Mr. Lewis Objects.

TO THE EDITOR:-A week or two ago there appeared in the Daily Telegraph an article which referred to the Pulver hospital as the county poor house and a close reading of the lines would make it appear that all the inmates were county charges. I desire to correct this, and state that at least two of the inmates were not people of and I expect to reimburse those lodges. I have received most excellent care at the hands of the physician and nurses, and I believe excellent treatment,
