About thirty of the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Perdue tendered her a surprise party Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. F. Clabaugh. It was Mrs. Perdue's birth anniversary, and the guests assisted very materially in making the afternoon a pleasant one for her as well as an enjoyable one for themselves. Seasonable refreshments were served.

"Just Right"

The shirts, underwear, gloves, neckwear—whatever in men's furnishings you buy here—are not only "all right" when you see them at the store, but deserve that title when we send them to your home. Everything is as ordered, for one thing, and every article you purchase wears well and bears out all our representations regarding it. Something in dealing with a reliable merchant, isn't there.

The fusion meeting at the opera house last evening, which was addressed by Robt. Schilling was fairly well attended, the audience being composed of one-third ladies, a number of republicans and the remainder fusionists. The speaker was rather rabid in his denunciation of the republican party; in fact so much so that he disgusted some of fusionists present. Schilling, after the meeting, apologized for his speech, saying that it was one of the poorest he had ever made, and that the opera house was exceptionally hard to speak in. The meeting was utterly void of any good to the fusionists.

Wanted—Chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese and pigeons.

Mrs. E. A. Carey entertained about forty ladies yesterday afternoon in a manner that called forth many complimentary remarks from the guests. One of the features of the afternoon was a ride on the Funville, Frolictown and Feather-brain Ry., for which long tickets were provided. The ticket called for twenty-five stops and to decipher the names of the towns at which the stops occurred proved a contest mixed with much merriment. For instance, the seventh stop was "a city whose end and aim was 'go'", which was deciphered as Chicago; the twenty-second stop was "an extinct king of the prairie," the correct answer of which was Buffalo. The guests agreed that this contest was one of the cutest they had ever encountered. This amusement was supplemented by a solo by Mrs. Hershey and selections on the piano by Mrs. Carey. Fruit punch was served during the afternoon, and ice cream and cake at the close.

 OGALALLA, NEB., Oct. 10, 1900.
 State of Nebraska, } ss
 County of Keith, }

I, J. W. Welpton, being first duly sworn on oath say that that it has come to my knowledge that some persons have been circulating the report that John E. Evans, the nominee of the republican party for representative in this district, said at a meeting held here in Ogalalla, on Sept. 22, 1900, that "the Germans were ignorant and did not know how to vote." I was present at that meeting and positively swear that no such remarks were made by Mr. Evans, and that nothing was said by Mr. Evans or any one else at that meeting which was uncomplimentary to our German citizens.

I further say that the report is absolutely false.

Grant Nominated for Attorney.

Yesterday Dr. McCabe and P. H. McEvoy, representing the democratic county central committee, placed in nomination for county attorney John Grant of this city. It is understood that the populists have agreed to endorse the nomination. We are not advised as to whether Mr. Grant has consented to accept the nomination. It has been said for several months that he did not want the nomination; probably due to his conviction that he would suffer a very emphatic defeat. Now that the fusion candidate has been named, the republicans will proceed to roll up for H. S. Ridgley, the republican nominee, the largest majority any republican has received in the county for years.

J. E. Evans returned last night from a brief trip to Bayard.

Lem Steele and Matt Friberg are at Burns, Wyo., assisting to put in a steel bridge.

W. T. Wilcox was called to Wyoming last night on legal business and will be absent several days.

Remember the republican meeting at the court house tomorrow evening at which Attorney Ridgley will speak.

The county commissioners after being in session ten days adjourned last evening. Commissioner Carpenter left for his home this forenoon.

John Keith received a telegram the early part of the week stating that a span of horses which he had been keeping at an Omaha livery stable had been stolen.

Orin Reed, the fusion candidate for representative was in town last evening. It is understood that Mr. Reed finds things very "frosty" for him in the district.

Geo. E. French returned this morning from Lincoln. The local lodge of Knights of Pythias in view of Mr. French's election as Grand Chancellor, will tender him a banquet this evening.

The town of Oshkosh, which is fighting for the removal of the county seat of Deuel county from Chappell to that place, has secured the requisite number of signers to its petition and the proposition will be voted upon at the coming election.

The chewing gum slot machine, which Druggist Streitz has kept hanging on the outside of the entrance to his store, was stolen last evening, presumably by some boy. The machine, which cost ten dollars, contained a number of pennies and probably twenty-five pieces of gum.

They are telling one on "Doc" Sizemore today. "Doc's" feet are tender and as he lives in the west part of town, he concluded he would ride upon a freight train. The train, however, proved to be a special, and when it reached a point opposite "Doc's" house it was going thirty miles an hour, and he couldn't get off with safety. As a result he was carried through to Hershey, where, fortunately, he soon caught an east bound train. In the future "Doc" will ride a bicycle.
