Colonel and Mrs. W. F. Cody leave in a few days for a visit with their daughter Miss Irma in New York City.

Holiday business is beginning to develop and the next ten days will probably be busy ones for the local merchants.

For Rent—Two rooms suitable for light housekeeping. Inquire at this office.

Miss Laura Letts was tendered an informal farewell party by a number of her young friends Tuesday evening.

Henry Weller, of Kearney, has purchased a considerable body of land near Wellfleet and will engage in cattle raising.

Four land filings under the reservoir act were made at the United States land office yesterday, and several filings made on homesteads.

Barb wire and staples for sale by Jos. HERSHEY.

W. O. Thompson, the well known farmer living near Hershey, will leave the early part of next week for Eaton, Col., where he will permanently locate on a farm.

Co. Supt. Thoelecke has taken advantage of the pleasant weather this week and is devoting the time to visiting the country schools. She will return this evening or in the morning.

Hay shipments have taken on renewed activity due to an advance in price, the quotations this week being from $6.00 to $6.25 per ton on track. All shipments are being made to the Chicago market.

For Rent—A five room house on east Fourth street. Inquire of Major Walker.

It has been said that a woman may be known by the stationery she uses. The prettiest and daintiest line of Stationery, Ink Stands, Paper Weights, etc., etc., ever brought to North Platte at Doolittle's.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Newman became the parents of an eleven pound girl Wednesday morning. Nels is feeling highly elated over the young lady's appearance and thinks he now possesses a pair that is hard to beat.

The warm and pleasant weather this fall has resulted in a great saving of hay to stockmen and as a result they are selling part of their crop. With hay at six dollars a ton this surplus will represent a considerable sum to stockmen.

The work of grading the school building yard has about been completed, and early next spring blue grass will be sown. A number of trees in the yard have been cut down in order that those remaining may make a more rapid growth.

CARPET WEAVING of all kinds. Work guaranteed. Call or address Mrs. M. J. Ragan. One block west Buzza's Store.

The west end high five club passed a very pleasant evening at the Doolittle home Tuesday, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. W. M. Cunningham in entertaining the club. Sickness and absence from town diminished the attendance somewhat and but six tables were called into use. Sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the agricultural society was held at the court house Tuesday afternoon. J. E. Evans, W. C. Elder and E. F. Seeberger were elected as members of the board of directors, and the officers elected were H. S. White president, E. R. Goodman secretary and T. C. Patterson treasurer. It is likely that a fair will be held on the grounds next fall.

Charles H. Hoyt's revival of his farce comedy, "A Brass Monkey," which will be the attraction at the opera house tomorrow evening has been called "furiously funny." This expression most happily expresses its merit, from the rising to the final falling of the curtain there is not a dull moment in it. Laugh follows laugh so rapidly and the entire action is so spirited the audience laughs away for three hours and then wonders why the piece ends so quickly. A glance at a watch tells the story. They have been really entertained.

Arthur Hoagland is still figuring on putting in a small electric light plant in his store, and is getting figures on the cost. If he concludes to put in the plant he will probably supply lights to several neighboring merchants.

Hugh Jackson, alias Jack Curtain, who burglarized the room of John Beyerle about four years ago and was sentenced to the pen for several years, is now under arrest in Omaha. Jackson began his crooked work again as soon as he was discharged from the pen.

Mr. Combs, of Myrtle, who is mentally deranged, will probably have a hearing before the board of insanity tomorrow. The unfortunate man's aberration is the result of a fever a number of years ago, and as he has advanced in age he has grown somewhat vicious, especially toward children.

A man named Scott who lives south of town was arrested Wednesday night on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. After being placed in jail he became ugly and vicious and demolished a table, broke some castings on a stove and picking up a lighted lamp, threw it against the wall, but fortunately the spilled oil did not ignite. Scott was turned loose yesterday morning upon his promise to sin no more.
