W. T. Banks moved into his commodious new home in the west end the early part of this week. This residence is well supplied with all the modern improvements, and in a few years when the trees get a fair size Mr. Banks will have an ideal suburban home.

The Lutheran Sunday-school picnic at Stebbins' grove yesterday was attended by a large crowd of pupils, teachers and parents. The day was very pleasantly passed, the children being provided with amusements and the crowd furnished ample refreshments.

Rev. Greenlee of Carrailton, Ill., will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, morning and evening. Rev. Greenlee may possibly be called to the pastorate of the church. He is said to be a very successful minister and a man who takes well with the people.

It is human nature to want something for nothing. Drs. Seymour & Williams offer you a chance to indulge in that desire. They will give you free consultation when here Thursday, September 26th, at the Farrington Hotel. Do not miss this opportunity of seeing them.

A canvasser and his helper were arrested Wednesday for doing this class of work without a license, which is contrary to a city ordinance. They were taken before Judge Baldwin and the canvasser fined five dollar and costs and the helper one dollar and costs. They refused to pay the fine and were remanded to jail.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING.

At a modest price, that looks well and wears as it should, is the most desirable for a good merchant to sell. In many respects you are puzzled and do not know what to buy in Children's Suits. We have them in such large assortment and at such moderate prices for attractive and desirable goods, that you will readily see it is to your advantage to make your purchases from us. If not already a customer of ours, an inspection of our stock is all that is necessary to make you one.

Astounded The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at Strietz's Drug Store.
