THE JEWELER,

The Semi-Weekly Tribune.
 FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1901.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roche left for Denver this morning.
 Knights of Pythias are urged to be present at the ball this evening.
 W. B. Millard and Paul Charlton of Omaha were in town yesterday on business connected with the Keith estate.
 Mrs. H. M. Grimes entertained her Sunday-school class, fifteen or sixteen girls, in a very pleasant manner yesterday afternoon.
 An operation for appendicitis was performed on George McEvoy at an Omaha hospital Wednesday afternoon and he is reported to be getting along nicely.
 About one-fourth of the county assessors have made their returns to the county clerk. The assessors are required to have their books in by the first week in June.
 Mrs. Carrie Plant, through Jno. Bratt & Co., has sold to E. A. Diener the east half of section 7-12-29; and to Wm. Edis 960 acres in sections 21 and 29, town 12, range 29. In the former sale the price was $2.50 per acre, and in the latter about $2.00 per acre.
 The display of Sporting Goods in Doolittle's window would do credit to a city ten times this size.
 The rain which began falling early Wednesday morning and continued the greater part of yesterday was a soaker and at a low estimate was worth 'steen thousand dollars to the farmers and stockmen of Lincoln county. The rain extended over almost the entire state.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bogue returned Wednesday night from a protracted visit in Chicago and Milwaukee. At the latter city Mr. B. attended the annual convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as a delegate from the local lodge. There were seven hundred delegates in the convention.

Nebraska Clothing and Shoe House.
 Front Street, west of McCullough & Carter's Grocery.

When we decided to cast our lot among the people of North Platte and her surroundings we said we would be truthful, energetic and patient.
These are Qualities.
 Our Clothing is good, prices low, and the wear test will show you values to be every whit as good as we represent.
 Our Saturday sale will show our business principles.
 We carry Hamilton Brown Shoe Co's Shoes, the largest shoe house in the world. No experiment necessary as every pair sold is guaranteed.
 Our Working Men's Department is represented by the Keystone brand of Pants and Overalls, the oldest Union House in the United States. An inspection of these goods will prove to you what we assert.
 Boys' and Children's Clothing Department is complete. Values beyond comparison.
 Our Hat Stock is immense. We fit your pocket as well as your head.
 If you appreciate good values it will pay you to come and make your selection.

Nebraska Clothing and Shoe House,
SAM E. ROSENBERG, Mgr.
 Front St. North Platte, Neb.

The Best Brands Only
 deck our counters and shelves, no matter what particular kinds of canned goods are to your liking—soups, potted meats, corn, tomatoes, salmon, peas, chowchow, or other pickles—it's all one to us, and that one the very best obtainable at any price.
 There's a good deal in the packing, no less than in the vegetables—meat, fish or fruit themselves. Two words cover them all—THE BEST.

Harrington & Tobin.

 The grocermen of the city held a meeting last evening to discuss the advisability of adopting the cash system. The matter will be more fully considered at a future meeting.

John Bratt & Co. sold today one hundred head of cattle, which were in transit, to Wm. Ware for twenty-six hundred dollars. Mr. Ware is stocking up the Pawnee ranch rapidly, buying a hundred head or so each week or two.
 The young men members of the E. A. Literary Club entertained the young lady members Wednesday evening at Mrs. Bogue's boarding house. Among the most enjoyable features of the evening was a "Dutch lunch," which was served in good Teutonic style. The evening throughout proved very enjoyable to all.
 The line-up of the Kearney ball players for tomorrow's game has been received and it is said that the pitcher and catcher are both Indians formerly playing with the Genoa Indian team. If this is true the local team will probably have a game that will test their nerve and ability. The Kearneyites will be up on train No. 5 tomorrow morning.

Chas. Beyerle, formerly of this city, who now owns and manages the Uncle Tom's Cabin Company which appears here on June 1st, has made a big financial success of the show business, which we are sure his North Platte friends will be glad to know. Mr. Beyerle claims to have a better company this season than ever before, and is confident that the performance will please North Platte people.
