A BILL giving women the right to vote for presidential electors passed the Kansas senate Tuesday, but the following day the measure was reconsidered and defeated by a vote of twenty-three to fourteen.

MAYOR WINNETT of Lincoln was renominated this week, and his success is considered a black eye for D. E. Thompson, as Winnett is a strong anti-Thompson man.

In an argument before the house committee Wednesday in support of State Senator Weber's bill which cuts freight rates on certain commodities from ten to fifteen per cent, M. F. Harrington made deductions in which he claimed that out of every $100 paid in freight to the Union Pacific railroad $45.00 is clear profit.

It is worth mentioning under the circumstances that Secretary of State Marsh is turning the fees received from the marks and brands commission into the state treasury. It is nothing remarkable that a state officer should be honest and obey the law but Mr. Porter went out of the office of secretary of state with nearly a thousand dollars of these fees sticking to his fingers.

THE Bee's Lincoln correspondent says the fusionists, for political purposes, will go on record as an anti-corporation party. The particular points on which the line up is to be forced are on the fellow-servant law and the law fixing maximum freight rates for railroad transportation.

If the plans of the promoters are carried out P. H. Fitzgerald of Indianapolis will lead a colony of 10,000 people into Oklahoma in the late spring or summer. Fitzgerald was the organizer of the old soldiers' colony, which established the town of Fitzgerald in Wilcox county, Ga., in 1895.

He is the editor of the G. A. R. paper in Indianapolis and created a sensation by taking union veterans and their families into Dixie land. In less than one year the Georgia town had 9,000 inhabitants.

THE other day Pierpont Morgan drew a check for twenty-three million dollars against his account in a New York bank and the gigantic transaction did not cause a perceptible jar in the financial machinery of that city.

When the Hair Falls Out accompanied by mucous patches in the mouth, eruptions on the skin, sore throat, copper colored spots, swollen glands, aching muscles and bones, the disease is making rapid headway, and far worse symptoms will follow unless the blood is promptly and effectually cleansed of this violent destructive poison.

My Condition Could Have Been No Worse. In the fall of 1897 I contracted Blood Poison. I tried three doctors, but their treatment did me no good; I was getting worse all the time.

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. $1.00 is offered for proof that it contains a particle of mercury, potash or other mineral poison.
