be raised $10,000,000.

Of hogs the shipments amounted to 3,403,640 head. These would show a gross value nearly, if not quite, as large as the cattle, for the price was very high. At any rate, it is safe to say the value of the cattle and hogs marketed by Nebraska farmers last year was easily $50,000,000.

This magnificent sum explains the prosperity of the Nebraska farmer. The beef and pork
