Clinton THE JEWELER,

The Semi-Weekly Tribune.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1901.

G. T. Field and W. M. Canningham transacted business in Sutherland last evening.

C. L. Patterson will begin grading county roads in about a week. The first work will be on the Dike-man road in Rosedale precinct.

Owing to the fact that the auditorium is undergoing repairs there will be no preaching at the Methodist church next Sabbath. Sunday-school, however, will be held as usual.

The owners of the proposed electric light system were in town the early part of the week completing preliminary arrangements. Lester Walker returned to Denver with the gentlemen Wednesday evening.

Arthur Plumer is in town today with a bunch of cattle which he is driving from the Birdwood to the home ranch at Maxwell. He will ship them to market in about two weeks.

Yesterday the county commissioners instructed the county attorney to dismiss, upon the payment of $200, the suit now pending before the supreme court against John H. Clark and his bondsmen.

Doolittle has a few desirable Hammocks left a prices that cannot be duplicated.

What are the five most popular novels of the day? Here they are: The Crisis, by Winston Churchill; The Helmit of Navarre, by Bertha Runkle; The Octopus, by Frank Norris; The Puppet Crown, by Harold McGrath; Alice of Old Vincennes, by Maurice Thompson. Doolittle has them all and a hundred others.

The county commissioners will receive bids up to Sept. 2nd for the building of six jetties fifty feet long extending into the river from the south bank of the main channel of the North Platte river near Brady Island. The jetties are to be built of willows and dirt, twenty feet wide on the top and one foot above the level of the bank of the river.

Preceding the lecture at the opera house last evening a brief musical program was rendered. The first number consisted of a selection by the summer school ladies octette which so pleased the audience that the ladies were recalled. Alvin Pool rendered a violin solo in such an excellent manner as to win an encore and Miss Jessie Bratt gave a piano selection which was heartily applauded and resulted in her recall.

Last evening a child of Paul Meyer was struck in the eye by a missile thrown by a boy and fears are entertained that the injury may result in the permanent loss of the sight of the eye.

Prof. Ott has been spending the day in town and this forenoon gave a reading at the teachers' institute. The Professor goes from here to Lexington, where he will deliver his lecture.

Chicago forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. The maximum temperature yesterday was 89, one year ago it was 85. The minimum temperature this morning was 60; one year ago it was 60.

There are 3,924 miles of irrigation ditches in Nebraska which cost $4,773,684. The land covered by these ditches is 1,698,831 acres, and the estimated increase in the value of the land is placed at sixteen million dollars. Lincoln county has 385 miles of ditches and 210,000 acres of land are covered by the ditches.

A famous cook once began a recipe for making rabbit pot pie as follows: "First catch the rabbit." The way to be sure that you have value received for your money is to: "First buy your goods at Doolittle's." The goods will do the rest.

Through a misunderstanding of dates a statement is made on our last page that the teachers will be entertained this evening at the Burke residence. The fact is this reception was held at the Burke home last Saturday evening, hence it is a "horse" on the local editor. This reception was attended by seventy-five or eighty teachers who were pleasantly entertained by music by the Mandolin Club and selections on the piano by Miss Burke. Refreshments were served and a general good time prevailed.

The lecture delivered at the opera house last evening by Ed. Amherst Ott of Drake university was heard by an audience of several hundred; it was deserving of four-fold that number. It was a decided treat, in fact the general verdict is that nothing quite so good had before been heard in North Platte. The subject, "Sour Grapes," centered on heredity—that like begets like. The acorn from the oak tree, produces an oak tree; the physical and moral character of the parent is transmitted to the offspring. Numerous cases were cited to prove the latter proposition. Mrs. Siddons came from a family of actors. Bach from a family of musicians, Napoleon was born with inherent desire for war and conquest, and so on through the list of those who were great. The applications made by the speaker were to the point, they were suggestive, they awakened thought and interest in the lecturer's appeal for greater social purity. Prof. Ott is a dramatic speaker, his flights of oratory are superb, the word-painting grand. He spoke for an hour and a quarter, he could have doubled his time and yet held the most intense interest of his auditors. In securing Prof. Ott for a lecture Co. Supt. Thoelecke is entitled to the thanks of the entire audience present.

Joined in Wedlock.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Bratt, on west Fourth street, last Wednesday evening at 8:30. Miss Elizabeth Margherita Bratt, one of North Platte's most brilliant and estimable daughters was united in marriage to Mr. William Arthur Baldwin of Omaha.

The wedding was a very quiet one, only the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends of the family being present. The spacious compartments of the bride's home were brilliantly lighted and decorated for the occasion.

When the inspiring strains of Lohengrin's wedding march sounded forth under the cheerful touch of Miss Nellie, the youngest sister of the bride who presided at the piano, the bridal party, consisting of the bride-elect leaning on the arm of her father, followed by Miss Jessie Bratt as maid of honor, and the bridegroom with Charles Hendy as best man, proceeded from the main hall through the space ribboned off by Mabel and Lulu, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Burke, to the large arch in the east window of the south parlor which was lavishly trimmed with cut flowers and smilax. It was beneath this arch of blossoms that the bridal couple stood while the solemn words of the Episcopal marriage service were said by the Rev. George A. Beecher.

After the wedding ceremony and the usual greetings an elegant repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were the recipients of a large number of costly gifts.

The bride was born in this county and reared in North Platte. After her graduation from the public schools she pursued her studies in an Omaha business college from which she graduated with honor, and for the past two years has been acting dean in the university of South Dakota. The groom is an enterprising young business man of Omaha. Their many friends in North Platte extend to them hearty congratulations for a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left the same night on a wedding trip to Colorado points and will be at home after Sept. 5th at the Her Grand Hotel, Omaha. G. A. B.

Mrs. Wm. Neville came in from from the east yesterday morning.

Mrs. N. Klein returned today from her visit at Sheridan, Wyo.

Read Prof. Ott's character novel, Philip Gerard. At Doolittle's Book store.

A dozen or more "rooters" will go to Cheyenne on No. 5 tomorrow morning to witness the ball games.

Received at Schlesinger's Louvre, Mixed carload of Imported German Beer—Culmbacher and Waldschloechen.

Rod Smith, who is in town today, says Kearney robbed Shelton of the ball game last Wednesday. The Kearney team seems to be getting quite a reputation as pirates.

A Competence

Is assured the industrious settler on the WESTERN AND OPENING LANDS of Western Canada. Should you have a friend settled in Manitoba, Assiniboia, Saskatchewan or Alberta, write to him and ascertain what are his views of the country.

Thousands of Americans have settled there within the past four years and the universal verdict is that all are well satisfied. The FREE HOMESTEAD LANDS adjoin lands that may be purchased from the Government of railway. In a few years they will yield the pains-taking farmer a competence for himself and family. The climate is healthy, fuel plentiful, taxes nominal, yield of wheat and other grains phenomenal, prices for produce excellent. Railways, schools, churches, etc., convenient. Write for full particulars, maps, pamphlets, letters from settlers, etc., to F. Pedley, Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or to
