When You Buy Paint

Buy Good Paint....

And that means SHERWIN & WILLIAMS' PAINT. We have been handling this make for many years and have found that it gives excellent satisfaction in every instance. It may cost a trifle more per gallon than inferior paints, but it's cheapest in the end. It sticks and holds its color longer than other paint. We can furnish you any color or quantity.

A. F. Streitz, Druggist.

Attempt to Blackmail.

John Howard Hunt and Rufus Edwin Bellamy were arraigned before Judge Baldwin yesterday morning on the charge of attempting to blackmail M. R. Magnussen, and the case was continued until this afternoon.

The story is as follows: Magnussen, who lives southwest of town, managed to raise and sell about three hundred dollars worth of watermelons and Hunt and Bellamy, who were temporarily working for him, became possessed of socialistic ideas and laid a scheme which they hoped would result in a distribution of Magnussen's wealth. They adopted the plan which Pat Crowe is supposed to have successfully worked on Ed Cudaby but in this instance it didn't pan out.

Tuesday morning Magnussen received a letter demanding that he deposit the sum of three hundred dollars at a certain spot not later than Tuesday evening, and that if he failed to do so the services of an undertaker would be needed at the Magnussen home. This demand and threat did not seem to frighten Magnussen; he regarded it as a bluff and he called it by having Hunt and Bellamy arrested as the authors of the letter.

The charge under which the two men were arrested is a serious one and the statutes provide a penalty of from one to three years imprisonment.

DICKENS DOINGS.

Mrs. Julia Jolliff of Somerset, but formerly of Dickens, is visiting her son Daniel and other relatives this week. She is contemplating a trip to California soon.

Rev. Frank Johnson took a load of eggs to North Platte for Cecil Tuell this week.

Engine No. 45 set fire in the grass Saturday which was discovered by W. H. Seeleye and wife before it got fairly started and fought it out or it would undoubtedly have burned up many tons of feed.

George Rhodes is building a neat little house by the Griffith school house.

John Hublitz, a cattle man from over north, came down to church Sunday evening.

The deep bass voice of Cecil Tuell was missed in the choir Sunday.

Three tenths of an inch of rain fell Wednesday evening.

Fireman Bushnell of Cheyenne returned to Cheyenne today after visiting friends in town for a couple of days.

Joe Schwaiger, who was sent to the Kansas division several weeks ago, has returned and will resume work today.

STATE NEWS.

Leo May, a youth of Louisville, who has been reading Nick Carter's novels, broke into a farm house and carried off two empty pocket-books, a revolver and $11 in pennies belonging to a Sunday-school treasurer. He is in jail.

The peach and plum crop in Nebraska is larger this year than has been known for a quarter of a century.

Czolgosz has been hung in effigy in a score of Nebraska towns, and there will be no rest until Czolgosz himself is hung.

A great many people who had never before watched the little rubber ball pass from one shell to another, laid down their good money at the Fairbury fair last week and became wise.

C. L. Patterson, a merchant of Superior, crawled in behind some boxes in the cellar of his store and blew his brains out with a revolver. Ill health is said to be the cause of his rash act.

The Fremont Tribune thinks that when live hogs bring 6 cent a pound on the market they are valuable enough to vote. Well many of them have been voting for years.

York county postponed its fair until the first week in October on account of the heavy rains that were sent in September but which were due in July and August.

O. J. Olson, a Lincoln dealer in wall paper, suddenly dropped out of sight. He left an anxious string of creditors who are looking for what he owed them. The stock he left won't pay for invoicing, hardly.

Chris Jacobs of Lincoln called Francis R. Clifton "spitsboob" and had to pay $1 and costs for using the word. "Spitsboob" is German and means something like squeeze penny, signifying the fellow it was applied to was close fisted.

Pat Ford, jr., of Omaha has arrived in that city from Samoa, where he was stationed in the navy. He was on the Maine when it was blown up at Havana and afterwards distinguished himself at Cienfuegos by going in a small boat under a galling fire to help splice a cable.

Members of the Grand Army Post are entitled to credit for their work in draping the opera house for the McKinley memorial services yesterday.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malaria fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50 cents at Streitz's drug store.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Winter attire has been donned to a considerable extent within the past few days.

Wm. Ware we are told is still in a critical condition with but faint hopes of recovery.

The McConnell boys recently sold Seeburger & Co. 1200 bushels of wheat delivered on the cars at Hershey at 55 cents per bushel.

Several parties in Hershey and vicinity will indulge in a social dance in the hall at that place this evening.
