When You Buy Paint

Buy Good Paint...

And that means SHERWIN & WILLIAMS' PAINT. We have been handling this make for many years and have found that it gives excellent satisfaction in every instance. It may cost a trifle more per gallon than inferior paints, but it's cheapest in the end. It sticks and holds its color longer than other paint.

We can furnish you any color or quantity.

M. C. Harrington Married.

M. C. Harrington and Mrs. M. H. Tobin were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church at 8:30 Sunday evening by Rev. Kennedy in the presence of members of the two families. The couple left on the midnight train for a tour in the east. Mr. Harrington will be absent about thirty days, while Mrs. H. will extend her visit beyond that time.

This ceremony was not entirely unexpected by our people, as it is a consummation fitting and proper. The two have been associated in business for several years the families have lived under the roof, and the contracting parties have been congenial to each other.

When Mr. Tobin died a number of years ago his interest in the firm of Harrington & Tobin was continued by his wife, and the varied business of the firm represents during the year a greater volume than perhaps any other firm in western Nebraska. It is especially fitting that the business partnership which has proven so successful should be followed by a matrimonial partnership.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington are people of prominence in social, business and church circles, and by reason of their many good qualities are held in very high esteem; they are known by all and respected by all.

We are glad to record this marital union and extend our heartiest congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Harrington.

Death of Mrs. E. H. Smith.

Mrs. E. H. Smith died early Saturday morning of disorder of the kidneys after an illness of about twenty-four hours. The deceased retired Thursday night in her usual good health, but awakened about four the following morning and was seized with violent vomiting. This condition continued until Friday afternoon when convulsions began and for fifteen hours the spasms closely followed each other in the most intense form. Doctors Dennis and McCabe were in attendance and did everything in their power to alleviate the suffering of the unfortunate woman, but their best efforts were of no avail, and death occurred shortly after four o'clock. The intensity of the convulsions were heart-rending to the attendants and it required considerable force to control the body of the sufferer.

Ida Irene Smith was born in Sidney, Iowa, April 13, 1863, and was married to Mr. Smith in 1886. They spent most of their married life in Council Bluffs, where two children were born to them. Claude now aged twelve, and Hazel aged ten. About two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Cheyenne, and two months ago came to this city to make their home, purchasing the Paschman property in the south end. The deceased was a woman of many excellent virtues, a loving and devoted wife and mother and her sudden death is a particularly sorrowful one.

In this their dark hour of affliction and sadness the family have the sympathy of the whole people.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church at two o'clock this afternoon, a large audience attending.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

S. L. Funkhouser is said to have the finest fields of sugar beets in the valley.

Thomas Hayes attended church at North Platte Sunday.

Ethel and Jean Ellison of the county seat are the guests of friends at Nichols.

A number of people will celebrate the Fourth of July at the Beer grove south of the Nichols bridge.

Farmers in the hills say the prospects for a hay crop in the canyons and draws are good.

The frost on Wednesday night did some damage to potato and bean vines.

The second series of club dances were held in the Nichols school house Saturday evening and a lively time is reported.

Fall grain is coming on rapidly and will be ready for harvesting a little earlier than usual.

If this week is favorable for haying, the first crop of alfalfa will all be cut and stored.

A. L. McKinnis, who has a large herd of Galloway cattle on the south side, tells us that they are in fine condition and looking much better than he expected earlier in the season.

Will Eshelman who had been spending a few days in the valley, has returned to North Platte.

Jim Carpenter went down to the county seat a few days ago with the scalps of a couple of coyotes which he had killed.

W. H. Sullivan sold a thoroughbred shorthorn bull calf to E. Blankenburg Saturday.

John Keith was in Hershey Saturday night to take a train for Omaha. John invested in a lively team at Sutherland to go to the nearest large station where trains stop.

Several families in the valley will hold a picnic at Stebbin's grove on the south side on July 4th.

The prospects for a heavy crop of hay in the valley were never better than at present.

Recent rains have put sufficient moisture in the ground to insure the small grain crop without further irrigating.

H. Otten informs us that his bees are doing well and the prospect for a large crop of honey is good.

E. R. Ripley and H. Otten both unloaded a large invoice of fine home grown strawberries among the North Platte merchants on Monday morning of this week.
