Two gentlemen from Iowa spent several days in this section last week looking up a location for a cattle ranch, and were piloted around by Tom Stebbins. We understand they were very favorably impressed with several tracts on the south side.

A trunk belonging to one of the Misses O'Hare was stolen from the lower hall of the Hinman block on Front street Saturday night. The thieves carried the trunk across the street to the the enclosed U. P. yard where it was opened and a fancy comb, brush and hand mirror taken. The other articles, consisting mainly of clothing, were not disturbed.

Compound engines No. 1855 and 1854—two of the big wheelers—came up from Omaha Saturday and were broken in on freight for a day in charge of Engineers Whitlock and Frederickson. Yesterday the 1855 went out on train No. 2 and made the running time with ease. These engines developed a speed of seventy-eight miles per hour on the First district.

A seven room house for sale on reasonable terms. Inquire of Mrs. L. Bogue, or at this office.

P. H. McEvoy received last Saturday a draft for $1,000 covering the policy held by his late son, George in the American Order of Protection. The draft was received within two weeks after the proof of death had been made, which speaks well for the promptness of the order in paying its claims.

For sale—1,000 bushels of shelled corn. Inquire of N. B. Spurrer.

A bowling alley under the management of Arthur Moore will be opened in the room in the Odd Fellow's building about July 1st. Bowling has become a favorite sport in the east, not only by men but by ladies as well, and it is believed that the alley will be well patronized here. The place will be well supplied with very fine apparatus, and will be conducted in a strictly first class manner.

L. H. Daingerfield, formerly of this city but now one of the signal observers in the U. S. weather bureau at Cheyenne, will be united in marriage to Miss Francis McNamara at the home of the latter tomorrow evening. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Wimberly in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. The couple will leave the same night for a visit with Mr. Daingerfield's parents at Albany, Mo., and will be at home in Cheyenne after July 8th.

The Era has installed a gasoline engine with which to furnish power for its presses.

Bert Bush, chairman of the legislative committee and Fred Bauman, secretary and treasurer of the State Society of Labor, both of Omaha, were in town Sunday attending a meeting of the executive board of the society.

F. D. Denny is in jail at Sidney on the charge of stealing two watches and a lot of dental tools from the Commercial Hotel. Denny had been in Sidney but a few days before committing the theft.

CARD OF THANKS.—To all those who so kindly extended their services and sympathy during the illness and at the funeral of my wife, I desire to express my heartfelt thanks. These acts will ever be gratefully remembered.

E. H. SMITH.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Strahorn and daughter, who went to Lincoln last week to be present at the graduation of Arthur Strahorn, returned Saturday night. Arthur also returning. The latter graduated from the scientific department, chemistry being his leading study. He will remain in town until the beet sugar factories open and he will then probably obtain employment in one of the factories in Nebraska.

The Rev. Mr. Swing once said "that a novel is the world's truth with a beautiful woman walking through it". Generally, we may add, with a man after her. Doolittle has a new invoice of the latest novels.

Bishop Graves spent Sunday in town and at the morning service at the Episcopal church ordained Alford A. Gilman to the diaconate in the presence of a large audience. As the candidate was born and has spent his life in North Platte, the ordination was very impressive to those to whom the young man is so well and favorably known. At the evening service Mr. Gilman delivered his first sermon, and it was well received. Following the sermon, Bishop Graves confirmed several persons.

P. A. White is expected home this week from his visit at various points in Illinois.

Isaac Lamplugh has been granted a patent for an improved spring for use on locomotives, tenders and cars. Those who have examined the spring say that it is superior to any on the market. Mr. Lamplugh will go to Omaha in a week or so and see if he cannot make arrangements with the Union Pacific to make and use his patent.

Hardly a day passes but some one comes into the store and says: "I see by the paper that you have such and such a thing." That is what advertising does. Watch these columns for information about Doolittle's stock.

Quite a number of people were up from Cottonwood yesterday on a replevin case of Chas. Haynes against John Murray, a special officer, but on account of the sickness of one of the main witnesses the case was continued until July 12th. The case grows out of cattle belonging to Haynes trespassing on the lands of a former named Hahn.

Three or four young lads living in town who had gone down to Grand Island to witness the ball game and were returning on the blind baggage on No. 3 Sunday night were "held up" by three hoboes who were also on the train and robbed them of all the money they had and also a watch. The boys were riding on the car platform and were asked by the hoboes to crawl up on top of the cars which they did and it was while they were on the top of the cars that they were robbed.

The Union Pacific team defeated the Columbus team Friday by a score of one to nothing, defeated the Fremont team Saturday by a score of fourteen to five, and in Sunday's game with Grand Island were defeated twelve to one. In this latter game Hart had a finger broken. This accident placed him on the bench and so crippled the team that they thought it best to disband the team and cancel dates. Bailey, Oumette, Mercer and Sawyer arrived home yesterday, and the others will visit in the eastern part of the state for a while. So far this season the Union Pacifics have played eight games, four of which they won and lost four. This is as good an average as one-half the league teams make.

Notice.
