HENRY BOLLN, convicted of embezzlement of funds while treasurer of Omaha, and sentenced to nineteen years in the penitentiary, has been pardoned by Governor Dietrich after he had served about four years.

JIM CALLAHAN, was found not guilty of the charge of kidnaping young Cudaby at Omaha. The verdict was a complete surprise to all who heard the evidence, and the jury was roundly scored by Judge Baker, before whom the case was heard.

GOVERNOR DIETRICH yesterday afternoon commuted the death sentence of Frank Dinsmore to imprisonment for life. Dinsmore is the man convicted on the charge of murdering Fred Lauc at Odessa on December 6, 1899.

SUTHERLAND SAYINGS.

Prof. Neale and Miss Murray and Miss Gilman, took in the teachers' meeting at Sidney on Saturday. The Weir Bros. had Surveyor Ross looking up the lines on their hay land at Dexter on Thursday.

Grain and grass never looked better at this time of the year than at present.

W. J. Shinkle and family visited in North Platte the latter part of last week.

At the present time seventy-five acres of corn per day are being put in on the Paxton ranch near Hershey.

Will Eshelman is up from North Platte visiting friends.

Corn planting is in full blast this week, and the acreage promises to be the largest ever planted in this section of the county.

A gang of men and teams are at work repairing the Farmers and Merchants' irrigation ditch.

Chas. Toillion sold a number of bushels of alfalfa seed recently to C. F. Iddings at North Platte for $5.00 per bushel.

The schools at Hershey will close today Tuesday but the entertainment will take place on Wednesday evening.

J. H. Blankenbaker and family will depart by team in a short time for the state of Oregon to make their future home.

M. R. Magnusen, who spent the past winter at his old home in Illinois, has recently returned and leased a farm over on the south side upon which he will plant broom corn and melons this season.

Mrs. Reno, of Julesburg, is the guest of her sister Mrs. J. C. Gyger and also her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford at this time.

A. B. Goodman has resumed his old job again of riding the old irrigation canal.

J. C. Gyger of the Nichols creamery was at North Platte Saturday with butter for Harrington & Tobin of that city. He says as it is just between hay and grass that there is but very little if any increase in the milk receipts.

U. P. Stock Goes Up.

The fact that more than 660,000 shares of Union Pacific common stock were sold on the New York stock exchange Wednesday added weight to the rumor of the impending lease of the system to the Northwestern. The advance was 8 7/8 points. In the memorable one in Philadelphia and Reading stock several years ago more than 800,000 half shares ($50) were sold on the New York stock exchange in one day.

Wall street operators apparently put faith in the rumors that a lease of the Union Pacific to the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company was being arranged. Official denials of the most positive character has no effect in checking the enthusiasm of the "bull" traders, who made Union Pacific the sensational feature of the day.

The J. P. Morgan syndicate instantly snapped up, the other day, $50,000,000 of the new British loan of $300,000,000 just placed on the market, and bids for millions more have been offered by other American syndicates and insurance companies. The interest is two and three quarters per cent. The consol holders are subject to an income tax on the interest of 6 per cent, collected when the interest is paid, deducting it, so the real interest is two and fifty-eight hundredths per cent.

This rush for British consols is another proof of the immense amount of loose capital in this country. That explains also the continued bulling of stocks on change, so that a four or five per cent bond or a stock that pays four per cent dividend is worth more than par in the American market. It also explains the high premiums that Secretary Gage has to pay on four per cent U. S. bonds notwithstanding they have a dozen or less years to run.

Money is cheap in the United States, really cheaper on the whole than in any other country on earth. Uncle Sam is now the recognized banker of the world, superseding Jonny Bull in a single twelvemonth in that capacity. It is the single gold standard that performed the trick.—Lincoln Journal.

COUNTRY AND CITY LIFE.

Human Nature Much the Same in Either Environment.

A paper was read before one of the numerous literary clubs of this city recently in which the writer contrasted the conditions of a certain rural section of this state with the higher civilization of our cities, says the Indianapolis News. The author was adroit and did not commit himself as favoring one side or the other, but he raised the question as to whether, after all, our modern civilization, with its telegraph, railroads, telephones and electric power, stood for the highest happiness and greatest good to the human race.

When the late Jay Gould came on holiday to Europe he felt perplexed what to do with himself. The Louvre had no attractions for him. The calm of Holland appalled him. He longed, miserably, for Wall street. And just to kill time—to satisfy himself that he was Jay Gould and nobody else—he would turn into the Bourse, in Paris or in Amsterdam, operate a little and walk out a trifle of £20,000 or £30,000 the richer.

President Thwing of the Western Reserve University at Cleveland says in noting a marked decrease in the number of divinity students that two influences produce this result—the larger inducements which commercial pursuits offer and the unsettling of religious beliefs and doubts as to future relations between church and society.

The German Emperor's imperial train cost $750,000, and took three years to construct. There are altogether twelve cars, including two nursery carriages. The reception saloon contains several pieces of statuary, and each of the sleeping cars is fitted with a bath.

A Touch of Elegance Is imparted to every garment leaving this establishment, because we are not content to furnish only good cloth and a perfect fit, but do not rest until we have given to the cloths made here an undefinable quality usually called "style."
