SEVENTEENTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, OCTOBER 25, 1901.

NO. 80

Something from what takes place arround us. You have recently seen two of North Platte's business men adopt the cash system. One of them saying in a circular sent out that a merchant doing business on a credit basis always has to charge a certain per cent more for the goods he sells than would be the case if he did business for Cash. How many of these losses have you paid for? Better trade at a store that has no old losses to cover nor new ones to make.
