Flag Presentation.

On Friday afternoon of last week the local lodge of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics presented an 8 x 12 foot flag to the new high school building. The flag was raised to the staff at 2:30 in the presence of a large audience, among which were the W. R. C., the G. A. R., Company E. N. N. G., and members of the Spanish War Veterans Association. As the flag ascended to the staff the Gordon Cornet Band rendered "America."

When the starry banner reached its position, the audience ascended to the auditorium where the presentation exercises were held in the presence of five or six hundred people. The program was opened by an invocation by Rev. Beecher followed by the singing of "America" by the school children and the audience. The formal presentation of the flag and an address was delivered by Hilliard S. Ridgley whose remarks were neatly made. The response to the presentation was delivered by Romeyn Dillard in behalf of the high school. The exercises closed with a benediction by Rev. Seibert.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

W. J. Shinkle has taken possession of the Newberry farm which he has leased for the ensuing year.

J. R. White of Champagne, Ill., came up to Hershey last week and sold his farm near there containing eighty acres to W. T. Miller for the consideration of $3000. Mr. White will return home this week.

G. A. Staples is moving to the Anderson farm at Nichols which he recently purchased for the consideration of $1600.

John Newberry of McPherson county was over in the valley on business a couple of days last week.

Mrs. M. H. Douglas and sister Miss Dora Wright of North Platte were guests at the Seeberger residence at Hershey the last of the week.

We understand that Wm. Dymond's aged parents of Kearney will reside with him on the Brown farm at Nichols the coming season.

There are an unusual number of public auctions of personal effects being held in the valley at the present time.

Mrs. Fanny Brooks of Nichols has returned from a week's visit with relatives at the county seat.

The revival meetings at Hershey are still in vogue. The attendance is good and a deep interest is manifested.

O. W. Rich the Nichols teacher and G. E. Turner the one at O'Fallons made a business trip to North Platte and returned on their wheels Saturday.

J. C. Ahlborn who will soon depart with his family for Kansas was a North Platte visitor on business Friday. Many friends will deeply regret their departure.

A. F. Beeler was at North Platte again last week in the interest of the local Loyal Mystic Legion order in this city. He reports good success in securing members for the order there.

C. F. Scharfmann of North Platte who now owns the Manion land over north of Nichols informs the writer that he expects to erect a residence on his land the coming spring which will be occupied by his brother John who will look after the premises for him in the future.

J. C. Gyger is at this time conducting the milk route over north-east for the Nichols creamery formerly operated by J. B. Toillion, Jr. O. W. Sullivan of Nichols who recently rented his farm at that place to J. V. Robinson has since sold it to C. S. Trovillo one of the many prosperous farmers of that section.

The reception given by the Loyal Mystic Legion at Hershey in the hall at that place on Saturday evening last in honor of its charter members, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Phenice who will depart in a short time for their future home in Illinois, was attended by most of the members and their families and also several invited guests. A program consisting of recitations, declamations and both vocal and instrumental music was rendered with credit to all participants after which a bountiful repast was spread and all did ample justice. It was a grand success in every detail from start to finish and also one of the best social events of the season.

W. T. Miller who recently purchased the J. R. White farm will remain on the W. A. Paxton ranch the coming season and D. B. White who has resided on the farm that he purchased for the past two years will remain on it the coming year.

Chas. McAllister has lately had three head of calves die of black leg. He lost about eighteen head with that disease some time since, then it abated but has recently broke out in his herd with fatal results.

J. M. Dweyer who has lost several head of cattle and a fine brood mare with the corn stalk disease the past winter seems to be having more than his share of worldly troubles, but is bearing them like a hero and with no preventing providence will stem the storm and safely land on solid foundation.

"Human Hearts"

Hal Reid's play "Human Hearts," replete with interest, mirth and pathos will be presented at Lloyd's opera house on March 5th and no lover of the drama should fail to attend the performance. But few traveling companies carry so much and elaborate scenery. No expense has been spared in the effort to make this performance in every way artistically realistic. One breathes the atmosphere of the simple farm life, and one's heart throbs with the sufferings of plain country folks, who engage the attention with their homely ways and simple nature. The people of this town and vicinity will have the opportunity to laugh away their cares, and sympathize with sorrow, if they go to see Hal Reid's very successful play "Human Hearts." No one will regret the time spent in witnessing this enactment of the lives of simple folks who have witnessed the greatest of sorrows, separation and injustice; and all will not only be chastened by pity for the afflicted, but will be refreshed by laughter in plenty, for which the playwright has skillfully planned.

Leading A Quiet Life.

Mrs. Mary Laue one of the chief actors in the Odessa tragedy one year ago last December, has been confined in the county jail nearly a year. While she is in one sense a prisoner she is treated as a high grade one, not being confined to a cell, and enjoying some of the privileges of the sheriff's household. She reads does a great deal of fancy work, and probably devotes some of the idle time to retrospection. Few visitors call upon her. Indeed about the only visitor is her uncle, D. Laue. She takes a walk outside once and a while but is always accompanied by some other woman. She recently visited one of the dry goods store up town and made some purchases but was not recognized. There is considerable speculation as to what the court will do in her case, but there is a belief that when Dinsmore's fate is finally settled she will be given her freedom.—Kearney Hub.

The Lexington South Side Irrigation Company was incorporated last week, and the ditch, which covers land in Dawson and Gosper counties, will be constructed this spring. The water will be taken from the Platte river near Livingston.
