The proposition of granting bounty on the scalps of wild animals will be attached to the election ballots at the coming election. This is a proposition in which cattle raisers are considerably interested, as the coyotes destroy many calves in the spring season. If a bounty for their scalps is given it is an incentive for hunters to kill off the animals.

Harrington & Tobin have purchased the bulk of the hay grown this season on the lands of the Keith estate. The purchase amounts to about one thousand tons and the transaction involves over five thousand dollars. This is said to be the heaviest hay transaction which has ever occurred in Lincoln county.
