A. D. Orr brought to this office this morning a guinea egg which had been cooked hard by the rays of the sun.

The family of Train Dispatcher Brown is expected here in a few days from Nodaway, Iowa, to make their home.

The Lutheran people will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn this evening. Mrs. C. F. Scharmann will sing for the occasion and the mandolin club will render several selections.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
Young man, you missed it! You that staid away from the rooms last Sunday. All that is good and noble was aroused in many of the young fellows that listened to Mr. George D. McDill's address. It was uplifting.

With the addition of the thousand dollars worth of books, the splendid gift of that noble-hearted woman Miss Helen Miller Gould, North Platte will have a grand library, and the association will certainly grow. Let the members go to work now and run the membership up to four hundred at least. We want those new books read, and as it is a membership privilege only, we must have four hundred.

We are glad to welcome to the rooms so many Grand Island and Cheyenne men lately. No better place in the town to spend an hour or two. Welcome fellows, bring others up.

For Sale
Forty or forty-five head of cattle, 2-year-old steers, 2-year old heifers and young milch cows with first and second calves. For particulars inquire of F. J. Brocker, the tailor.

A word about SNOWFLAKE FLOUR. Unscrupulous dealers are selling a second grade flour under the same brand. See that the name Wells, Abbott & Neiman, Schuyler, Neb., is on every sack and you will get genuine Snowflake Flour, which has no equal. If you are not already a consumer of it you should commence at once. Beware of counterfeit flour. Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.

Our Motto is: "The recollection of quality remains long after price is forgotten."

Our store closes at 7 p. m.

James McEvoy has rented the Warner house on south Dewey street and will at once begin house-keeping.

A ditch farmer tells us that the grasshoppers are dying off by the millions. A. D. Orr reports the same conditions and says that the stench from the dead hoppers is so great as to almost drive the men out of the alfalfa fields where they are at work. Just what is causing the wholesale death of the hoppers is not known, but the destruction is gladly welcomed by the farmers.

A carload of Pillsbury Best Flour just received at Harrington & Tobin's. Retail price $1.25 per sack.

The Beach & Bowers' minstrels opened their Butte engagement yesterday with two performances to big audiences, and if laughter and applause is an indication of a good and satisfactory show, and it usually is, such a show is given by the minstrels. The company is made up of a lot of clever performers and specialty artists, including among the number Lou Kuetzger, one of the best club swingers ever seen in Butte; Don Gordon, a remarkable trick bicycle rider and on the unicycle. Harry Freeman and the Smith brothers a team of acrobatic wonders. The Van brothers in a musical act, and the Le Barre trio, another team of very clever acrobats. The performance concludes with Bobbie Beach's troupe of wonderful trained dogs.—Anaconda Standard.
