A Warm Welcome.

Rev. C. C. Wilson, formerly of the North Platte district, who was appointed by the last conference to the Holdrege M. E. church, together with his wife, were given a rousing reception at the church last Tuesday evening. The function was largely attended by not only members of the congregation but people of all denominations as well, all of whom gave Mr. Wilson a hearty greeting. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and transparencies.

The meeting was conducted by County Superintendent Clay. Rev. John Thomas welcomed their new pastor on behalf of the congregation. Rev. Carrick of the Presbyterian church on behalf of the clergy of the city and Presiding Elder Hardaway welcomed Rev. Wilson to the Holdrege district. Mrs. Newton Smith of McCook, followed Rev. Carrick's address with a vocal solo.

Rev. Wilson's response was characterized by deep feeling and a strong interest in the work of his new field and great encouragement. It was a very able address and attentively listened to throughout. Rev. Wilson gives evidence of the student and scholar, has a good delivery and is a man of pleasing address.—The Weekly Progress, Holdrege, Neb.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

While the days are pleasant the nights are quite frosty.

S. J. Koch and Seeberger & Co. are both loading baled hay at Nichols at this time.

Mrs. Fannie Brooks of Nichols visited relatives in the county seat over Sunday.

Sheriff Keliher was up this way on official business Friday.

The Aveline family will leave this week for their new home in the east.

Hill & Ware will take possession of the Strickler store building on the first of next month and will put in a full stock of general merchandise.

J. C. Gyger will in the near future remove his house north and west to near the highway leading north and south on the west line of his farm.

Henry Weil's little son has about recovered from his recent illness.

Mrs. Layton and daughter Lynn of Brady are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan.

The coal famine at Hershey has broken by the receipt of an invoice by W. H. Hill.

It is stated that P. E. Erickson, the section foreman who was injured a couple of months ago, will be home in time to vote.

Those who attended the dance at the Hershey Hall Friday night report it to have been a very pleasant event.

S. J. Koch is baling the hay he purchased on the Cotton ranch.

The Nichols creamery is doing a much better business than the owner expected at this time of the year.

We are informed by good authority that J. L. Strickler who recently disposed of his business at Hershey, and M. McKillips who has resided on a Paxton farm lately, have formed a partnership and will go into the mercantile business in Adams county before long.

It is stated that a new lumber and coal yard will soon be in operation in the beautiful village of Hershey. Opposition is the life of trade.

Hon. W. T. Wilcox and county attorney H. S. Ridgeley, both of North Platte, will address the people of Hershey upon the political issues of the day from a republican standpoint on Friday evening this week at 7:30 p. m. western time.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglas and Mrs. Wm. Cunningham of North Platte, were guests at the Seeberger residence in Hershey last Saturday evening. Miss Dora Wright also of North Platte, who had been visiting there several days previous returned home with them.

The horse that Ed Stone had badly lacerated about the neck by a wire fence and was thought could not recover is fast convalescing from the same.

M. Mickelson one of the Hershey merchants has put in a full stock of fall and winter goods which he is selling at prices that defy competition.

"King" Cole shipped two carloads of hogs from Spuds to South Omaha the last of last week.

Joe Rebout has lately been painting the interior of the new kitchen recently erected onto the Seeberger residence at Hershey.

Grant Dowhower who has been braving west out of North Platte for some time moved his family from west of Hershey to that city on Monday this week where they expect to make their future home. "Pat."

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Many Reasons Given why it is Worthwhile of Confidence and Support

Hon. Perry S. Heath, secretary of the republican national committee, contributes the following statement to the literature of the campaign showing why the republican party is worthy of support:

It has fulfilled every government obligation.

It has made it possible for the United States to borrow money cheaper than any other country on earth.

It has kept its platform pledges, and never attempted to gain power by false pretenses.

It has never advocated a policy that would tarnish the good name of the country.

It has kept entire and inviolate the honor of the flag.

It has always stood for the protection of American industries.

It has opposed free trade.

It has always been a debt-paying, not a debt-creating party.

It benefits all classes, labor, farmer, producer and transporter.

It prefers to encourage the manufacture of new products in the United States rather than import them from abroad.

It looks upon the whole world as its legitimate market.

It recognizes no sectional lines, but benefits all parts of the country, north, south, east and west.

It does not believe in a 50-cent dollar.

It does not believe in fomenting class hatred.

It does not want American workmen to live on the low wages paid in Europe.

It believes that free labor is not as well paid as protected labor.

It does not believe in war, but when war must be fought it makes short, sharp and decisive.

It believes in subordinating partisanship to patriotism.

It believes in the encouragement of American commerce.

It believes that international treaties have the force of law.

It is opposed to the alienation of any part of American territory.

It believed in the annexation of Hawaii in spite of democratic opposition.

It believes in discussing real issues without creating fictitious ones.

It believes in expansion rather than in the diminution of territory.

It prefers prosperity to panic.

It believes that the best money in the world is none too good for America.

It has passed every anti-trust law that has ever been enacted by federal legislation.

It honors the army which with honor upholds the flag.

It is the missionary, not the miser of liberty.

It believes that the farms and foundries of the country need the boundless markets of the Orient.

It prefers to lend money to other nations rather than borrow from them.

It does not shrink duty because timid souls believe the task to be too hard.

It never declared that any war in which the country was engaged was a failure.

It does not believe in furling the flag in the presence of the enemy.

It has placed the currency system of the country upon a stable basis.

It has enacted and put in operation a just and equitable tariff law, which enables home manufactures to control the home markets and to compete in the markets of the world.

It has restored prosperity, disbanded the armies of the unemployed, abolished the soup houses and set the wheels of industry in motion as they never were before.

It has increased the home demand for the products of the farm.

It has enabled the prudent and the provident to save more of their earnings.

It has rescued nearly ten million people from the rule of Spain.

It has secured the control of the Pacific which will be the theatre of the world's greatest commercial activity in the coming century.

It has endeavored to extend the foreign demand for the products of American workshops, farms, forests and mines.

It is the only party that has definite principles and beliefs.

It is the party of progress, of hope and of aspiration.

It is the party of optimism, while every plank of the democratic platform is fastened in position with pessimistic nails.

It is the only party that has confidence in itself, trust in the people faith in the future.
