THE JEWELER.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune.

FRIDAY, OCT. 25, 1901.

Will Dolan was up from Maxwell yesterday transacting business. Angel Food Taffy twenty cents a pound at Hupper's.

Judge Grimes went to Sidney Wednesday to hear a case in chambers.

J. S. Clinton went to Lexington this morning to visit his son Ben and family.

The city fire department has selected Nov. 22d as the date for its annual ball.

Wm. Graham, switchman, has gone to Pocatello, Idaho, where he expects to locate.

Mrs. S. Knapp has gone to Omaha to visit her daughter, who is seriously ill.

Conductor P. L. O'Brien spent Wednesday with his family in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Wm. Noll has gone to Sidney, where her husband is employed as night yard master.

Ast. Supt. Ware returned yesterday from a five day trip over the road with the pay car.

David Day returned yesterday from a visit to Buffalo and other points in New York.

W. P. Moyer of Gandy was the guests of North Platte friends for several days this week.

Miss Hattie VonGoetz began work Wednesday as clerk in the Wilcox Department Store.

Mrs. Thos. Cartwright has gone to Colorado to join her husband who is now located in that state.

President Burt of the Union Pacific, who had been in the west for a few days, went east on 102 yesterday.

Mrs. R. M. Mason leaves today for El Paso, Texas, where her husband has a position with the M. K. & T. road.

Solomon Johnson, who sprained his foot a few days ago, has gone to Cheyenne to visit his daughter during his enforced lay-off.

Deputy Game Warden Carter, who had been spending a couple of weeks in the east part of the state, returned home last evening.

The Union Pacific painter's gang spent several days in town this week, applying the regulation red to several of the minor buildings.

Up to yesterday 512 cars of fruit in transit have been iced at this station which is considered exceptionally good business for October.

"Doc" Ballard, the poplar barber, who had his ankle fractured five weeks ago, was able to be out on the streets yesterday with the aid of crutches.

At a general meeting of the fire department last evening a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual ball of the fire department.

FOR SALE—On easy terms, Good five room house and one lot. Within two blocks of High School and business part of Dewey street. Good new barn with pump. City water, cess pool, shade trees, all in good condition. Inquire of Jos. HERSHEY.

Bessie Cussins fell on a sidewalk a few days ago and dislocated an ankle. It is remarkable that more of such accidents do not occur, when one considers the number of dilapidated walks in town.

The funeral of Jettie Thompson was held this afternoon at 2:30 from the Lutheran church. The O. E. S. took charge of the services at the grave.

Ten cars of hay were shipped from this station yesterday and four from Gannett. Part of the shipments went to Omaha and Chicago, the others to western points.

If you want something fine in a razor or knife that is warranted call and examine our stock. Every article guaranteed.

CLINTON THE JEWELER.

Republicans will see when they get a ballot that a cross in the circle at the top of the ballot opposite the word "Republican" counts as a vote for all republican state, county and precinct nominees. Be sure that you put your cross in the circle opposite republican.

Deputy Game Warden Carter will make a trip to the West Birdwood creek next week for the purpose of investigating the practicability of stocking that stream with brook trout next spring. It is believed that trout would thrive in the creek, but Mr. Carter desires to make a personal examination.

About 275 people were at the opera house last evening to hear Louise Jewell Manning give a dramatic interpretation of The Sign of the Cross, one of the strongest plays on the stage. The ability of the reciter was recognized by the audience, and though to some the interpretation grew a little tiresome, it on the whole gave general satisfaction.

While burning weeds yesterday George Eves lost control of the fire and for a time his farm buildings were threatened. The arrival of timely help averted a disastrous fire. This fire gave rise to the report that the buildings on the E. W. Murphy ranch had burned, which was incorrect. Mr. Eves lost one stack of hay.

Deputy Grand Master Wilson of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, has been in town for a few days and has received thirty-six applications for membership in the order. The present membership of the lodge is 316, and with the members to be initiated next week the total will reach 350, thus making the Workmen much the strongest lodge in town.

Will Blood, who is rapidly getting to that notch which entitles him to the cognomen of a sheep king, will pass through the city some time tomorrow with twenty-four carloads of sheep—about 6,000 head. This is pretty good evidence that Willie is making a great success of the sheep business.

Arthur Plummer, who was operated upon for appendicitis several weeks ago, came up from Omaha Wednesday and is in town today. Other than feeling a little sore, his general health is good. His friends in town are glad to know that he withstood the operation and will soon again be in prime condition.

Ed Purtell, a passenger engineer, was killed a few days ago in a wreck on the Oregon Short Line. Purtell done his first firing out of North Platte at a time when Charley Ell, Frank Tracy and other local passenger engineers were employed in shovelling coal into the firebox.

We begin today the work of printing the ballots for the coming election, which will necessitate the burning of midnight oil by the office force. It will also result in a curtailment of local news in these columns for two or three issues.

We have a big line of ladies' and gents' pocket books, change purses card cases, shopping bags and wallets. If you want something fine we have them from 50 cents up.

The fusion candidates and a number of the fusion leaders are out in the country precincts making futile attempts to stop the wholesale slump to the republican party. They will need considerable tonic when they get home to restore their shattered nerves.

J. C. Norton has taken a sixty day lay-off and will go to Bisbee, Ariz., to investigate a position which has been offered him. If the position and the country impress him favorably he will locate there permanently.

W. C. Twobig has severed his connection with the U. P. as machinist, and left this morning for Terre Haute, Ind. Billy is a mighty good fellow and we regret to see him leave.

W. D. Hover, Embalmer. Howe's Furniture Store. Night call Telephone 90.

BRADY NOTES.
Miss Hattie DeWolf closed a two months term of school Thursday in District 99. Cassius Parsons, who has been working in Wyoming all summer, has decided that Brady is the place to live and has moved his household goods into one of the St. Marie houses. Mrs. A. W. Mathewson returned Monday from a three weeks' visit in Denver. The first social since ice cream weather will be held Friday evening at the home of J. H. Stapleton. E. G. West has moved another building from Gothenburg to this place. Henry Nelson, who lives north of Brady, brought in a load of new corn Thursday.
