Entertain at High-Five.

Mesdames Baldwin and Bacon entertained the unnamed high-five club at the home of the former Tuesday evening, and the gathering proved a very pleasant one. The club has a membership of about forty, but several members were out of town Tuesday and only a sufficient number to fill seven tables were present. Playing began promptly at eight o'clock and continued until ten-thirty, and these will be the playing hours at all future sessions of the club. One of the rules of the club is that refreshments shall be simple, and Tuesday evening they consisted of doughnuts, cheese and coffee.

The club will meet on alternate Tuesday evenings, but the men members may conclude to entertain the lady members at informal dances to be held every other week.

A Pair of Weddings.

Miss Helen M. Grace and Harry C. Rynar were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Allie Grace, and the groom by S. G. Grace. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. H. Grace. Wednesday night Mr. and Mrs. Rynar left for Chicago, which will be their future home.

Mr. Rynar is a New Yorker by birth but of late has been living in Chicago, and attending a medical school. He will graduate next summer and then practice in that city.

Mrs. Rynar has lived in North Platte since early childhood and has ever been popular with all acquaintances.

We unite with friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rynar a long life replete with happiness and prosperity.

Harry A. Moore and Miss Minnie Dietz were united in marriage at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, Rev. Pulis officiating. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The groom is an agreeable young man who has made North Platte his home for several years, and is at present in the employ of the Union Pacific company. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dietz, and is a very pleasant young lady. THE TRIBUNE extends congratulations and best wishes.

The Grand Army posts of Omaha are planning a big reception to be given to General Fitzhugh Lee when he arrives there to take charge of the department of the Missouri.

The Schuyler commercial club is wrestling with the great moral problem of playing games on Sunday. A resolution to stop it in the club rooms was laid over for prayerful consideration.

Police Judge Gordon, of Omaha, has been fired from his job by Judge Dickinson, forasmuch as he was too lenient on the tough people of the town who had business in his court. In other words he has been impeached.

Cedar Rapids has a cooperative boarding association that has apparently solved the problem of existence at minimum cost. It has a membership of thirty-four. It estimates the average cost of meals at six cents which, probably will not include champagne, olives and oysters.

The Moore family is a very sick one. Abraham Moore, a Nebraska traveling man, is in jail at Chicago for one year and will pay a fine of $1,000. It is a punishment for selling a fictitious herd of cattle, on which he realized $47,000, which nets him just $46,000 for his year's incarceration. It is not quiet so good as 'Gene Moore did, but it is a pretty good financial deal. 'Gene stole $27,000 and didn't do a thing but acknowledge it and go free.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

We have not heard lately of any more cattle dying from the effects of eating dry corn stalks.

Seeberger & Co. shipped another car load of hogs west from Hershey on Tuesday.

We understand that J. V. Robinson's people on the Aveline farm are entertaining relatives from Colorado.

The merchants at Hershey for the past two or three weeks have been busy attending to customers owing mostly to the small-pox at the county seat where people do not care to go to trade at the present time.

Lon Graves of North Platte was a Hershey visitor the first of the week where he gave chase to a number of wild geese.

Oscar Goodwin, one of the Hershey section crew, expects to visit Grand Island friends in the near future.

J. V. Robinson on the Aveline farm commenced patronizing the Nichols creamery Wednesday with 252 pounds of milk.

N. B. Spurrier has lately been hauling the material from the valley over to his south side ranch with which to construct a shed for his stock.

The recent warm weather has caused the corn huskers to smile with joy.

E. R. Ripley who resides on the W. L. Park fruit farm took train No. 101 at Hershey last Sunday for Denver and other western points where he will combine business with pleasure for a time.

Mrs. J. D. Pounds of Blue Plains Iowa, is visiting her daughter Mrs. W. J. Shinkle and family and her brother Steve Albro and family and many old time friends in the valley.

J. W. Hammond, Jr. of the Hammond Packing house at Cheyenne was at Hershey on business this week. While there he was the guest of D. M. Leyboldt.

Mrs. G. M. Smith and daughter Gertie are visiting relatives at Cheyenne at this time.

Mrs. M. Mickelson and daughter Garnett, Mrs. Wm. Eyes and Miss Katie Smith spent Thanksgiving at Paxton.

Roadmaster Sumer of North Platte passed up the line the first of the week on his tricycle.

O. W. Rich the Nichols school teacher spent Thanksgiving with his people at Maxwell. He went down Wednesday night and will return next Sunday.

O. H. Eyerly sold Seeberger & Co at Hershey thirty-four April pigs last Monday that averaged 204 pounds each. Next.

The Loyal Mystic Legion held its regular meeting in the hall at Hershey last Saturday evening at which time we are told three parties were elected to become members of that order at its next regular meeting.

Misses Annie Schwaiger and Jessie Vroman the Hershey teachers spent Thanksgiving at their homes in the county seat.

An entertainment was given by the pupils of the Hershey schools Wednesday afternoon which is highly spoken of by attendants most of whom were the parents of those who participated.

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Teachers' Association will be held at Lincoln December 26, 27 and 28. Among the features of the meeting will be an address by Chancellor Andrews on "False and True in Current Criticisms of Public School Teaching," and a lecture by Dr. Newell D. Hillis, of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, on "Ruskin's Message to the Nineteenth Century." General Headquarters, 26 Fifth Ave., New York City.
Nebraska State Division, Myrtle, Neb., Colors, Yellow and White. Flower, Coreopsis. Society Song, "Scatter Sunshine."

All letters, packages, or inquiries concerning Sunshine work should be addressed to Mrs. Anna E. Moore, Myrtle, Neb., and notices for publication should reach us not later than Wednesday.

So many letters of inquiries reach me, asking what we do for fees and dues, that I can only reply like our president-general:
"Why, we do everything. There is nothing you ever hear of that is good but some one has done something like it for the happiness or good cheer of somebody else."

There is not one bit of charity in all we do, we try to be brothers one to the other, without degrading the pride that is in each one of us and without regard to any form of creed. If you have a book, a toy, a picture, a card, an invalid's chair or anything else you care to pass on, let us know and we will find a member to pass it on to. A little gift, a poem, a kindly thought, helps every one, and any trifle that is useful and sent with kindly intent is all the membership fee we require.

The society has many thousands of members in this and foreign countries. It was organized by Mrs. C. Westover Alden in 1896, who is our President-General.

The Ladies Home Journal is our official paper, a page edited by Mrs. Alden appearing every month. The Sunday State Journal of Lincoln, Neb., publishes Nebraska state news every Sunday, edited by Mrs. Anna E. Moore, President of Nebraska State Division, and we hope that the readers of the North Platte Tribune will catch the sunshine spirit and help to make this column one for West Nebraska Sunshiners to be proud of.

The enthusiastic juniors of Myrtle have not been idle during the summer. Besides scattering "sun-blue" in various directions they have made very pretty work baskets and stocking bags and by the sale of them helped to send happiness to other members. Just now they are busy making scrap books to be sent to Mother Jewels home for orphan children at York, as Christmas greetings.

The members of the Tryon branch, met with its treasurer, Mrs. L. C. Reneau, last week and spent the afternoon in sewing for that lady. Its next meeting will be held at Mrs. John Dolph's. The officers of that branch are Mrs. Geo. Dolph, president; Mrs. W. L. Winters, vice president; Mrs. L. C. Reneau, treasurer, and Miss Katie Newberry, secretary.

Miss Mary J. Neary, Miss Jane and Anna Flynn, of North Platte, have joined the joy giving family of Sunshiners. New members enrolled at Myrtle were Mrs. L. Shaeffer and Earle and Elsie Shaeffer, and Donald Smith.

The many pen friends of H. M. Mould will be sorry to learn he received a broken arm in a railroad accident several weeks ago.

Through Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Merna, Custer county, the Junior Epworth League has become interested in the Sunshine work and a branch will probably be organized there before the New Year dawn.

An Omaha Swede worked a neat trick on a druggist of that city recently. He took a two gallon jug, containing a gallon of water into the pharmacy and ordered a gallon of alcohol. The clerk filled the order, but when it came to pay, the Swede had no money. The clerk thereupon drew out a gallon of the mixture but enough of the alcohol remained to give the Swede's water an intoxicating quality and he took his jug home and proceeded to get full. The joke on the clerk was so good he had to return and twist him about him about it and the shrewd forger was thereupon arrested and fined a dollar for being drunk and disorderly.

A stove in Jacob's shoe store in Madison exploded the other morning while he was pegging away. He couldn't tell the cause of the explosion to save his sole. He thought it was his last.
