Y. M. C. A. Notes.

A pleasant sight to see each evening the rooms filled with our young men enjoying the reading matter and games.

In four days, through the personal efforts of our young men, thirteen new members were added to the roll. Should each member bring in one, we would have a membership of 500.

Men do not miss the echo meeting next Sunday at 3 p. m. Delegates to the great Y. M. C. A. conference held in Philadelphia will tell something about it. All men welcome.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

H. G. Stewart who refused the genuine populist nomination for congress at Broken Bow will speak at Hershey on Oct. 30th. He will endeavor to smooth matters over and leave a good impression upon the populists in that vicinity by feeding them on taffy and trying to have them vote the fusion ticket from top to bottom. Bryan and Neville converts are not very plentiful up here.

Corn harvest in the valley is in full blast.

Mrs. J. O. Cole departed this week for a visit at her former home in Missouri.

W. J. Shinkle and crew are baling hay on the Longley land near Spuds that Seeberger & Co. purchased of R. W. Calhoun, at Nichols. They are loading it on the cars at the latter place.

A number of relatives and friends called at the L. E. Jones residence last Tuesday evening without even intimating to him previously that they were coming. The occasion was his birth anniversary. The ladies took baskets laden with many good things to eat and the gentlemen made him a present of a fine rocking chair. The evening was pleasantly spent in social conversation and games of various kinds until a late hour when all departed to their homes highly elated over the event and wishing Mr. Jones many returns of the same.

S. H. Phenicie has lately returned from a business trip to Illinois, where he, with his family, will remove the coming spring.

WALLACE WAITS.

Dr. Lawrence, who has been shaking hands with old acquaintances and neighbors since last Wednesday, took the early train Monday for his home in Greenwood, Neb. He reports the republicans of the eastern part of the state as being jubilant at the prospect of carrying the state.

Mrs. Rosa Fazle and family of Bennington, Kansas, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brownell.

The republican meeting here on the 18th inst. was a success, the large hall of the old Burnett hotel being crowded with people from all parts of the country who were entertained with a presentation of the gospel of republicanism by such speakers as Hon. T. B. Dysart of Omaha, and Hon. H. M. Grimes and W. C. Elder of North Platte. They presented the issues with such distinctness as to merit the applause and command the attention and respect of the most of those present. While the respectable people of this vicinity were surprised and chagrined to find that they had in their midst about a half dozen young hoodlums without self respect enough to treat gentlemanly strangers with common civility, and they will be prepared hereafter to deal with such offenders as the law directs. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Sam Farmer and Len Kidwell have the contract to deliver Mrs. Meyers' house in North Platte. There will be about eight four horse loads. They left here with four of the loads last Friday afternoon.

T. J. Jones and J. H. Hanson went to Sutherland last Friday with about five tons of broom corn for which they received $60 per ton. They raised the broom corn the past season.

Frankie the little six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Radle who live about nine miles northwest of here, was bitten by a rattlesnake last Thursday afternoon. Everything was done for the little sufferer that could be done but all to no avail. He expired Friday morning and was buried Saturday in the Scofield cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Radle have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Clothier of the Clothier ranch in Hayes county was shaking hands with old friends on the streets of Wallace Saturday. He says he will go to McCook after he votes on election day where he can get the news early, and it Bryan is elected he does not know as he will ever come back.

Wallace has a man who has the nerve to bet a dollar that McKinley will carry Wallace precinct. Got the sand ain't he?

Rev. Hornady the eloquent young pastor of the M. E. congregation preached two splendid sermons at their church Sunday. The Methodists seem to have been especially favored this year by their conference.
