nebraska. The foregoing are true copies of a correspondence between myself and Hon. Orin Reed. Hon. John E. Evans has been a resident of Lincoln county, Nebraska, ever since 1872—has been postmaster of North Platte, Nebraska, County Clerk of Lincoln county for four years, cashier of North Platte, Nat'l. bank for two years, deputy secretary of state for two years, filled the position of Vice Commander and Commander of the state organization of the Grand Army of the Republic, has a better acquaintance in the state than any other man in the district, in fact the voters of the district will make a serious and irreparable mistake should they fail to elect Mr. Evans as representative. You will find in the foregoing Mr. Reed's comments; they show for themselves, comments from us are unnecessary. I answered every letter received from Mr. Reed and Mr. Evans had nothing to do with any answer written and Reed's statements and insinuations to the contrary are untrue. W. C. ELDER.

Chairman of the Rep. Representative Committee of the Fifty-fourth district of Nebr. Attest: FRED R. GINN, Sec'y.

In Omaha Tuesday ex-Gov. Boyd put up for Montana parties an even bet of one thousand dollars that McKinley will carry the state of Nebraska. It is said that other bets of a similar nature will be made.

CHAIRMAN LINDSAY of the republican state central committee, returned from Chicago Tuesday and says the republican national committee is jubilant over the success of the republican ticket on election day. He says the committee is counting on Nebraska, and Mr. Lindsay thinks they will not be disappointed.
