Council Grants Two Franchises.

At the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday evening ordinances granting an electric light franchise to Lester Walker and a franchise to W. H. Dawson for a gasoline lighting plant were passed. The rights and privileges conceded to each party are identically the same in all respects.

The maximum cost of gas as specified in the Dawson franchise is two dollars per 1000 feet. This is probably a little high if the maximum rate is sustained.

Clerks Formally Organized.

The retail clerks perfected the organization of their union Tuesday evening by the election of the following officers: George Russell past president, Frank Douglas president, John Beyerle first vice-president, John Hulcomb second vice-president, Ray Langford secretary, Sol Solomon financial secretary, Wm. Yost treasurer, Chas. Ross guide, Jay Stuart door-keeper. The trustees elected were Messrs. Tekulve, Richards and McGrew.

The union voted unanimously to name seven o'clock as the hour at which the members desired to have the stores close.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa, "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by A. F. Streit. Price 50 cents.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

About 400 car loads of baled hay have been shipped from Nichols and Hershey during the past six months.

Z. M. Zook and wife are visiting relatives at the county seat this week.

The Martha Anderson and G. A. Staples real estate deal has been perfected by her buying the renter off for the sum of $100. Mr. Staples will take possession the first of next month.

Rev. Gilpin of this circuit is conducting a series of revival meetings in the M. E. church at Hershey at this time.

A. B. Goodwin visited relatives and old time friends at Belvidere, Neb., during the past week.

George Refior and family have taken possession of the W. O. Thompson farm which they have leased for the ensuing year.

Henry Sherman and family have returned from Illinois and are now domiciled on the W. A. Paxton ranch where Mr. Sherman will work the coming year.

J. C. Ahlborn who recently sold his farm in the valley and will move with his family soon to Kansas will sell the most of his personal effects at public auction on Saturday, March 2d.

It is reported that a large quantity of gra-shopper eggs have lately been found around alfalfa roots on Henry Weil's farm north of Spuds.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather on Wednesday the joint public auction of personal effects of Phenice and Robb was quite well attended and things sold for good prices.

D. M. Leypoldt will we are told erect a new residence on the north side of the railroad at Hershey the coming summer.

D. M. Leypoldt and D. S. White were county seat visitors the first of the week on important business.

H. W. Brown called on old time friends at his former home at Nichols on Sunday and Monday this week while enroute from North Platte to Sidney.

There is a very good market for coarse feed for home use in the valley at this time.

W. L. Brownfield was a North Platte visitor on business on Tuesday this week.

Grant Bare who was called to Alliance, Ohio, last fall by the illness and death of his father returned Wednesday.

At the recent annual meeting of the Hershey gun club a new organization was perfected and the old officers retained for another year.

It is reported that the American Sugar Beet Co. of Grand Island has already contracted for about one hundred acres of sugar beets to be grown in the valley the coming season the most of which will be grown on old canal company land.

Wm. Dymond who resided on the Anderson farm at Nichols when it was recently sold has since leased the Brown farm at that place for this year.

Dickens Doings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cosselman of North Platte were visiting with Dickens people the latter part of last week.

Mr. Sheeser, the B. & M. pump man at this station has taken a lay off and is visiting with friends in Western Kansas.

J. J. Hogan shipped a car of baled hay to Axtell, Neb., Friday morning. Mr. Hogan says he is getting $8.00 per ton for his hay on track here.

Cecil Tuell received a car each of dry goods and groceries a few days ago which he has opened up ready for sale. He cordially invites everybody to call in and examine his stock of goods which he sells as cheap as any other store in this part of the country.

Dr. F. F. Campbell of Wellfleet was visiting with Dickens sick people Friday.

Rev. Moore of North Platte was in town Monday and Tuesday. He left Tuesday evening for Wallace where he will hold a series of revival meetings.

MYSTLE NEWS.

A number of Mrs. Allison's friends helped to make merry her 64th birthday, last Saturday, by spending the day with her.

W. H. Null marketed hogs in North Platte Wednesday.

The friends of Clyde Allison were somewhat surprised to learn of the accident that befell him by carrying a loaded revolver. Clyde is not the only young man in this vicinity that seem to think they live in the exciting times of Buffalo Bill's early days and persist in carrying revolvers. The misfortune to Allison should be a warning to others.

The first wintry weather has visited us. Those that are wintering cattle, found it necessary to feed hay for about a week. With few exceptions the owners of the cattle are pleased with their herds.

A number from this vicinity who enjoy dancing attended the "house warming" at Mr. Douglas of Logan county, Tuesday night. All report an exceedingly good time.

Snow has all melted away in this section now.

A. E. Moore was transacting business in North Platte Friday.

Postal orders are rather high priced at North Platte, a gentleman from this precinct was charged ten cents for an order less than two dollars a few days ago.
