When You Buy Paint

Buy Good Paint...

And that means SHERWIN & WILLIAMS' PAINT. We have been handling this make for many years and have found that it gives excellent satisfaction in every instance. It may cost a trifle more per gallon than inferior paints, but it's cheapest in the end. It sticks and holds its color longer than other paint. We can furnish you any color or quantity.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.
Sugar beet harvest is in progress at this time.

E. F. Seeberger and daughter of Hershey Sundayed with friends at the county seat.

Candidates for the various county offices have been thicker, and took up more of the farmers time this week than the sportsman after the prairie chicken.

S. L. Fankhouser overseer of roads in Nichols precinct interviewed the county commissioners at North Platte on Friday last week in regard to using the road funds paid in money. They informed him that he could use the same as requested.

Prof. Ebricht is baling hay for L. Stebbins over south. He will bale out about 150 tons which will be loaded at Pallas and Birdwood, the new name for Spuds.

Wm. Ware an old pioneer of this county and who has been seriously ill for some time died of a complication of diseases at his home west of Hershey on Saturday last at nine o'clock. The funeral was held at the M. E. church in Hershey the following day at two o'clock, which was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing neighbors and friends. The interment took place at the O'Fallons cemetery. He was a man who had hosts of friends who deeply regret his demise. He was an old veteran of the rebellion and spent nine months of the time in Andersonville prison and was never a healthy man after that. He was always first in church affairs as well as in the G. A. R. A wife, several sons and daughters survive him all of whom have the sympathy of numerous friends in the valley.

A new son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Toillion on Sunday morning. He is said to be a lively little fellow and is bound to remain.

C. C. Wetzel shipped a carload of cattle to South Omaha recently. Corn husking will soon be the order of the day up in this vicinity.

It is reported that W. A. Paxton who is feeding about 1,000 head of cattle is paying forty-five cents per bushel for corn at this time.

G. L. Mudd foreman of the Paxton ranch near Hershey was a county seat visitor on business Saturday.

Prairie chicken hunters are not finding as good success as they at first anticipated up in the valley as a large number of the farmers there have put up signs. "No hunting."

Richard Spurrier was lately sent out here from Iowa by his father to look at a large ranch in Cheyenne county with a view of purchasing it. The old gentleman had previously seen and deemed it a very fair ranch but when Richard came out and took a view of it he did not consider it worth the price and offered them $500 less for it and a sale was not perfected. Mr. Spurrier has returned to Iowa, but will return soon with the intention of locating in this vicinity if he can strike anything that suit him.

Grandpa and Grandma Toillion of Nichols were at the county seat on Monday on business pertaining to their pension vouchers.

BRADY NEWS.
The Brady Review has been purchased by Perry Giffin. The Review has had a hard road to travel, but it is now in good hands.

Prof. Shuman has started an evening class in German, and we presume in a short time nearly everybody will be speaking Deutche.

Cassius Parsons, who recently returned from Wyoming, will live on the Moles ranch south of town. We are glad to have him back.

Mr. Winquest has been in Holdrege for a few days looking after business matters.

Dr. Ward has invested in a team and buggy in order to more readily visit his patients.

Nello Cover has returned from North Platte where he had charge of the separator station for a couple of weeks.
