BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Al Stenson and family have moved back to Hershey from Sutherland.

Corn is selling for thirty-five cents per bushel on the local market at this time.

Frank Ware is operating his steam corn sheller in this country at the present time.

Notwithstanding the reports to the contrary the Nichols creamery is doing a good business for this season of the year.

Will Eshelman who has been firing west out of North Platte came up home on Tuesday being unable to work owing to a lame arm caused by being vaccinated.

Wm. Dymond and family are now located on the Anderson farm at Nichols and J. D. Meyers who resided on said farm the past year is now domiciled in the old canal company house vacated by Dymond.

Cars in which to load baled hay have been hard to procure for some time.

Ware & Co. received a carload of Lexington flour a few days since.

A number of parties in this locality are nursing sore arms caused by being vaccinated.

P. E. Erickson who returned from a hospital at Omaha recently is able to be around with the aid of crutches.

Ware & Co's. new store at Hershey is now open to the public.

Wild geese are having a big time with the wily sports.

Seeburger & Co shipped a car of hogs from Hershey to Cheyenne Thursday.

E. C. VonOhlen loaded a car or two with baled alfalfa hay at Hershey this week for Overton.

Miss Mary Layton of Brady Island visited her sister Mrs. Geo. E. Sullivan and family at Nichols lately.

J. B. Toillion, Jr., is reported on the sick list again.

Ben Layton and Hank Francis of Maxwell were guests of Geo. E. Sullivan and family last Tuesday night while on a return trip to the Birdwood country.

N. B. Spurrier brought another herd of cattle over from the south side the other day.

M. Mickelson unloaded a car of Cozad flour Wednesday.

V. M. Loker has moved his household effects from Hershey to Calloway where he has charge of a section.

WALLACE WAIFS.

A. L. Etheredge lost his bet on Wallace precinct.

Now the other fellows are trying to explain how it all happened.

Rev. J. D. Stewart the Congregational state Sunday school superintendent and his wife of Aurora, are holding Sunday school institutes this week with the Wallace church and outlying stations. The work is very instructive and entertaining.

Mrs. Mattie E. Greene and children arrived here recently from Oklahoma. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huston. She expects to spend the winter with them.

Jas. B. Shaw expects to start Monday morning for a visit with friends in Iowa.

Several dollars have changed hands during the past week as the result of too much confidence in the truth and veracity of that great popocratic sheet published in Omaha called the World-Herald.

Mrs. J. S. Robbins, the deputy postmaster here, is wearing a brand new five dollar hat as the result of McKinley's election. For particulars inquire of Bob Horner, Jr.

A young stranger arrived at the home of Rev. Horaday last Friday evening; it is a girl, and they have decided to keep it.

The genial agent of the B. & M. here will start on a visit to friends at Indianola, Neb., Tuesday or Wednesday. He gets a ten days leave. The people of this vicinity are glad it is only temporary. The friends of Mr. Toogood are limited only by the number of people here.

Some of the timid ones were a little scared during the past week, as it was reported that one of the Funk boys had small-pox, but it proved to be only a scare.

Miss Laura Seaton commences a term of school in the Badel district, Perkins county, Monday.

A. K. McIntire is reported as being very sick with symptoms of typhoid fever. Hope it will be only a report.

One of Kennedy's Jokes.

Clayton Kennedy, the American Paderwski, who is in the cast of the new "A Trip to Chinatown," is a very clever comedian and is known as a practical joker. One day in an eastern city Kennedy went to the bank to cash a draft. It was for $94.04, and Kennedy was paid $90 in bills and $4 in silver, and four pennies. The pennies he jingled in his palm after he salted the bills and silver away in his pocket, and as he left the bank he met the president of the institution on the steps. It was a very warm day, and the banker had removed his high hat and was mopping his brow with a silk handkerchief. Kennedy saw him and in an absent minded way he dropped the odd four pennies into the plug hat, saying "I never refuse an appeal for alms, my man." The pennies dropped with an awful racket, and when he realized what had happened the banker was mad. He had Kennedy arrested for insulting him, but in court Kennedy gave such a clever explanation and made such a witty speech that the justice let him off with a reprimand.

The Philippine Commission.

The campaign in the Philippines, which during the long rainy season was almost at a standstill, promises to grow in interest. General MacArthur has been preparing for active operations and with a force of 70,000 at his command and the co-operations of the navy very effective work should be done within the next two or three months. While there appears to be absolutely no information in regard to the number of hostile Filipinos and probably none is attainable, it seems hardly possible that it can be large, but a few thousand operating as guerrillas can keep busy a considerable army, especially if much of the population is in sympathy with the guerrillas, as appears to be the case in Luzon. Notwithstanding statements to the contrary, there appears to be no doubt that a large element of the Tagals approve the insurrection and will do what they can to continue resistance to American authority. Those who have accepted our sovereignty are apparently loyal, but they seem not to be able to exert any influence upon their fellow countrymen who are still hostile.

So far as Taft commission is concerned it does not appear to be accomplishing anything in the direction of pacification, though it is but fair to say that as yet there has been little opportunity. The military must clear the way for the commission work. A great deal is expected of General MacArthur. He has a fine and well-equipped army, he is a capable and experienced soldier and he should have a very thorough knowledge of the field of operations. It would seem that he ought to be able to very greatly restrict if not entirely subdue the rebellion within the ensuing three months.—Bee.

Lincoln is having a touch of diphtheria, about twenty cases being reported yesterday and several deaths have occurred. In Fremont there are seventeen cases of scarlet fever.

J. J. Millen a locomotive fireman between Grand Island and Omaha developed a case of small-pox in the latter city yesterday. He thinks he contracted the disease outside of Omaha, probably at Grand Island.

A company with a capital of twenty-five million dollars, six million of which has already been paid up, has been organized to build a railroad direct from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles. The road will have a trackage of 1,100 miles.

PROCLAMATION!

By virtue of the laws of the state of Nebraska, H. S. White, Vorhees Lucas, Lem Isenhart and Harry T. Rice, constitute the Board of Health, of the city of North Platte, Nebraska.

Section 9, of the Health Ordinance of the city of North Platte, provides as follows:

"Said Board shall when directed by resolution of the city council, provide hospitals and pest houses, and make provisions for the care of the sick, and they shall have authority to exercise any and all powers necessary to the preservation of the health of the city."

At a regular meeting of the council on the 6th day of November, 1900, a resolution in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance was duly passed. And at a called meeting of the city council in conjunction with the Board of Health, on the 19th day of November, 1900, called for the express purpose of promulgating rules and regulations for the government of our citizens and the Board of Health of said city, the following rules and regulations were adopted:

1st. Who ever shall knowingly, willfully, carelessly, negligently expose any other person to any contagious or infectious disease, or do any act by which any contagious or infectious disease may ordinarily be transmitted to any other person, and they shall endanger the health or life of another, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding One Hundred Dollars.

2nd. It shall be the duty of all physicians, and all persons within the limits of this city, on discovering symptoms, indications, or the existence of any contagious or infectious disease in said city to immediately notify the Board of Health, or some member thereof, of the existence of such disease. Any person willfully, carelessly or negligently, failing or refusing to give such notice within twelve hours after discovering the existence of the same to the proper authorities, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not more than Fifty Dollars.

3d. It shall be the duty of every person within this city, upon discovering that they, or any of their family have symptoms or indications of small pox, or other contagious disease, to at once call the city physician or some physician, for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the same, and should the physician pronounce the disease small pox or any other contagious disease, it shall then be the duty of such person or persons to remain at their home thereafter, and not in any way expose themselves to the general public until they have been discharged by the physician, and to obey the orders and instructions of the physician so called. Any person violating the provision of this section will be punished as by ordinance provided, and the rules herein promulgated, and will also be taken in charge by the health officers of this city and confined at the pest house under the supervision and care of the city physician, at the cost and expense of the party so violating this section.

4th. It shall be the duty of any person or persons as occupant or owner of any building, room or rooms, where any person or persons have been confined afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, and have been removed therefrom, to cleanse and renovate the same, the furniture, clothing, and all things therein and thereto belonging, or which may have been in said room or rooms during the time of said sickness, under the supervision and instructions of the city physician. Any person violating this section, or neglecting or refusing to cleanse and renovate such rooms or things as per the instructions of the city physician, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding the sum of One Hundred Dollars.

5th. It shall be the duty of the city physician or any other physician practicing within this city, upon the discovery of any contagious or infectious disease, to at once place upon any house in which any person so found, a printed notice, in large letters, upon which shall be printed the name of the disease. A violation of this section will be punished in accordance with ordinance of this city.

6th. The city has employed competent physicians and nurses to attend patients at the pest house, under the supervision and charge of the Board of Health. All parties who are taken to the pest house and cared for will be expected to repay the city for the same, and parties who do not desire to remain in their own homes and do not wish to go to the pest house as a public charge, will be accorded the use of the pest house, furnishing their own physicians, nurses and bedding and such other necessities as they may desire and wish.

7th. It shall be the duty of any physician, nurse, or any other person visiting the sick room of any one confined with any contagious or infectious disease, to, upon leaving the said room use all necessary precaution, in renovating themselves so as not to carry the disease to others, a violation of this section will be considered and construed as being a violation of section one of this proclamation.

Now therefore, I, H. S. White, mayor of the city of North Platte, Nebraska, by the power conferred upon me, do hereby promulgate the above rules and regulations; and order and direct that the same be strictly enforced; and that any person who shall violate any of the rules of this proclamation shall be punished in accordance with the provisions hereof and the ordinance of this city.

This proclamation shall take effect from and after this date. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of said city to be affixed, this 20th day of November, 1900.

[SEAL] H. S. WHITE, Mayor.
Attest: GREELY BUNDY, Clerk.
