

Local News in Brief.

Judge Grimes will hold a term of district court in Logan county beginning next Monday. This will be the only term held in that county this year.

Colonel Scharmann will leave on the 27th for Lincoln where he will join Governor Dietrich and staff and on the following day the party will leave for Washington.

National Bank Examiner McGrew made an official examination of the First National Bank Wednesday, and found it up to its usual high standard.

Carl Pierce, the well known passenger conductor, became the father of a boy baby this week. A warm reception will be given him upon his next visit to North Platte.

The room on Front street formerly occupied by W. T. Banks has been leased and will be occupied by a clothing store, the manager of which will come from the east.

Rev. Lowry, the evangelist, received a telegram Wednesday afternoon announcing that his father was critically ill, and the following morning Mr. Lowry left for Arkansas.

The Twentieth Century Club drove out to the Thoelecke farm last evening and were entertained by Miss Bertha and Otto. The evening proved a delightful one to all members of the club, the hospitality of the Thoelecke family being truly hearty.

Geo. Hower, who has been in the employ of the Union Pacific at Sidney for several years, was united in marriage at the Lutheran church last evening to Miss Maggie Lentz of this city. Rev. John F. Seibert officiating. The couple left for Sidney last night.

During the past few days several men from the east have been in town looking up locations for cattle ranches. They have been in the hands of John Bratt & Co., and as that firm has a fine list of that class of property, the eastern men will probably find what they want.

Hay shipments have been rather light for a week or so, due principally to the fact that prices in the Denver market are ruling a little low. Unless cold weather prevails, which would mean more consumption on the valley ranches, there will be considerable surplus hay in the section tributary to this market.

In the case of the Commercial Club against the County Commissioners denying the right of the latter to raise the real estate and personal assessment in the city of North Platte, Judge Grimes' decision effected only the personal property. The real estate remains at the assessment to which it was raised by the commissioners.

Judge Grimes sitting in chambers Wednesday heard the application of the administrator of the Keith estate to sell the roller mill property in this city to C. F. Iddings for a consideration of seven thousand dollars. The Judge granted the application and the transfer will at once be made unless the heir of the estate sees fit to fight the sale in court.

Rev. T. H. Thurber died at the home of his son in this city Wednesday afternoon at the age of eighty-eight. The deceased was a retired Methodist minister and located at Sutherland several years ago. About a year ago his wife died, and he then came to this city to make his home with his son. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon and the remains taken to Sutherland last evening for interment.

We infer from a talk with councilman Lloyd that an effort will be made at the coming city election to elect a mayor and councilmen who are favorable to municipal ownership of a plant. As citizens seem to be pretty evenly divided between municipal ownership of such a plant, we presume the better way to determine the matter would be to make it an issue in the coming election by having candidates declare themselves.

In the play of "Human Hearts" are many situations to gladden the spectator, cause a laugh, and to bring to the eyes tears of sympathetic pity. This strong and beautiful varied play will be given at the opera house on Tuesday March 5th, and none who attend will regret the time thus spent. It is a play for young and old, and it affords entertainment for all classes of people. Its human story deals with emotion common to all and never fails to move the spectators.

Miss Crummer, who is employed as a teacher in an Episcopal school near Shanghai, China, but who has been granted a year's vacation, arrived in the city Wednesday evening and yesterday afternoon and last evening delivered addresses at the Church of Our Saviour. Miss Crummer is a very interesting talker and her description of life and educational and missionary work in China proved very instructive. Large audiences were present at both meetings.

Kick Me Real Hard, Said He.

WE really felt quite sorry for the fellow, although he was not entitled to any sympathy. He had been in the high priced district and bought a suit of clothes for $15.00. He was well pleased with them until he came into our store with a friend who wanted a hat and seeing the same identical suit in our window for $12.00. Then he said to his friend, "Kick me real hard!" Well, people learn by experience and experience costs something.

How is it with you. Have you been in the habit of paying $3 to $5 of a fancy margin? You certainly have if you have not been here. Come and see us, see what we have and how much better we can do for you than other stores. Remember the reason, we buy for cash and sell for cash.

Our Spring Suits

are now ready for you to see.

A ten pound girl baby was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rannie. Mr. Rannie seems to have caught the twentieth century enterprise and desires to do his share toward increasing North Platte's population.

Observer Piercy is being scored somewhat for having the cold weather come in February instead of December. We believe, however, that Mr. Piercy is entitled to considerable credit for the weather we have had this winter. Taking all together the winter has been a delightful one.

Pillsbury Minneapolis Flour, the highest grade flour made. We have just received a carload.

Rev. Wimberly requests us to state that the revival services at the Methodist church will be continued indefinitely. Up to last evening there had been eighty conversions. About sixty of the converts have united with the Methodist church, and the others will unite with the other church organizations in the city.

The question of putting in a sewerage system in the city is being discussed on the streets to a considerable extent. This is an improvement that must come sooner or later and the quicker the better. The heaviest taxpayers are among those who are most earnestly advocating the issuance of bonds to put in the system. A rough estimate of the cost of a system is now being made by a local civil engineer.

Working Overtime. Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, sick headache and all Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe and sure. Only 25c at Streitz's Drug Store.

The shooting team of the North Platte Gun Club accompanied by a number of others went to Grand Island this morning to contest honors with the team of that city.

The exercises accompanying the presentation of a flag to the school board by the Jr. O. U. A. M. are being held at the high school building this afternoon. It is an appropriate day for such a donation.

Greeley Potatoes are the best. We have just received a carload.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West will open in New York about the middle of April and remain in that city for three weeks. It will then start out on a circuit that embraces all the large towns and cities, coming west as far as St. Louis. The show will reach Buffalo in August and probably remain there the balance of the season.

The final session of the West End High Five Club prior to Lent was held at the Field residence Tuesday evening, Mrs. Field being assisted by Mrs. Bare. Nearly all members were present. A pleasant feature of the evening were two vocal solos rendered by Jas. B. Scanlan.

On the 26th of March there will be offered for sale by Sheriff Keliher a number of tracts of land in this county upon which taxes were delinquent and possession obtained by the county through foreclosure proceedings. A number of the tracts to be sold are as good farming land as there is in the county and it is likely they can be purchased at a low figure.

Assessors' Meeting. The annual meeting of the assessors of Lincoln county will be held at the court house on Tuesday, March 19th, at ten o'clock in the forenoon. The law provides that every assessor must attend this meeting. W. M. HOLTRY, Co. Clerk.
